

DAY'S DOINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

Children's Day Services Observed in Many of the Churches.

ANOTHER MEETING OF THE UNITED MINE WORKERS HELD IN O'DONNELL'S HALL—FUNERAL SERVICES OVER THE REMAINS OF O. P. HADSELL, CONDUCTED BY REV. MR. ALDRICH—INTERMENT MADE AT FACTORYVILLE—PROGRESS OF WORK OF RECRUITING.

Children's day services were observed in several of the churches of this place yesterday. In each instance the programmes showed the results of careful training and went far in making the services noteworthy.

The exercises were interesting and were given in fine style. They consisted of recitations, solos and choruses, the latter being augmented by a large orchestra which aided materially to the excellence of the singing, which was in charge of the chorister, Professor Reese Watkins.

At the Presbyterian church the exercises were held in the morning and were entitled "Children's Hosanna." The children acquitted themselves in a style that won for them the admiration of a large congregation. An hour of song service was also held in the evening. As in the latter place, the children of the Methodist Episcopal church had charge of the services in the morning and were assisted in the exercises by a large and well drilled orchestra. The children sang and recited in a brilliant manner. This service was also attended by a large and very appreciative audience.

The West Market Street Welsh Baptist church had prepared a creditable programme that was participated in by talent of a high grade. The attendance here was great and extra chairs were a necessity in order to accommodate the audience. The Rev. J. A. Evans, pastor of the church, delivered an address appropriate of the occasion.

O. P. HADSELL'S FUNERAL. The funeral of the late O. P. Hadsell took place yesterday morning from his home on Green Ridge street. A large concourse of friends was present, who conducted the services over the dead were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Aldrich, of the central city, who preached a beautiful funeral sermon, touching briefly and eloquently upon the many commendable traits of character of the deceased.

At the conclusion of the services, those present were given an opportunity to view the remains. Beautiful floral emblems decorated the handsome casket in which the remains repose.

The remains were accompanied by a large number of people to Factoryville, where the deceased was laid at rest beside other members of his family who preceded him to the great beyond.

MINE WORKERS MET. A meeting of the recently organized

Branch of United Mine Workers was held Saturday evening in O'Donnell's hall.

Dennis Gannon, who was appointed president of the branch, was present.

As on the previous meeting an encouraging crowd was present, and it now seems that a permanent branch of the order is certain.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES. The commencement exercises of St. Mary's parochial school will be held in St. Mary's hall on the evening of June 25. It is anticipated that this year's exercises will exceed in excellence all occasions of a previous character conducted by the pupils of the school.

Sergeant Rogers is meeting with great success in his attempts to secure a sufficient number of men for Company H. Saturday evening a large number of young men expressed themselves as willing to defend their country and were forthwith enrolled by sergeant Rogers. All will be examined at the central city armory this evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church, will conduct a lawn social next Wednesday evening. James W. Gillespie, of Elmira, N. Y., a former resident of this place, is calling on his many friends.

William Jones, of Hill street, has returned from Plymouth, where he was attending the funeral of a relative. Ambrose Mulley left yesterday for Washington, D. C. Before he returns he will visit his son-in-law, L. T. Mattes, a member of the Thirteenth regiment.

Mrs. John Heck, of Northumberland, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. U. Hopewell. Mrs. David Jones, of Spring street, visited relatives in Taylor yesterday. William Thomas, of Ferdinand street, who was injured in the Cayuga mine the fore part of last week, is recovering rapidly from his injuries.

Thomas E. Savage, of East Market street, is visiting his mother, Mrs. D. Savage, of Plymouth, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rifenbarg, of St. Joseph, Mo., are visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. T. J. Detweiler, of Church avenue, has as her guest Mrs. Stone, of Carbondale.

GREEN RIDGE.

Mrs. George Donlan of Capouse avenue is spending a few days with friends in Honesdale. Miss Katie Finney, of Honesdale, who has been the guest of Mrs. Zoult, of Monsey avenue, has returned home.

Reg. Treverton, of Sanderson avenue, has recovered from a severe illness. Bert Stevens, of Wyoming, is spending a few days with friends in Green Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. David Coff, of Marion street, are spending a few days at Factoryville.

R. P. Huffling, of Monsey avenue, has been discharged from the Lackawanna hospital, but he is still very weak. Valentine Bliss, of the Providence silk mill, sent all of his employees to Lanshoro on the school excursion Saturday and paid for their day as well.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Highly Interesting Children's Day Services Conducted in Many Churches.

CLOSE OF THE MISSION CONDUCTED BY THE PASSIONIST FATHERS IN ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH—MYSTERIOUS FIRE SATURDAY NIGHT ON NORTH FILMORE AVENUE—MUSTER ROLLS OF THE NEW MILITARY COMPANY HAVE BEEN SENT TO HARRISBURG—NEWBY NOTES.

Children's Day, or Floral Sunday, was observed at several churches on this side yesterday, in each instance the services being conducted by the members of the Sabbath school of each church and substituting the regular church service. The pulpits were filled with floral decorations and the auditorium were beautifully decorated with a wealth of cut flowers, flower plants, palms, etc., which lent color and fragrance.

In some instances stanzas sonnets their sweet notes with the glad voices of the children.

At the Simpson Methodist church, of which Rev. J. B. Sweet is pastor, both morning and evening services were devoted to the children's exercises. The primary department, of which Mrs. J. B. Sweet is superintendent, conducted the morning service and in the evening the seniors and intermediate scholars under Superintendent George L. Peck observed the day. The Sabbath school orchestra, in charge of Miss Barker, assisted at both services. At the morning service, the offertory was rendered by Miss Grace Acker, and the school as a whole, rendered one.

Prayer was offered by the pastor. The address of welcome was made by Miss Mattie Hughes, and the address was also given by Murray Acker. Recitations were given by the Misses Florence Florey, Ruth Carson, Muriel Jones and Marie Beach. Charles Altman and George Francis each delivered a solo. The choir sang two motion songs with pretty effect and seven little misses impersonated seven flowers. Miss Bessie Hill recited the beauties and Miss Marion Hall and Charles Irt were heard in dialogue. The choir sang "Where Our Shepherd Leads," and the school sang the chorus. Several songs and choruses were interspersed throughout the programme and the rite of infant baptism was observed.

At the evening service, Miss Grace Acker played the offertory, prayer was offered by Charles W. Lull. The school sang several selections and the orchestra assisted. An oration was delivered on "Our Flag" by Charles Sweet and address were made by Superintendent G. L. Peck and S. Wellington Hagerman. Recitations were given by the Misses Ethel Rinker and Gertrude Fellows. Mrs. M. E. Worden sang.

The exercises for the children were substituted for the regular evening service yesterday at the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church, of which Rev. L. R. Foster, M. A., is pastor. Chorister Bonaloe Davies was in charge and a chorus of one hundred voices assisted in the singing. Mrs. John L. James acted as organist. The choir, consisting address was made by the pastor.

The service was opened with singing. Prayer was offered by the pastor and a passage from the Scriptures was read. Miss Kettie Williams delivered a well prepared address of welcome. Recitations were given by the Misses Annie Evans, Esther Davies, Lillian Tewkesbury, Blanche Koster and Verna Williams. Seven Misses also gave a topical recitation. The primary department, in taking part sang. Miss Verna Williams sang a solo and Masters Llewellyn Price and Arthur Capwell a duet. Nine petite little Misses recited in dialogue. The services came to a close by the pronouncing of the benediction by the pastor.

At the Hampton Street Methodist church yesterday morning's service was devoted to the children. J. T. Redmond and W. M. Prestwood, superintendent and assistant superintendent, respectively, were in charge, assisted by Chorister R. T. Stone. Miss Gertrude Lloyd acted as organist. Remarks were made by Rev. James Benninger, pastor. The exercises were a review of the regular evening service in the early years of this denomination. Several songs were sung by the school and responsive readings were given by the Misses Edna and Mary Parsons, Jennie Williams, Margaret Labar, Gertrude Pugh, Jennie Lester, Ada Stout and Bessie Dhill and Richard Harvey. The choir gave a selection. The opening prayer and the benediction were made by the pastor.

Superintendent Joseph A. Mears, of the Washburn Street Presbyterian school presided at yesterday's Children's Day services which were held instead of the regular morning preaching service. Bauer's orchestra and the church choir assisted. Several selections were sung by the school. The responsive readings were led by Professor Crutenden and prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. J. P. Moffatt.

The letter from Dr. Worden, secretary of the Sabbath school work association was read by Assistant Superintendent R. J. Williams and a short address was made by Superintendent Mears.

In the primary department's exercises, Master Edward Corliss delivered the address of welcome and Miss Helen Bauer recited. Eight little Misses recited in dialogue and the smaller tots gave an exercise. The members of the intermediate department assisted also. The Misses Olwen Jones and Helen Phillips sang a duet and Miss Mattie Poole, solo. Clifton Corliss recited, also the Misses Minnie Smith and Sadie Perber. The pastor offered the benediction.

A MYSTERIOUS FIRE. A double frame dwelling at the corner of North Filmore avenue and Pine street was totally destroyed by fire about 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Suspicious circumstances surrounding the fire lead to the belief that the building was set on fire and investigation is being made by Chief Hickey. The building is owned by James McAndrew, of Price street, and his loss will reach $1,500. He had $1,200 insurance with the D. J. Campbell agency.

Only one side was occupied and that by the family of Joseph Savage. His loss reaches $200 on his household goods and no insurance. The fire was caused by the tenant and seemed

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS.

Daughters Should be Carefully Guided in Early Womanhood.

What suffering frequently results from a mother's ignorance or more frequently from a mother's neglect to properly instruct her daughter!

Tradition says "woman must suffer," and young women are so taught. There is a little truth and a great deal of exaggeration in this. If a young woman suffers severely she needs treatment and her mother should see that she gets it.

Many mothers hesitate to take their daughters to a physician for examination; but no mother need hesitate to write freely about her daughter or herself to Mrs. Pinkham and secure the most efficient advice without charge. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

The following letter from Miss MARY F. JOHNSON, Centralia, Pa., shows what neglect will do, and tells how Mrs. Pinkham helped her:

"My health became so poor that I had to leave school. I was tired all the time, and had dreadful pains in my side and back. I was also troubled with irregularity of menses. I was very weak, and lost so much flesh that my friends became alarmed. My mother, who is a firm believer in your remedies from experience, thought perhaps they might benefit me, and wrote you for advice. I followed the advice you gave, and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills as you directed, and am now as well as ever was. I have gained flesh and have good color. I am completely cured of irregularity."

was on fire apparently within a few minutes after the discovery. In consequence of a peculiar derangement of the fire alarm system was found to exist. Patrolman Klah Peters attempted to turn in an alarm from box 37, corner of Everett avenue and Jackson street. Falling here, he made two attempts at box 35, corner of Garfield and Lafayette. He then had to telephone from the patrol box. In the fire houses a mix up occurred, Franklin's got box 32 and responded. Columbia's got box 33 and responded. The Columbia's did not take the Columbia's there. This box is at the corner of Meridian and Seventh streets.

No fire being found there, the Franklin's remained there and the Columbia's were taken to box 32, corner South Main avenue and Hamilton street. It was then that some one found them and started them on the right way, but the fire was then beyond all control. Yesterday David Neave, an employe of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone company was in the street trying to locate the trouble in the system, and that is why the frequent striking of the court house bell was heard. No records were made from any of the West Scranton boxes at the North or South Scranton fire houses.

CLOSE OF THE MISSION. The mission which the Passionist Fathers have been conducting at St. Patrick's church during the last two weeks was brought to a close with last evening's service. Throughout the two weeks, three services were held each day and each was well attended. During the first week the services were for the women and the week just closed was for the men. Services were held a few afternoons for the children also and yesterday afternoon Father Richard officiated at the final children's service. Nearly 1,200 men were present at last evening's service. Father Zavler officiated and preached an eloquent closing sermon. He spoke on the subject "Perseverance" and drew many important lessons therefrom. Concluding his remarks he summed up all that had been taught by the services held the evenings passed and urged that each should persevere in the good work and benefit by the lessons taught. The papal blessing was given at the conclusion of the service. Father Richard officiated at the 10:30 mass.

The three earnest and zealous workers depart today. Father Zavler and Richard go to Pittsburg and Father Alphonsus to Hoboken.

NEW MILITARY COMPANY. The muster rolls of the West Side military company, Captain John H. Lewis, commanding, were sent to Harrisburg last week and their return has been acknowledged. The next step will be the instructions to prepare for equipment, etc., and the necessary physical examination.

Drilling has been kept up regularly and the company is so far advanced as to be prepared for all ordinary drill requirements. Tomorrow evening the regular drill will be held and Captain Lewis desires that every man of the company be present, as other business of importance is to be transacted.

Recruiting for Company F, Second battalion, Thirteenth regiment, now stationed at Camp Alger, is going on under Sergeant Freeman detailed here to do so. He secured more than the required number but he desists of taking several more to offset any who should be disqualified by the physical examinations which will be held at the armory beginning today by Dr. W. C. Egan. Sergeant Freeman has his headquarters at Jenkins' pharmacy.

FUNERAL OF J. E. DAVIES. The funeral of the late Jeremiah E. Davies was held Saturday morning from the residence, 1415 Luzerne street. The services were private, only the immediate relatives and friends being in attendance. Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational church, officiated.

At the conclusion of the services, the remains were borne to the Washburn Street cemetery. Interred, the pall-bearers were Solomon Jones, Alfred and W. Lewis, W. H. Williams, William Richards and J. J. Evans.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mrs. Samuel Price, of Seattle, Wash., has returned home after an extended visit with friends here. Mrs. Jonah Evans, of Eyon street, is the guest of friends at Wilkes-Barre. Contractor W. R. Williams, of South Main avenue, has returned from a business trip to Philadelphia. Mail-carrier Isaac J. Price, of North Filmore avenue, is at Washington, D. C., on his annual vacation. George Keene, of South Main avenue, has returned from a visit at Staruck, N. Y.

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

Special Services Were Held in Nearly All the Churches.

MOST OF THEM WERE IN OBSERVANCE OF CHILDREN'S DAY—FOLKISH CATHOLICS HELD A SERVICE IN OBSERVANCE OF THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI—NUMBER OF CHILDREN CONFIRMED IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH—SPECIAL SERMON TO THE KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

With but few exceptions, there were special services in all churches of this section yesterday. Principally in the Protestant, Children's Day exercises were held, and the edifices were thronged.

At the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, the usual 10:30 o'clock morning service was substituted by the Children's Day event, and the several hundred children attending the Sunday school of that congregation, the girls attired in pretty dresses of white, and the boys in clothes of dark hue and immaculate linen, occupied the center pews. Their parents and friends were seated on either side and in the aisles. Rev. W. A. Nordt officiated and delivered a special sermon to the children. He spoke to the young people on the importance of being at Sabbath school regularly, for the teachings imparted essential to make good citizens and true children of God. Rev. Mr. Nordt's talk was highly interesting and instructive. The children's choir of the church gave an excellent programme of singing, and together with the other features of the programme arranged for the occasion, the exercises were of much merit.

In the evening the young people's society of the church observed the eleventh anniversary of the organization and the services were the greatest in the career of the society. Rev. Mr. Nordt delivered a forcible sermon, taking his text from the Epistle to the Galatians, chapter vi, 10th verse: "As we therefore have the opportunity, let us go to work at all men." The excellent speaker eloquently called to mind that we have but one life on earth to lead. He said that the pessimist argued that it was good that the almighty ordained it so as the world was a sphere of misery; the man of the world, realizing the fact, sought all the pleasures available on earth, but the true children of heaven earnestly devoted their lives to the teachings of the Father, and at the close of our existence they died in happiness, comfort and sustained by the faithful hope of reaping a life of everlasting bliss.

The combined choir of the church, augmented by the Lawrence orchestra, rendered a splendid programme. The feast of Corpus Christi, which occurred Thursday, was celebrated by the congregation of the Sacred Heart Polish Catholic church of Prospect avenue. In the spacious and beautifully arranged grounds surrounding the church four temporary altars were erected which were profusely adorned with flowers and greenery. The Rev. Father Dembinski, pastor of the church, said the 10:30 o'clock mass. He preached an instructive sermon upon the solemnity of the feast of the day. Shortly before the services were commenced, Father Dembinski, the organist and parishioners joined a procession that moved about the grounds chanting hymns.

Rev. F. P. Doty officiated at the Children's exercises yesterday morning at the Cedar avenue M. E. church, on the "Feast of the Most Holy Trinity," which was of a patriotic nature. National songs were sung, and several children recited the popular verses.

Rev. Mr. Doty, in the evening, addressed the members of General Grant commandery, Knights of Malta, on the "Feast of the Most Holy Trinity," and his discourse was listened to with earnest attention.

A class of 300 boys and girls received the sacrament of confirmation at St. John's church yesterday afternoon. Bishop John officiating. The church was thronged by the parents and friends of the candidates.

Rev. E. J. Schmidt, pastor of the Church of Peace, conducted the special services at his church yesterday morning and he took next sermon on the origin of Children's Day services in this country and the progress made in that particular line. The interior of the church was tastefully decorated, and services were largely attended.

The members of the German Methodist Episcopal church arranged an excellent programme for yesterday's services, which was carried out in detail. Rev. Mr. Bubech, the pastor, preached.

NUBS OF NEWS. The funeral of Patrick Mullen, of Irving avenue, the young man who was injured in the Pine Brook mine Thursday and died two hours later, occurred Saturday morning. A mass of requiem was sung at St. Peter's cathedral, and interment was made in the cemetery. The pall-bearers were: John Murray, John Gurrell, John Doris, John Heitrick, Thomas Hale and Michael Burke.

Charles J. Kell, of Kell court, was arraigned before Alderman Ruddy, Saturday night, on the charge of making an attempt to kill his neighbor, Louis Nye, by shooting at him. He was held in $500 bail, which was furnished.

Louis Kneller, permanent man at the Century Hose company's house, is suffering severely from a bruised foot, caused by one of his team stepping heavily on his left foot.

The members of the Young Men's church sang yesterday in the woods at No. 5. Dinner was served at noon, and the day was passed in a pleasant manner.

The Polish societies connected with the Sacred Heart congregation will picnic at Cent Park next Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henn, of Cedar avenue, have returned from Philadelphia. Mr. Henn will resume his duties this morning at the Neptune Engine company house, of Cedar avenue. William Huester, of Cedar avenue, has returned from the Wyoming seminary at Kingston to spend the summer vacation.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Invitations have been issued by Eads as well, of Washburn street for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Amy Jeanette, to Jacob D. Von Maur, of New Jersey. The event will occur Wednesday evening, June 22, at 8 o'clock, at St. David's Episcopal church.

An entertainment and social will be held this evening in the lecture room of the First Welsh Congregational church by the members of the Willing Workers band. An excellent programme will be carried out and refreshments served.

The Daisy Memorial kindergarten, on South Main avenue, will close its sessions tomorrow afternoon with appropriate exercises, the children will be taken to the Round woods, weather permitting, and a picnic will be held.

DUNMORE. Last evening there were special services in the Dudley Street Baptist church for the railroad men and their families, the exercises were conducted under the auspices of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association of Scranton. For the balance of the week Rev. S. J. Arthur, the popular pastor of the Luzerne Avenue Baptist church, Pittston, will conduct special evangelistic services. All are cordially invited to be present.

Special services were held in the various churches yesterday to commemorate Children's day. The services as a whole were interesting and instructive.

The members of the J. B. Smith Hose company will hold a meeting at their rooms at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Business of importance will be transacted. All members are requested to be present.

Anthony Collins, who was arrested Friday night on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was given a hearing before Squire Krotzer Saturday. He paid the costs and gave bail in the sum of $200 to keep the peace. Jacob Murray, John McGowan and Charles McGowan, who were arrested Saturday night, charged with being drunk and disorderly. At a hearing before Burgess Powell yesterday they were each fined $125.

John H. Gosler, of Dudley street, an old and respected resident of this place, died at 9:45 last night of lung trouble, aged 46 years. He is survived by four sisters. The funeral announcement will be made later.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Patrick Wynn occurred yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Charles Brown, a student of Nazareth hall, Bethlehem, is spending his vacation with his parents on Green Ridge street.

John Reed, of Cherry street, visited friends at Pittston Saturday.
