PAPERS MADE OUT.

Men Who Robbed the Boston Clothing Store Will Be Brought Back to

This City.

Applications for the requisition paers necessary to bring to Scranton the we Boston Clothing store thieves new in Elmira and their "fence," who das ocated in Binghamton and arrested here, were prepared yesterday in the flice of Alderman Millar. The information was made by Proprietor Driesen, of the Boston store, and Chief of Police Gurrell. The applications, information, etc., occupied the attention of Clerk Jordan, of the alderman's ofe, nearly half a day.

It is not expected that the requisiion papers will reach here from Harrisburg before Thursday. The three accused men will probably not be brought here before Friday. The arrest of the men. Gordon and Bergstein in Elmira and Stone in Binghamton, led to the development that the gang had robbed the store of S. I., Goldstein in Einghamton. Yesterday's issue of the Binghamton Republican
