

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

Funeral of Charles Conrad, Sr., Was Very Largely Attended.

INTERMENT WAS MADE IN FOREST HILL CEMETERY—MEETINGS OF THE NEPTUNE CENTURY AND WILLIAM CONNELL FIRE COMPANIES—FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN TO MRS. JOSEPH RYDER BEFORE HER DEPARTURE FOR PHILADELPHIA—ALARM CAUSED BY A REPORT OF BLOWING.

In a sorrowful and lengthy procession, which moved to the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, were the remains of an honored and life-long resident of this side, Charles Conrad, sr., whose death was mentioned in Saturday's Tribune. The respect and esteem entertained by the friends of the deceased through life was manifest at the last sad rites at the family residence yesterday afternoon, on Cedar avenue, when Rev. W. A. Nordt pronounced an eloquent farewell eulogy. At the conclusion the services at the house of the cottage moved to the edifice above mentioned, and after a brief service, the remains were borne to the Forest Hill cemetery and laid to rest. Rev. Mr. Zitzelman, pastor, and friend of the deceased, was, owing to illness, unable to attend to the obsequies, and officiate was: John Demuth, Henry Ziegler, sr., Emil Erpp, Michael Kramer, Philip Graff and Charles Schuch; the flower-bearers, Fred Weichel were John Phillips and Fred Weichel were the flower-bearers.

AMONG THE FIREMEN.

Last evening's regular meeting of the Neptune Engine company was the most interesting held in many months, and during the session three candidates for admission to membership were initiated, Peter J. Rosat, Jr., Charles Snyder and Henry R. Sift. Following the meeting a social session was held in the parlors above the meeting room. A sumptuous lunch was served, and during the courses impromptu remarks were made by County Commissioner John Demuth, Fourth District Assistant Chief Charles Wirth, City Assessor Christian Fickus, Peter Robling, jr., and George Rosat. It was decided that the company parade Saturday evening next to further advertise the excursion of the company, which goes to Lake Ariel June 15, and the Germania band has been engaged for both occasions. Three prospective members were balloted for at last night's session.

As announced in The Tribune Saturday the members of the Century Hose company met for drill practice last night, and at 8:20 o'clock Captain James O'Hara marched a squad of thirty men to the Boaring Brook bridge, and put his recruits through the manual. At the close of the exercises the captain complimented his command for their cleverness. The William Connell Hose company held an enthusiastic meeting last evening, and the members are sanguine that their annual outing at Lake Ariel June 8 will be a roving success, such as it deserves to be.

FAREWELL TO MRS. RYDER. Today on the 2:33 o'clock Delaware.

Lackawanna and Western train Mrs. Joseph Ryder, formerly Miss Christiansa Saul, will leave for Philadelphia, to join her husband, who has been visiting in that city for many weeks. At the home of her mother, Mrs. Saul, of Cedar avenue, a farewell dinner was given last evening by her intimate friends. Those who sat about the festive board were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Stanley Dymond, Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. George Sull, Mrs. William Smith, Misses Anna Saul, Tillie and Adalena Smith, Edna Lewis, Margaret Terwilliger, Frances and Lulu Saul, Minnie Dubiel, Warren Dymond and Eugene Saul.

A FALSE ALARM.

Much consternation was caused here yesterday by the report that a child was drowned in the Boaring Brook, in the rear of Mr. Robinson's brewery, and mothers whose children were missing any length of time from home rushed madly to the scene of the reported fatality to ascertain if it was their child who met an untimely death in the waters. Fortunately the rumor of the drowning was not true, but it was caused by the non-appearance of a Polish child, whose home is on the Scranton Flats, who was not seen since early morning, and who, when the excitement was at its height, misandered to the river and was quickly recognized by his mother. The scene that followed can be more easily imagined than pictured.

SUBS OF NEWS.

Miss Rielly, of White Haven, who has been the guest of Misses Gavin, of Stone avenue, has returned to her home. Mrs. George Hufnagel, of Pittston avenue, is recovering from a severe case of typhoid fever. The William Connell Hose company held an enthusiastic meeting last evening, and the members are sanguine that their annual outing at Lake Ariel June 8 will be a roving success, such as it deserves to be.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Dedicatory Services at the Washburn Street Presbyterian Church.

SEVERAL FORMER PASTORS OF THE CHURCH WERE PRESENT AND ONE OF THEM, REV. W. I. STEANS, OF DANVILLE, DELIVERED AN ADDRESS—DEPOSITS OF PUPILS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS, EXHIBITION GIVEN BY THE EAST INDIAN WANDER.

It was a large and enthusiastic concourse of persons which was assembled last evening in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church to enjoy, and in a sense participate in, the "Thanksgiving" services which formed the second of the series of dedicatory services of the church. In addition, reception was given to several of the former pastors of the church. The congregation was well represented and many former members and also invited friends were in attendance. The main auditorium was decorated with palms, ferns and flowering plants placed at convenient points along the side aisles. The altar was also decorated and the rear of the choir loft was artistically draped with two large American flags. Here and there smaller flags were arranged to add their color to the green of the plants. The sub-auditorium was similarly bedecked.

Rev. J. P. Moffatt, pastor of the church, presided. Seated on the pulpit platform with him were the former pastors present, Rev. W. I. Steans, of Danville, Pa.; Rev. A. L. Clark, of Kingston; R. J. and Dr. D. K. Freeman, of Huntington, Pa.; Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. David Jones, Rev. S. P. Matthews, Rev. R. F. Fagan, Rev. James Hughes and Rev. Thomas DeGruchy, all of this side. The regular church choir assisted with the singing and rendered several anthems.

Rev. Thomas DeGruchy read the Responsive reading and Rev. L. R. Foster the Scriptures, reading the former announced by Revs. David Jones and James Hughes. Rev. J. B. Sweet offered the prayer. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. I. Steans and was a masterly effort. The speaker has not lost any of his old-time earnestness which characterized his work and preaching when pastor of the church. He reviewed the efforts of the congregation in the past and spoke of the results of those efforts now seen. The reason for the feeling of thanksgiving was apparent and it should be tendered to Him to whom it belonged. He concluded by speaking of what the future should bring to the congregation, their efforts being as successful in all lines as it had in this.

Rev. S. E. M. Hays, of Danville, Pa., sang a hymn and Rev. W. I. Steans pronounced the benediction. This concluded this part of the evening's programme. The reception to the former pastors followed. After the general greetings were over, short remarks were made by each one of these divines. William Frink, of the church session, Attorney T. F. Wells and Garrett Smith also spoke. The reception was brought to a pleasant conclusion by the singing of light refreshments were served by the members of the senior Christian Endeavor society of the church. This evening the main, and concluding, service will be held, at which the dedication of the beautiful edifice will be made. An augmented choir and Bauer's full orchestra will assist.

SCHOOL DEPOSITS.

Owing to the falling of the regular weekly deposit day on a school holiday, no deposits were made last week by the public school pupils who are observing the savings fund idea. Yesterday, however, a double deposit was made, and a total of $48.24 was deposited for three schools, School No. 13, of which David Owens is principal, was the leader for yesterday's deposit. The deposits as made by rooms in each school was:

For No. 19, Miss Josie D. Lees, principal, $7; Miss Fellows, $1.58; Miss Nicholas, $5; Miss Bernish, $5; Miss J. J. 25; Miss Broadbent, $1.11; Miss Flynn, $7; Miss Agnes Evans, $1.75; Miss Wade, $9; Miss Murphy, $5; Miss Della P. Evans, $3.89; Mrs. Ferber, $2.91; total, $51.85.

For No. 32, H. L. Morgan, principal, $2; Miss Sara Owens, $2.34; Miss M. Lewis, $1.65; Miss Jane Fellows, $1.98; Miss M. T. Magbran, $1.42; Miss M. V. Vaughan, $1.79; total, $9.44.

HARNESS STOLEN.

Residents of the mining hamlet called the "Continental," near Luzerne street terminus, will soon have to fall back on a "vigilance" organization to protect their property from the depredations of a gang of desperadoes. Only yesterday an account of a highway robbery, which occurred early Saturday morning, was printed in this paper and now comes the story of a burglary perpetrated early Sunday morning.

Zeno A. Stover, a milk dealer, had five sets of harness stolen from his barn between midnight and 4 o'clock Sunday morning. He resides at the "Continental" and missed the property when he went to hitch up to make his delivery. There were three sets of light harness and two sets of heavy. He had to borrow some harness from the Hampton mule barn boss to get out on his route. Warrants were issued yesterday and the parties, being well known, will all be apprehended today.

CHIPPED HIS FINGER OFF.

Arthur Freese, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Freese, of Frink street, cut half of his first finger of the left hand off yesterday morning while playing with a hay-cutting machine in the barn. The lad was trying to see how the "thing" worked and discovered to his loss. The finger bled profusely and a physician was hastily summoned who dressed the wound.

EAST INDIAN WONDER.

Henry Allen Howard, "the East Indian wonder," who is giving exhibitions at Keystone hall, Dunmore, along the line of sticking large hatpins through his cheeks, lips, tongue, arms and hands, also driving nails through his hands and feet, yesterday gave a private exhibition at the residence of Dr. L. H. Gibbs, of South Main avenue. The majority of West Scranton's medical men were present at Dr. Gibbs' invitation and all seemingly were sat-

The man is considered the most reckless of men who risks his life by putting his head into the mouth of a savage lion. The men who perform this foolhardy act are few and far between. There are tens of thousands of men who die of consumption, and pneumonia, and other diseases, in cases of throat and lung affections. It acts directly on the digestive and nutritive organism. It creates a healthy appetite for food, facilitates the flow of bile and juices and promotes the assimilation of the life-giving elements of the food. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve-tonic. In cases of nervous prostration it builds up the nerve fibres and gives sound, refreshing sleep.

"I took a severe cold with sore throat," writes Mrs. A. S. Evershart, of Grand Spring, Scott Co., Mo. "I began to cough. My right side became sore so that when I coughed it seemed as though my lungs were being torn. I tried many remedies, but they did me no good. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for some time and got no better. All through the spring I suffered with my lungs. Finally I began to ache so badly between my shoulders that I could hardly get up in the morning. My breath was so short that I could scarcely talk. Several of my relatives had died of consumption. I thought I would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took a bottle and in a few days I was able to get up and am a new person. I would not take any more for the benefit received."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony English, of Price street, have as their guest Mrs. E. O'Malley, of Price street. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Davies, of Fairview avenue, is entertaining Mrs. Frank Meyers, of Clark's Summit. Benjamin Williams, of Middle Grandville, returned home yesterday after a visit with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Davies, of South Main avenue, have as their guest their daughter, Mrs. T. H. Jenkins, of Albany, N. Y. Mrs. Frank Sloat, of North Lincoln avenue, is entertaining Mrs. William Arnold, of Pittston, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ostrander, of North street, are being congratulated over the arrival of a son.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

All members of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, are requested to meet at Hari Gari hall, on North Main avenue, at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon to proceed to the central city in order to take part in the parade. In the evening a reception will be held for the guests of the division. An excellent programme has been selected and the affair will be held at Hari Gari hall. The reception committee comprises W. P. Sheridan, T. P. Rogan, Augustus McDade, M. J. Lavette, T. P. Tierney, M. J. Jennings, P. J. Gilroy, John Shaughnessy, T. P. McHale and R. J. Madden. The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell will be held from the parental residence on Grant avenue at 2:30 this afternoon. Interment in the cathedral cemetery. The local Salvation Army corps will be visited this evening by Franklin Carr, better known as "Big Frank," the "Savior of the Poor." Carr is a twenty-two-year-old man who has been in the army for several years and will speak upon "The Dark and Bright Sides of Life." The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting at the barracks on Price street. The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Knight will be held this afternoon at 2:30 from the residence, 1915 Jackson street. Interment at the cathedral cemetery. The funeral of Theodore, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Riley, of West Washington street, was held yesterday afternoon from the parental residence. Many friends of the bereft parents attended and there were many floral tributes. The remains were borne from the residence to the cathedral cemetery and interment made. The pall-bearers were Mortimer Hogan, Joseph Murphy, Anthony Sullivan and Edward McCann. The flower-bearer, Thomas McGraw. The remains of the late Cella Clarke, who died at the Washburn street terminus yesterday morning. Services were held at the grave, at which Rev. James Hughes, of Jackson street, officiated. The services were private.

MINOOKA.

John Murray, of this place, and William Melvin, of South Scranton, will leave this morning for Butte City, Mont. They intend to reside there permanently.

Donnie Donovan, Jr., is scheduled to his home after an extended tour in western New York.

Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will hold a public meeting in the demonstration at Scranton this afternoon.

Yesterday being the first Monday in June, the Lackawanna townships school board met at No. 1 school to organize for the ensuing year. The board, which remains the same as last year, held a short session and afterwards said the session of ex-Assemblyman O'Leahin, the retiring secretary, they proceeded to organize. Directors McFadden and Lovell were selected. J. J. Murphy, chairman and secretary, respectively. The nominations were immediately made permanent. The office of treasurer, apparently the most desirable plum, was filled by the selection of Director Thomas P. Coyne. The action of the board on the last office appeared to arouse the ire of Director Donovan and he scolded his colleagues for their partisan methods which he alleged were all out and dried for weeks past. After the storm passed over the board decided to make their annual tour of inspection of the different schools on June 11. Mr. Thomas urged the members to discontinue paying money to insurance companies and place the money allotted for that purpose in a reserve fund. No action was taken on the suggestion.

Mr. Thomas called the attention of the board to the exoneration tax. He named persons who were exempt from school taxes and said they were not entitled to the exemption. He urged the board to the proper party to look after the exonerating business and not the tax collector. The board unanimously administered a black eye to the book agents by passing a resolution to use the same books as last year. Nothing else of importance was taken up.

DAY'S DOINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

Branch of the Mine Workers' Union Organized in O'Donnell's Hall.

AN ADDRESS DELIVERED BY CHRIS EVANS THE NATIONAL ORGANIZER—INITIAL ENTERTAINMENT OF ST. VERONICA'S LADIES' CATHOLIC TOTAL ABSTINENCE SOCIETY—DEBATE BY MEMBERS OF THE F. G. W. SOCIAL CLUB—FUNERAL OF JOHN MERRIGAN FROM HIS LATE HOME.

O'Donnell's hall was comfortably filled last evening by miners, who were present for the purpose of organizing a branch of the United Order of Mine Workers. The speaker of the evening was Chris Evans, of Ohio, National Organizer of the order and for many years an experienced miner. He spoke in a plain, candid manner and commanded throughout his instructive talk the attention of his audience. He spoke of the benefits of organized labor and took the mine workers of the west and compared their condition, the wages earned, the number of hours that comprise a day's work with the conditions that prevail in the east. He said the former fare much better than the latter, owing to their organized condition and which in almost every instance was granted. He further stated that the miner in the west works eight hours for a day's work and in lieu gets $2.25 per shift; his assistant receives $2 and all other employees in the mine the gate tenders excepted, receive not less than $1.75 per day for eight hours work. Names were taken for enrollment and before the evening's work was concluded, about fifty names were enrolled as members. A meeting to be held for the organization will be held the fore part of next week.

PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT.

St. Veronica's Ladies' Catholic Total Abstinence society conducted their initial entertainment in St. Mary's hall last evening. The best talent obtainable was present, and delighted the large and enthusiastic audience present. So large was the throng that standing room was at a premium, and those who were compelled to stand throughout the entire time were perfectly satisfied, as the numbers on the programme were exceptionally fine. The decorations had not been forgotten, and the spacious hall was exquisitely decorated with a wealth of bunting and flags. Aside from the musical part of the entertainment the principal feature was the debate on the question "Resolved, That the United States is justified in armed intervention in Cuba." The opponents on this delicate question were representatives of Margaretta and the latter the negative. The subject was outlined in a brilliant manner by the debaters, and their efforts were greeted with tumultuous applause. Many points were brought forth by either side.

INTERESTING DEBATE.

The handsome club rooms of the F. G. W. Social club presented a most admirable appearance last evening when the members of the club and many of their friends congregated to indulge in a social time. The committee on arrangements had prepared an excellent programme, which was greatly enjoyed by those present. The debate on the subject was "Resolved, That Grant was a greater General than Lee," and proved highly instructive and brought many pointed remarks from the debaters. The judges, after a brief consideration, awarded the affirmative the decision. A smoker concluded the evening's entertainment.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

A whole batch of cases were heard last evening by Alderman Roberts. The first was the arraignment of Gwyllyn Jones, on the charge of making threats against Edward Cannon. Jones gave bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance. John Thomas was given a hearing for committing an assault and battery upon George Parks. He was held in $300 bail for his appearance. The last case to be heard was that of George and Sarah Parks, both being accused of being drunk and disorderly. Mrs. Genevieve Neat was the prosecutrix. The defendants paid the costs in the case and were discharged.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

The funeral of John Merrigan occurred from his late home on North Main avenue yesterday afternoon. The body was conveyed to the Holy Rosary church, where services were conducted, which were attended by a large number of his friends. The remains were taken to Hyde Park Cathedral cemetery, where interment was made. The members of the Welsh Congregational church took definite action Sunday evening in the plan of purchasing a site on which to build an edifice. Several sites were proposed by the committee appointed for the purpose, but the most eligible site at present is the Simpson property on Wayne avenue and Williams street and the adjoining lot, which is owned by David Christmas. The above site was proven so advantageous over the rest that it met with the unanimous approval of the entire congregation. The committee was vested with the power to purchase the property if a reasonable offer can be obtained. If the deal is consummated the North End will benefit greatly, as it is the purpose of the congregation to erect one of the handsomest edifices yet attempted in this locality.
