T. T. Tilly, of Dalton, arrested last Friday on complaint of his brother-in-law, M. J. Jackson, for an alleged serious crime in which the name of the former's 15-year-old daughter was connected, was discharged after a hearing before Alderman Miller yesterday. Tilly had been in jail in default of bail pending the final hearing. The charge made by Jackson was not supported by any evidence except his own, which was vague and circumstantial, and was stoutly denied by his sister, Mrs. Tilly, and her daughter.

BUSINESS MEETING OF UNIVERSALISTS

Large Amount of Business Transacted at Yesterday's Session.

PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED HIS COMMITTEES FOR THE YEAR—COMMUNION SERMON DELIVERED BY REV. EDWIN R. SWEETSER, D. D., OF PHILADELPHIA—IN THE AFTERNOON THE NEW UNIVERSALIST CHURCH AT NICHOLSON WAS DEDICATED—CONFERENCE MEETING WILL BE HELD TODAY.

The sixty-seventh annual convention of the Pennsylvania Universalists was formally opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at Nicholson by the president, Judge C. S. Russell, of Towanda, who called upon Dr. Atwood of Coudon, N. Y., for the opening prayer, following which the roll of delegates was called. Following are officers:

Officers—President, Hon. C. S. Russell; vice president, C. W. Gabriel, Jr.; secretary, Rev. F. A. Bisbee, D. D., treasurer, George W. Brown, D. D.

Trustees—Rev. Edward C. Sweetser, D. D., William H. Hart, Jr., Frank Pierce, John B. Wetherill, John C. Wendell, William H. Liden, Charles S. Lincoln, Thos. K. Ober, William G. Ayers.

Upon motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with. The report of the board of trustees was then read by the secretary, followed by the reports of the committees. New committees were then announced by the president for the coming year as follows:

Elections—Rev. F. W. Whipple, Scranton; Mr. E. R. Blair, Philadelphia; Mrs. Rahm, Reading.

Official Reports—Rev. R. T. Pope, Towanda; Mr. F. Marion Yager, Philadelphia.

Unfinished Business—Mrs. W. H. Liden, Mr. E. A. Sweet, Mrs. N. M. Davis.

Nominations—Dr. Rogers, of Reading; Mr. W. H. Brookings; Mrs. Rose Daner, Scranton.

TREASURER'S REPORT. This was followed by the treasurer's report showing in detail the total receipts during the year to have been $1,500.99.

The total expenditures were $2,150.65, the deficit having been caused by a debt which was carried over from last year.

Rev. F. A. Bisbee then read the secretary's report in which he showed the condition of all the Universalist churches in the state, the number of families, number of church members, number in the Sunday school and the Young People's societies, whether the church buildings were insured or not, and whether they were partly supported by or contributed to the convention.

He showed that it was a great gratification to note the prosperity of the church throughout the state, with permanent funds amounting to over $50,000 and with church property to the value of over half a million.

Rev. Bisbee called particular attention to the fact of the great need of a state superintendent.

Rev. Edwin R. Sweetser, D. D., pastor of the Church of the Messiah at Philadelphia, then delivered the communion sermon. Dr. Sweetser took for his text the eighth verse of the thirteenth chapter of St. John's gospel. Jesus answered him: "I wish they were not at all that they had no part with me."

Dr. Atwood, who left for his home at Canton, N. Y., in the afternoon, then took charge of the communion service.

In a few impressive and well-chosen words he explained the significance of the communion service; he said that this service though a simple matter, meant much to those to whom it meant much and meant but little to those to whom it had no true significance. The convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

DEDICATION OF CHURCH. The exercises attending the dedication of the new Universalist church of the Saviour were appropriately observed in the afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock.

The church was lavishly decorated with a dozen varieties of roses, drooping ferns and stately begonias. It is built of Roman granite, trimmed with Nicholson blue stone, but up in the Gothic style of architecture and is most delightfully situated on the brow of a hill in Nicholson proper and overlooks the surrounding country.

The program rendered in the afternoon included the following, among the most delightful numbers of which was a solo by John T. Watkins of this city; Organ voluntary, Mrs. F. A. Baker, anthem, choir; innovation, Mrs. E. F. Curtis; Lord's Prayer, responsive; scripture reading, Rev. R. E. Horn; solo, John T. Watkins; sermon, Rev. F. A. Adams; anthem, choir; address to parish, F. A. Bisbee; dedication hymn; prayer of consecration, Rev. O. R. Boardsley; closing prayers, Rev. F. W. Whipple; solo, Mrs. E. M. Tiffany. Following the reading of the scripture by Rev. R. E. Horn John T. Watkins, in a manner which the appreciative faces of the large audience showed was greatly enjoyed.

The dedication sermon was delivered by Rev. F. A. Adams, the retiring pastor, who goes to the university at Canton as one of the professors of theology. Mr. Adams took for his text the twenty-fourth psalm.

REV. BISBEE'S ADDRESS. Following an anthem by the choir, Rev. F. A. Bisbee, D. D., of Philadelphia, made a short address to the parish. Mr. Bisbee is probably one of the wittiest preachers in the state, and he kept the audience in a good humor by his happy references to local things of interest to them.

After a most touching prayer by the Rev. O. R. Boardsley, of Chester, N. Y., one of the churches' former pastors, the act of dedication was performed by the present pastor, Rev. James Herrick, after which Rev. F. W. Whipple, of Scranton, made the closing prayer, which with a solo by Mrs. Tiffany closed the exercises for the afternoon.

The evening services at 7:30 o'clock were taken up by the occasional sermon by the Revs. Dr. Rogers, D. D., of Reading; John T. Watkins sang a solo "Hymn to God the Father." Today at 9 o'clock a conference meeting of the convention will be held, and the balance of the day, beginning at 10 o'clock, will be devoted to the business of the convention.

VERDICT IN FAVOR OF MRS. NICHOL

Jury Allowed Her Damages in the Sum of One Hundred Dollars.

JUDGMENT IN FAVOR OF THE DEFENDANT IN THE BREACH OF PROMISE CASE OF MARY LUKASCHEVICH AGAINST PETER WABOLIS—TRESPASS CASE OF THOMAS W. MALE AGAINST BOROUGHS OF THROOP AND DICKSON CITY WATER COMPANY IS ON TRIAL.

The courts were going yesterday on the trial of civil cases. A verdict of $100 was returned by the jury in the trespass suit of Mrs. Agnes Nichol against the city of Carbonate for damages to her property by the construction of a sewer outlet close to it.

The case of Mary Lukaschevich against Peter Wabolis was called but the plaintiff did not respond and after waiting fifteen minutes, the court directed a non-suit and judgment in favor of the defendant. The plaintiff began breach of promise proceedings against Wabolis nearly two years ago. She alleged that on August 22 he asked her to be his wife and she assented. On the 12th of October, a month he went with one Helen Zuleb to the clerk of the court's office and secured a marriage license.

Ever since that time he refused to carry out the contract he made on August 22. The plaintiff offered to enter into a contract with the defendant under which she would give up her claim for damages to the extent of $5,000. The suit was begun by Attorney John B. Osborne, who is no longer a resident of the city. The plaintiff made no effort to engage another attorney or to look after the case. The defendant was represented by Attorneys Watson & Zimmerman.

BEFORE JUDGE GUNSTER. In the main court room before Judge Gunster the suit of W. R. Bryce & Co., of New York, against Oswald Jones, of this city, was heard. Attorney W. W. Lathrop represented the plaintiff and Attorney W. S. Diehl, the defendant. The action is for 48 tubs of butter of the value of $255.52. The defense was that the butter was unfit for sale. Argument will be made to the jury by the attorneys and the judge will deliver his charge this morning.

APPROACH TO HOBBING BROOK BRIDGE TO BE MADE. Councilmen Chittenden and Meier of the Ninth ward, Lansing and Keller, of the Seventeenth have drawn up the appropriations for their respective wards and provided a fund for erecting an iron fence around the triangular plot bounded by Jefferson avenue, Fifth place and the approach to the Hobbing Brook bridge.

Grass seed will be planted in the plot and it will be reclaimed from use as a roadway by vehicles. The street commissioner's department put a force of men to work yesterday to get it in shape for transformation into a miniature park.
