Lake; vice-president, Daisy Millham; recording secretary, A. S. Lewsley; corresponding secretary, A. S. Lewsley; treasurer, Cora Estabrook; organist, Alice Price.

The chairmen of the committees are the following: Lookout, Miss Cora Estabrook; prayer meeting, Daisy Millham; missionary, Miss Carrie L. Gearey; social, David Lewis; Sunday school, Mrs. W. D. Frank; music, E. J. Bly; Junior work, Miss Jennie E. Purple; superintendent's assistants, James L. Lake and Carrie L. Gearey.

OBSERVATIONS.

The handsome new flag of the Mitchell Hose company was not unfurled to the breeze Tuesday evening for the reason that there was no breeze to unfurl it to. The stiff wind of yesterday morning, however, displayed it in all its glory and at times caused the graceful pole to sway considerably.

The Mozart band is deserving of great credit for the patriotism it manifested in donating its services to the hose company Tuesday night. It added very materially to the delight of the occasion.

The city's paved streets are covered with stones, varying in size from a walnut to a cocoanut, which were washed down from the hills by the recent heavy rains. The street department should have removed these dangerous annoyances forty-eight hours ago.

North Main street between the end of the pavement and Church street is a disgrace to the Delaware and Hudson Canal company and to the city of Carbondale, as either has the power to pave it. The city might have it done at the company's expense under the law by which Park Place, Sixth avenue and South Main street will be paved.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The marriage of Richard Kirwin, of Carbondale, and Miss Margaret Mulholland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mulholland, of Scott, took place yesterday morning at 7.30 o'clock in Sacred Heart church. Notwithstanding the very early hour for the ceremony, a large number of the many friends of the happy couple were present and witnessed the interesting ceremony. As the bridal party entered the church they were greeted by the well-known wedding march, which was played by Miss Lizzie Roche. At the altar the bridal party was met by the pastor of the church, Rev. M. E. Lynott, who celebrated a nuptial mass and pronounced them man and wife. The bride was attired in a handsome dress of white organdie, made over white silk, and the bridesmaid, her sister, Miss Rose, was attired in a costume of light blue. Patrick Kirkwood, of Carbondale, was groomsman. The bride is a most estimable young lady and has a host of friends wherever she is known. The groom is outside foreman at the Glenwood colliery of the Hillside Coal and Iron company.

AFTER MARKETS OF WORLD.

Manufacturers Make Their Greatest Record in Exports.

The manufacturers of the United States are making in the fiscal year which closes with this month their greatest record in competing for the markets of the world. Not only will the exports of manufactured articles for the fiscal year exceed those of any previous year, but for the first time in the history of the country they will exceed the imports of manufactures. In the ten months of the fiscal year whose detailed record the bureau of statistics has just compiled the exports of manufactures exceeds by over $40,000,000 the value of the manufactures imported, and it is probable that for the full year's record this excess will reach $50,000,000. In no preceding year in the history of the country have the exports of our manufactures equaled in value the imports of manufactured articles. In the fiscal year of 1897 the imports of manufactured articles exceeded the value of exports of manufactures by the sum of $27,362,217; and in 1896 by $104,759,704, and in 1895 by $121,413,782.

Nearly every branch of our great manufacturing industries has shared in this growth of our sales to other parts of the world. The exports of agricultural implements, for instance, which in 1888 were about $2,600,000 in value will, in the year of 1898, be in round numbers $8,000,000. Locomotive engines, whose exportation in 1888 was less than $500,000 in value, will in 1898 reach probably $4,000,000, orders having been placed with the great manufacturing establishments during the past two months for use in China, Japan, Russia, Egypt, Australasia and South America. Bar iron, of which we exported 1,500,000 in 1888, will amount to 10,000,000 pounds of exports in 1898. Builders' hardware, the export of which in 1888 were valued at $1,442,635, were last fiscal year $4,152,836 in value.

The export of cut nails, which, in 1888, amounted to 11,963,664 pounds, will in 1898 amount to more than 35,000,000 pounds, an increase of 200 per cent., while wire nails have increased over 1,000 per cent., the exports of wire, wrought and horse-shoe nails in 1888 being 1,547,078 pounds, while those of 1898 will reach nearly if not quite 20,000,000. Exports of iron plates and sheets which in 1898 were less than 1,000,000 pounds, will in the year which ends with this month amount to nearly 8,000,000 pounds, while those of steel plates and sheets, which were but 119,419 pounds in 1888, will exceed 20,000,000 pounds in 1898. The total value of exports of manufactures of iron and steel which in 1888 amounted to $17,763,034, will in 1898 exceed $65,000,000. The exports of leather and manufactures thereof, which in 1888 amounted to less than $10,000,000, will in 1898 exceed $20,000,000 in value. Exports of illuminating oils, which in 1888 amounted to 456,000,000 gallons, will, in 1898, exceed 300,000,000 gallons; while lubricating oils, which in 1888 were less than 23,000,000 gallons, will in 1898 reach 55,000,000 gallons.

The exportations of paraffine and paraffine wax, which in 1888 were 36,000,000 pounds, will in 1898 reach 140,000,000 pounds. Soap increases from 19,000,000 pounds in 1888, to over 27,000,000 pounds in 1898; glass and glassware from $881,623, in 1888, to $1,208,187 in 1897; manufactures of rubber from $866,867 in 1888, to $1,867,145 in 1897. Manufacturers of cotton show an increase of 50 per cent. in the value of their exports during the past ten years; exports of chemicals have also increased 50 per cent. in value during the same time. Manufactures of brass have increased from $308,124 in 1888, to over $1,400,000 in 1898, while manufactures of copper, including ingots and bars, which in 1888 were $3,812,798, were last year $31,621,125, and seem likely to exceed that sum in 1898. In numerous other manufactured articles there have been similar gains, nearly the entire list having shared in a greater or less degree in the growth of the export trade during the past decade. The total exportation of manufactures in 1888 amounted to $130,300,087, and in 1898 seem likely to reach nearly or quite $290,000,000.

BREWERS ARE PATRIOTIC.

They Will Cheerfully Accept the War Tax on Beer.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 15.—The thirty-eighth annual convention of the United States Brewers' association opened today in this city. President Bergner presiding. There are about 400 delegates present.

President C. W. Bergner, a member of the Bergner & Engel Brewing company, of Philadelphia, stated in his annual address that the consumption of beer during the year 1897 was 24,423,094 barrels, a decrease compared with the previous year of 1,403,000 barrels.

He called attention to the fact that there is danger to the brewing interests of the country under the war tax law which went into effect yesterday, for the reason that the high tax offers an inducement to the manufacture of cheap and inferior beer to market his product at a price below that at which the brewer of the high grade article can afford to sell beer.

The sentiment of the delegates was in favor of cheerfully accepting the war tax as a duty the brewers owe to the government.
