REVENUE TAX BILL REPORTED

$400,000,000 Bonds and $1,500,000 Silver Coin Monthly.

AGREED UPON AT NOON AND SENT TO THE HOUSE—EFFORTS TO HAVE IT ADOPTED BY TOMORROW.

Washington, June 9.—The conferees on the war revenue bill concluded their work at noon today, and, as soon as all the amendments could be printed, the bill as agreed on was reported to the house, with the view, if possible, to secure action upon it before adjournment tonight. There will be a strong effort to get the senate to act tomorrow.

The bill as reported follows:

The house accepts these senate provisions:

Allowing rebate of 7½ per cent on the sale of stamps for fermented liquors, in stead of 5 per cent., as provided by the house.

Imposing special taxes, etc., with an amendment striking out insurance agents and also making the tax as to theaters apply only to cities exceeding 25,000 population.

The amendment striking out the house provision imposing a special tax on retail tobacco dealers.

The provision relating to stamp taxes on life insurance policies but reduced to eight cents for each hundred dollars of insurance to be paid only once at the inception of the policy, and a corresponding reduction on weekly payment insurance.

The proprietary medicine and perfumery amendments of the senate, with a reduction of the tax about one-third.

The senate amendment providing that stamps may be affixed on medicinal articles held in stock, as when such articles are sold by the retailer.

The senate amendments imposing an excise tax of one-fourth of 1 per cent. on corporations refining sugar or petroleum, measured by their gross receipts exceeding $250,000.

PARLOR CAR TICKET.

The senate amendment imposing a stamp tax of 1 per cent. on the sale of each sleeping and parlor car ticket sold by the company issuing the same; and also the senate legacy and inheritance tax.

The house recedes from its tonnage tax provision.

The senate amendment imposing a duty of ten cents per pound on imported tea is adopted, with an amendment providing that the duty shall take effect on the passage of the act.

The senate amendment relating to mixed flour is adopted, with a substitute embodying the bill on the same subject as reported by the committee on ways and means.

The senate recedes from its coinage of silver seigniorage amendment, and a substitute is agreed to simply authorizing and directing the coinage of not less than 1,500,000 silver dollars per month from the silver bullion held in the treasury, such silver dollars to be applied as provided by the act of July 14, 1890.

The senate accepts these house provisions: Placing the increased tax on fermented liquors stored in warehouses. Certificates of indebtedness and loan provisions of the house, with a reduction of the amount of bonds authorized to four hundred millions.

CIGAR RATES.

The house accepts the senate rates on cigars and cigarettes; and the senate accepts the house provision imposing an additional tax on stocks on hand but reducing the tax on such stocks one-half, and excepting from its operation stocks not exceeding one thousand pounds of tobacco, twenty thousand cigars and cigarettes.

The house accepts the senate amendment imposing a stamp tax on all speculative stock and produce exchanges. The senate accepts the house exemption of receipts from stamp taxes.

The senate recedes from its amendment imposing stamp taxes on articles sold under a trade mark or any name or designation not open to general use.

Mr. Dingley immediately after the conference made up the report at 2 o'clock and announced the bill would be brought up for consideration at once, and that the house probably would dispose of it before it adjourned today.

PAYING THE TROOPS.

Adjutant General Stewart Completes the Work.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 9.—Adjutant General Stewart has concluded the payment of all the Pennsylvania troops in the field for duty at Mt. Gretna before they were mustered into the United States service and is arranging the rolls of the officers and men of the guard who declined to volunteer or who were rejected by the medical officers. This work will be finished next week. The adjutant general will be required to draw 2,000 individual checks.

General Stewart received a report from Commander J. S. Muckle, of the State Naval Militia showing its condition. The operating expenses of the battalion have been reduced $2,000 a year. The Cape Henlopen signal station has been served by five men of the battalion since April 22 and they have been mustered into the United States Naval service. The remainder of the battalion is ready and equipped to at once to go on guard. The reports of the executive officer, signal officer and paymaster show an encouraging condition of affairs in the battalion.

BOYS FIND TREASURE.

Cash and Notes Discovered in the Cellar of an Opera House.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., June 9.—While some boys were playing in the cellar of the Hollidaysburg Opera house today, they discovered a box filled with old bills, notes, obsolete money and currency aggregating several thousands of dollars in value. The treasure is believed to belong to the Gardner-Morrow bank that failed two years ago.

Government experts will be asked to determine its worth. The finding of the money created a sensation among the bank's depositors.

WAR BONDS WILL BOOM.

Indications Point to a Heavy Demand at Par.

New York, June 9.—Indications point to a heavy demand for the war bonds which the government is soon to issue at par. The local banks and bankers are evincing a lively interest, and several are offering to place subscriptions for their customers without charge. Little doubt is anticipated that the bonds will bring at least 104 soon after their distribution.

There is a large demand from European bankers and the whole issue could easily be placed there if this government so desired. As it is, there is little likelihood that many of the bonds will go abroad except at an advance over their par value.

CHANCE FOR RUBBER MAKERS.

The Government of Bolivia is Anxious for Settlers.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 9.—The Philadelphia Commercial Museum has just received a complete amplification of all the laws of Bolivia which relate to the entering upon claim-establishing of the rubber lands in that country. The Bolivia rubber lands are situated on the headwaters of the Amazon river and its tributaries are as yet comparatively unknown. They are said to very rich and the Bolivia government is making every effort to attract settlers by liberal concessions and by making it easy for settlers to claim lands.

Senor Luiz Paz, the minister of Bolivia in the United States, has wished to have citizens of the United States know of the opportunities which await them in Bolivia, and has therefore filed in the museum a copy of these laws.

AVOCA.

The members of the school board who became dissatisfied Monday evening at the meeting and who afterward left the building do not intend to forfeit their seats as members of the school board and so on last evening they met and effected an organization. So the borough of Avoca can now boast of two distinct sets of directors which plunges matters into a chaotic mass and which will take some time to unravel. At the meeting last evening M. J. THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review

New York, June 9.—Today's stock market was almost a repetition of yesterday except that the marked weakness of Sugar had rather less effect on the general market than was the case yesterday. This stock began to drop from the opening and fell away by spurts until the recovery in the final hour. The extreme decline was over 1 points. The rise and the fally in sugar came after the news from Washington of the action of the conferees on the revenue bill. The railroad was comparatively neglected all day, the market being distinctively one of specialties. There was a drive at the Grangers in the late dealings which carried Burlington down nearly a point below last night's level, but a full recovery was effected before the close. Some of the railroads failed to rally and the majority show net loses. For the most part there was a disposition to let the railroad list alone on account of the weakness in Sugar. The closing was active and strong at full recoveries in some cases. Sales were 850,000 shares.
