BEFORE BREAKFAST.
Everybody in Scranton has front porches, therefore everybody has porch chairs, rugs, cushions, hammocks, etc. But all you good people would do well hereafter to take in all the paraphernalia from your verandas and vicinities, including garden hose and doormats, else you may have to purchase a new supply in the near future. Very many residents on the hill are mourning their porch accessories. It is estimated that the thieves must go about with rubber-tired wagons, as the numbers of neither householders or officers have been broken during these nightly deprivations. One of the recent sufferers was Joseph Alexander, who lost about fifty feet of valuable garden hose.
Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis gave the first in her series of midsummer socials last evening at the Excelsior club. The occasion was a delightful one. The Lawrence orchestra furnished music and a large number of members of her dancing classes were present. Mrs. Lewis will go to Ohio tomorrow to remain with her mother for three weeks, after which she will return to this city.
If you want to read something which will make you nice and cool this hot weather, except for the natural heat of excitement with which it abounds, get Max Pemberton's "Krusnstadt." It is the liveliest and far and away the novel most filled with action since "The Prisoner of Zenda." The opening scene is the ice palace of the great fortress City of Buzand and there are any amount of cold shivers in it for those who like a thrill. The heroine is a girl who is away up in higher mathematics, can make drawings of fortifications and runs and possesses a fabulous memory. The hero—well, he is a soldier! Isn't that enough in this day of life and drum? Through it all runs a delightful love story. You can't fail to like the book. It is published by D. Appleton & Co.

Miss Grace Bailey, elder daughter of Honorable James G. Bailey, mayor of the city of Scranton, will be married this evening at the home of her parents on Mulberry street to Mr. J. Foster, elder son of Mr. T. J. Foster. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. C. E. Robinson. Miss Emma Foster, sister of the groom, will be maid of honor. There will be no other attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Galpin, of 43 Railroad avenue, are in receipt of a letter sent by their son James Galpin, who is aboard the cruiser Mayflower, now lying off Santiago de Cuba. Galpin is a stoker, but has had many opportunities of witnessing the bombardments and spoke of the appearance of the forts after the "Yankee" guns had "played" on them. He gave a good description of the expedition of Lieutenant Holman and his men toward the Merrimac. He said the sea was rough and the weather very warm, especially did the men below decks feel it.
A most interesting programme has been arranged by Mrs. J. A. Lansing, Mrs. L. M. Gates and Miss Hannah Deacon for the annual meeting which will be held tonight at the Young Women's Christian association rooms. The regular election of officers will be held; brief reports will be given by the secretary and chairman of committees; Miss Katherine Timberman, the popular contralto singer of the city, will assist by giving two solos; also Miss Schelker, of Elgin, Illinois, will sing. Miss Schelker is the guest of Mrs. L. A. Waters and is a woman of extraordinary musical ability, having received her training under Madame Arago, of Paris. Following the programme will be a farewell reception to Mrs. Lowry, the general secretary, who leaves the city tomorrow for her home at Waterville, Ohio. All members and friends are invited to remain to the social to greet new officers, members of the association and to say good-bye to Mrs. Lowry. Both gentlemen and ladies are invited.

AN AMUSEMENT TRUST.

Local Talent Given a Chance to Escape the "Thank-ee" Fiend.

An amusement trust is the latest. That isn't its name and it doesn't give trust, but the long-talked-of consolidation of the business interests of the professional musicians, elocutionists, lecturers, and other entertainers of Northeastern Pennsylvania has finally taken place, and hereafter the amiable hostess who wants to beg the slight favor of a free song or instrumental solo at a charity entertainment, don't you know, will have to step up to the captain's office and settle for it like she would if needing any other form of skilled labor. In other words, the "thank-you" job is doomed.
Some months ago John B. Russell, the enterprising Wilkes-Barre broker, conceived the idea of cornering the varied and abundant artistic talent lying around loose in the Wyoming valley, with a view to putting it before the public on a business basis. His effort took the form of a regularly chartered institution, known as the Keystone Lyceum Bureau, of which Mr. Russell is backer and W. H. Sheppard, manager. This bureau enrolled on its books the names of all professional or semi-professional entertainers, including singers, players, lecturers, hypnotists, bands, orchestras, elocutionists, comedians and the like in Wilkes-Barre and vicinity who felt that their services were worth being paid for when desired, and it then informed the begging and hawking portion of the public that it couldn't thereafter wait a minute's work from any of these gentlemen except upon the bureau's own terms.
The thank-you-kindly contingent kicked and spluttered at first but soon saw the point, and now realize that such an institution, besides being helpful to the artists themselves, is in reality a public convenience, inasmuch as it brings the whole matter to a focus and saves both money and time for all concerned.
Encouraged by his success in Wilkes-Barre, Mr. Russell has extended the bureau's field of usefulness to include Scranton. The idea is not to make unreasonable charges but simply to put upon a business basis the entertainment business so far as it affects those whose ability as entertainers forms their source of livelihood. The bureau gets its money out of the slight commission charged for executive service rendered.

A very small sum of money, not a twentieth of what the park commissioners needed for Nay Aug park, was appropriated by council for the current year. The amount, however, was all that was available. For this reason the commissioner cannot, in building the road, place the work under the direction of the park landscape architect as they would wish; nor can

WAR TAX GOES INTO EFFECT TODAY

In Consequence Beer Has Taken a Jump of One Dollar a Barrel.

THAT IS THE EXTRA TAX UNCLE SAM HAS IMPOSED UPON IT. THERE HAS ALSO BEEN A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN THE TAX ON CIGARS AND MANUFACTURED TOBACCO—CIGARETTES THAT IS BEING ISSUED BY REVENUE COLLECTOR PENMAN.

Today the price of beer and ale goes up $1 a barrel to the retailer and there will also be an increase in the price of tobacco.
All of this is due directly to the war. Revenue Collector T. F. Penman received a telegram yesterday from N. H. Scott, commissioner of internal revenue, who advised him that the new revenue law goes into effect today. In accordance with the provisions of this telegram the collector has prepared the following circular which is being sent to those who handle tobacco in any form:

THE COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.
The new revenue bill, so far as it relates to the increase of tax on tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff is now in operation. Manufacturers of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes are hereby notified that they are not permitted to make removals from their factories, tobacco, cigars or cigarettes after this date, unless the tax is paid at the new rates, which are as follows: Cigars weighing more than three pounds, $2.00 per thousand; cigars weighing not more than three pounds, $3.00 per thousand; cigarettes weighing more than three pounds, $2.00 per thousand; and cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds, $3.00 per thousand; tobacco 12 cents per pound.
All manufacturers of tobacco, cigars or cigarettes are required to make an inventory of stamps on hand on this date, and immediately furnish a copy of the same to the collector. The manufacturer must purchase new stamps at the increased rate of taxation, which must be attached to each stamp. The instructions for the redemption of stamps on hand will be furnished you later.
All manufacturers of tobacco and cigars will be required under the new revenue bill to pay a special tax after the first of July, 1898.

THE TAX HERETOFORE.

Heretofore manufactured tobacco has paid a tax of six cents per pound. Hereafter it will pay a tax of twelve cents per pound. Cigars have been taxed $2 per thousand; the new rate is $3.00.
In order that the tobacco manufacturer may not be forced into bankruptcy by the new rates the government has been directed that the 2, 3 and 4 ounce packages be abolished and packages issued containing 1 1/2, 2 1/2 and 3 1/2 ounces of tobacco.
Dealers must make a sworn return to the collector of the stock on hand today and if it amounts to over one thousand pounds they must be assessed at the rate of fifty per cent of the increase in taxes.
Today cigar and tobacco manufacturers and dealers and brewers will have to get new stamps or run the risk of arrest and subsequent penalty if they are found with stamps on hand. These will be redeemed by Collector Penman and new stamps issued in their place.
Heretofore the tax on beer and ale has been $1 a barrel; beginning tomorrow it will be $2 a barrel. In consequence the price has gone up from $6 to $7 a barrel for beer and from $5.50 to $6.50 for ale.

EXAMINATION AT TAYLOR.

It Will Be Conducted Tomorrow Instead of on Saturday.

The examination at the Stroudsburg State Normal school is appointed for June 20 and 21, but on account of the amount of work to be done, Superintendent of Schools J. C. Taylor, who is a member of the examining board, has been ordered to go to Stroudsburg on Saturday next. This is necessary because Dr. Stewart, deputy state superintendent, can be at Stroudsburg only two days; he must be at Lock Haven on the 22d.
On account of this, Superintendent Taylor has changed the examination at Taylor of candidates for common school diplomas. It will be held tomorrow instead of Saturday. Mr. Taylor will return from Stroudsburg on June 21 on the midnight train and be at Old Forge on the 22d to hold the examination for teachers' certificates. Today he is holding the teachers' examination at Waynesburg, and on Thursday next he will examine candidates for professional certificates.

MURPHY INQUEST POSTPONED.

Will Be Held at the Court House Next Monday Night.

The inquest in the case of Anthony Murphy, of Olyphant, who died last Thursday morning, is postponed from tonight, when it was to be held at the court house, but was postponed until next Monday night.
Attorney E. C. Newcomb has been engaged to take steps to secure the release of Patrick Cawley from jail on chancery contempt proceedings. He will petition court to that effect today. Cawley is suspected of having beaten Murphy in a saloon fight a week ago.

NEW ROAD IN THE PARK.

Work of Building It Will Begin on Thursday.

A pronounced improvement and one that will be appreciated by those who drive is to be begun at Nay Aug park this week. It will be a new macadamized road 2,500 feet long and 25 feet wide running from a point on the boulevard near the superintendent's building to a point northeast of the picnic grounds.
A very small sum of money, not a twentieth of what the park commissioners needed for Nay Aug park, was appropriated by council for the current year. The amount, however, was all that was available. For this reason the commissioner cannot, in building the road, place the work under the direction of the park landscape architect as they would wish; nor can they make the construction of the road as permanent as would otherwise be the case. It is proposed, however, to lay the base on foundation on the prescribed macadam principle so that it will not have to be disturbed in rebuilding, when the topping and gutters will be put in to last for all time.

City Engineer Phillips has been consulted by the commissioner and has given the lines for the road. It will run in a northeasterly direction from the superintendent's office along the ridge of rocks overlooking the boulevard approach to the bridge. It will pass between the terminals of the trolley line and the top of the bridge leading to the bridge. From this point the route reaches to the point mentioned northeast of the picnic grounds.
Work on the road will begin Thursday of this week. A ride along its route will give persons an idea of the park's natural beauties which could not be obtained otherwise from a carriage.

NEW BUILDING ASKED.

Director Roche Wants Old No. 9 Replaced by a New and Modern Structure—Pay Roll Approved.

At last night's meeting of the board of control preliminary steps were taken to replace No. 9 school building at Wyoming avenue and Ash street by the introduction of a resolution by Dennis Roche, the director from the Seventh ward, directing the building committee to begin the proceedings necessary to replace No. 9 with a new and modern structure.
The building is one of the oldest in the city and scarcely fit for school purposes. For years the upper floor of the main building has been in such bad condition that it has not been possible to use it for school purposes. Mr. Roche is confident the members of the board with a full realization of the justice and necessity of a new school building to replace No. 9, will make the necessary provisions for the structure in the near future.
The pay roll of the salaries of teachers, officers and janitors for the month of May was read by Mrs. E. D. Follows, the secretary pro tem, and approved. The items were as follows: $56,477; janitors, $16,112. The monthly statement of the secretary showed that there had been expended during the month the sum of $22,706.46. Amount extended to date since beginning of the school year, $47,746.12. Application for the year, $224,898.06.

Superintendent Howell requested that the principals be allowed to conduct the Grammar A examinations for a half day each on June 14, 15 and 16. The request was granted.
At some date it was decided to place a Johnson Heat regulator in No. 3 building at a cost of $720. The matter of the sale of old No. 16 building was referred to the building committee by request of Controller Jenkins.
To prevent any possible legal trouble Captain Hays again reported the tax levy in the form of a resolution. It is fourteen mills in all. The finance committee was directed to borrow the money necessary to pay the bills of the board for the month.
On motion of Controller Casey and on recommendation of Superintendent Howell it was decided to buy three stereoscopes at a cost of $62.25 each.

ATTORNEYS FOR BATTLE.

James J. O'Malley and Clarence Ballentine assigned to the Court.
Patrick Batt will be defended in his murder case by Attorneys James J. O'Malley, of Olyphant, and Clarence Ballentine. District Attorney Jones had him brought from jail to court yesterday, and he told Judge Archbald he has no money to employ a lawyer. The court then again assigned Messrs. O'Malley and Ballentine to his defense.
Mr. Ballentine proceeded without delay to prepare a defense, and was busy afternoon and evening investigating the circumstances of the case. Batt is charged with the murder of Paul Stravanski by striking him with a stone on the head, fracturing his skull on the night of April 2, at the "White House" on Penn avenue.

THIRD ORDER OF ST. FRANCIS.

Fifteen Candidates Received and Twenty-five Were Professed.

At St. Peter's cathedral last evening a reception of members into the Third Order of St. Francis was conducted by Rev. Father O'Reilly and Rev. Father Moffitt, of St. John's church, South Side city. Father Moffitt preached a beautiful sermon on prayer.
Twenty-five candidates were professed, and fifteen were received into the order. It requires a year after profession until the candidate can be received. The reception of members is an impressive service, and the church was crowded.

EXAMINATIONS BY DR. W. G. FULTON

Recruits for the Army Are Being Passed Upon by Him.

ABOUT FIFTY OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY VOLUNTEERS WERE BEFORE THE EXAMINING PHYSICIAN YESTERDAY—TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT OF THE MEN WERE REJECTED—THE EXAMINATION IS A VERY THOROUGH ONE IN EVERY RESPECT.

RIGID EXAMINATION.

The examination made by Dr. Fulton is much more minute than that given the recruits who went from here to Mt. Gretna. Despite this fact the number of rejections have been much less. This is attributed to two causes: The recruiting detail is carefully picking its men and the men themselves are not so ready to enlist if they know of some disqualification they possess.
An instance of the minuteness of the physical examination was shown yesterday afternoon in the case of a 22-year-old man who looked and was the ideal recruit with one exception. He had but one sound double tooth, although his front teeth were in fairly good condition. The rejections demanded at least one sound double tooth on each side of the upper and lower jaws, four double teeth in all. Dr. Fulton disliked to reject him and the man's looks showed his own disappointment, but he was "turned down," as they say at the armory, as unfit for military service.

PERCENTAGE REJECTED.

Dr. Fulton examined about 50 men yesterday. He rejected 25 per cent of them as against 37 per cent. rejected during the recruiting for Mt. Gretna. The present lot of men are in every way equal and in some respects superior to those who went from here to join the regiment at Gretna.
Lieutenant Dentler during the day secured a number of recruits for the regular army at his headquarters in the Meers building. Crowds of men were waiting in and about the big store room all day. Dr. Harvey, of Wilkes-Barre, examined the accepted applicants during the afternoon. A party of enlisted men will be sent to the Eleventh infantry, in Georgia, for which Lieutenant Dentler is recruiting, today or tomorrow.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES.

Conducted in the Amerman Memorial Tabernacle Sunday.

At the Amerman Memorial tabernacle of the Peen avenue Baptist church Sunday, the services were richly endowed. The superintendent, a week before, asked each one to bring a rose for the sick children's day. The response was a flood of flowers. The decorating committee arranged the flowers with exquisite taste. A large number of children and grown people took part in the exercises.
