

CARBONDALE.

The Carbondale correspondence of The Tribune has been placed in the hands of Mr. C. E. Mann, Salem avenue and Church street, to whom news items may be addressed. All complaints as to irregular delivery, etc., should be made to W. J. Roberts, news agent.

E. K. MORSE DEAD.

Incumbent to Bright's Disease at His Home at Lakeside.

The community received a shock yesterday in the news of the death of E. K. Morse, which occurred at his summer home, Lakeside, on the Crystal Lake, at 7:30 o'clock this morning. It did not become generally known until a few days ago that Mr. Morse had been ailing. During the greater part of the winter which was spent at the Hotel American in appearance, he was in the best of health and it was thus that he was remembered after leaving for his summer home.

For the past three weeks, however, he had been ill. He first complained of a pain in the heart, and afterward other symptoms made themselves known. Dr. Pike of Dunstaff and Jenkins, of this city, called it Bright's disease. Mr. Morse grew worse rapidly until in the past week his sufferings were agonizing. The end was merciful.

Edward Kendall Morse was born at Wilkes-Barre fifty-five years ago. He was educated at Wyoming seminary, Kingston, and afterward devoted his time to the study of law. After being admitted to the bar, he practiced his profession in New York and in Wilkes-Barre. He was an extensive traveler, well informed, genial and an interesting conversationalist. He made many friends hereabouts who regret his death.

On September 5, 1888, he was married in this city to Margaret Isabel Vannon. Since then he has resided in this city spending his time between this city and Lakeside.

THEIR FIELD DAY.

- One-mile bicycle race—Same as half mile.
- Throwing hammer—Estabrook, Warren, White and Hockenberry.
- Putting the shot—Same as hammer throw.
- Relay race between the classes.

NEEDED PROTECTION.

Councils Should Lose No Time in Passing a Bicycle Ordinance.

Several children and some adults have already been run down by cyclists this season and while none was seriously hurt, it is only a question of a few weeks when some one will be painfully injured. Councilmen should not wait for a fatality to arouse them. A bicycle ordinance requiring bell and lantern after dark and limiting speed should be passed at once. Such a measure was introduced last year but it died in the early stages of its career because it was not drafted in harmony with common sense. It limited speed to six miles an hour and half what it should have been and barely gave enough to allow a green rider to balance.

However, the pedestrians desire the protection of bell and lantern and the city fathers will be guilty of a dereliction of duty if they do not provide it. There should be no delay in this matter as restrictions on the careless are needed now.

KINBACK STILL LIVING.

R. B. H. Kinback, writing from Camp Alger to friends in this city, says: "I learn that I have been reported in Carbondale as dead. Alderman Bunnell's son and two or three other fellows have heard it through letters and came over to my tent to see about it. They said I was a pretty lively dead man. I think if my Carbondale friends saw me eat dinner they would think so, too. Although there are 20,000 men in camp there has been but one death so far. The water is good, being obtained from artesian wells. I was examined by several physicians some time ago. Our review by President McKinley and his staff was a grand affair.

The rumor which was persistently circulated here for several days had it that he had been bitten by a snake and poisoned to death.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

There will be a game of base ball at Alumni park this afternoon at 3 o'clock between the Carbondale High school team and the Jermyn club. The latter will be strengthened by four players from the School of the Lackawanna at Scranton.

S. A. Purdy, who was overcome by ill health at Lake Bennett while on route to the Klondike, has returned to this city.

Messrs. R. and W. A. Manville have taken up their residence at Rock Cliff, Farview, for the summer.

Mrs. J. R. Vanderford has returned home.

The contribution of the pupils of the central school for the hospital amounted to $23.34 yesterday.

Messrs. Giles and Lee have extended a very cordial invitation to the juvenile portion of Carbondale's population to come and spend this afternoon with them at Antioch park. The gates will be thrown open free to the little ones and the best seats in the grand stand will be given them free of any charge. The performance will be of a nature exceptionally pleasing to the children and competent attendants will look after their welfare. The park and its gentlemanly managers are proud ing in popularity daily. The coming events have not been announced as yet, but in all probability they will be even better than those of the past.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

The borough council met in regular session last evening. The chief of police was authorized to procure a revolver and a pair of trawlers. Bills paid: Jermyn Light company, $16.70; Frank Hembright, $7.90; J. J. Clark, $1.20; William Bragg, $1.75; P. H. Gill, $2.00; street work, $27.45; P. Tindin, $5. Mr. Bloomer moved that a light be placed at the Delaware and Hudson depot. The light will be placed there.

The secretary was instructed to notify the Traction company that they must pair their road at once. The building committee was instructed to advertise for bids to put the lookout in proper shape. George Edmonds, Thomas Davis and H. D. Swick were appointed to visit Mayfield council and see if there can be lights placed in town. H. D. Carey and P. E. Tindin were appointed for borough attorney for the ensuing year. Ballot resulted Carey, 55; Tindin, 4. Salary was fixed at $15 per year. Auditors report for year of 1897 was read.

Jermyn can boast of a policeman as "fine" as the "finest" and since he began to make his "rounds" a very marked improvement is noticeable on the streets. But the borough lookout is not in its condition to do any human being into and the council should lose no time in having it put in proper condition.

Annually there are hundreds of dollars wasted trying to put Main street in good condition. All experiments, so far, have not been successful. Why not this year try and build at least one block of good street by removing the surplus mud and fill in with crushed stone? Let the council try this experiment and they will find that it will be a success.

The school board will meet next Monday evening. The newly elected members will take their seats and the board organized for the ensuing year. We understand that there are three vacancies to be filled in the corps of teachers. During the past year, we have had for many years. We had a good principal and a corps of teachers who gave him good support, and the three teachers who are not going to apply this year were among the best. It is to be hoped that the board will be in no hurry to fill those vacancies, and that when they are filled, it will be with teachers who are fully as good, and better if possible, than those whose places they are to take. Political and personal "pull" nor any other "pull" should not enter into the hiring of teachers for our public schools. Take the papers of the applicants, investigate thoroughly, and hire the very best that can be had.

On July 12 next, Rush Brook lodge, No. 539, I. O. O. F., will celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary. They propose to unite the six sister lodges of this district to join them in a parade and picnic. The picnic will be held in New Marble grove. There will be addresses by eminent members of the order from abroad, an abundance of music, both instrumental and vocal, and a line of amusements entirely new to the occasion. Refreshments will be served on a grand scale. A committee of two from Rush Brook lodge will visit each of the sister lodges in the district next week and extend to them a verbal invitation to participate in the celebration.

Peckville building in the country has Old Glory floating over it and our borough building is no exception, but the flag is old and torn and a borrowed flag at that, and we trust that our council will provide a new one soon.

PECKVILLE.

Last Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Switzer were pleasantly surprised at their home, "The Pines," on Pleasant avenue, by a large party of young people. Games and other amusements were indulged in and at 12 o'clock light refreshments were then served.
