CHILDREN CONDUCTED IT. The Sunday school children of the Workmen's Progressive Educational society had their first strawberry festival last evening in their large hall at the corner of Alder sireet and Prospect avenue. It was a success and the children, as well as their parents, spent a very pleasant evening. While the strawberries, Ice cream, caker, sumed there was an accompaniment of several popular pieces played on the Grand piano by Misa Lottle Minds The following programme was rendered by the children la a remarkably able manner: Recitation, Miss Lillie Lufe; song, Miss Gertle Frank: blanc sole, Miss Lottie Munds; gither sole, Miss Josephine Ross; song, Miss Emma Maxion: recitation, Miss Lillie Lufs: song, Miss Gertie Franz. A beautiful Cuban flag was presented to the school and was waved before the audience The entire entertainment was conduct ed by the children. They prepared the berries and waited on the guests. The teachers, Charles Husa, M. Schaads and A. Lowenfeld, merely prompted them, so the success is great credit to these future citizens.
