Miss Janet McCausland, of Montrose, is the guest of her brother, Captain James McCausland, at the Hotel Jermyn.
At Grace Lutheran church at high noon Wednesday, Mr. Milton M. Du Tot and Mrs. Margaret Moore were joined in matrimony by the pastor, Rev. J. C. F. Lonsdale.
Mr. Du Tot at one time lived in Scranton.
They will reside in Luzerne county.

THIS AND THAT.
The poem entitled "Down Dewey's Way," written by John Coughlin Morris and printed recently in The Tribune, has been set to music by J. W. Parson Price and published in folio form by William A. Pond & Co., 124 Fifth avenue, New York. It promises to be one of the most popular war songs of the season.

Rev. Sydney K. Evans returned last evening from Altoona. He was ordained to the diaconate of the Protestant Episcopal church Wednesday by Rt. Rev.
Bishop Talbot, and on July 1 will become curate of St. James' church, Lancaster.
He will spend the next week at Crystal Lake to enjoy a much needed rest after a course of hard study and preparation for ordination. Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Lonsdale, the latter being his sister, were present at his ordination and came home yesterday morning.

Dr. W. H. McGraw, of Carbondale, brother of Dr. E. L. McGraw of this city, was married at Elmira, N. Y., at noon Wednesday. His bride is Miss Nellie Horgan, one of Elmira's most charming young women, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Horgan. The ceremony was performed in the church of St. Peter and St. Paul by Rev. John C.
Long. Dr. McGraw of this city, was best man. Upon their return from their wedding tour Dr. and Mrs. McGraw will reside at 22 Wyoming street, Carbondale.

By order of Secretary of War Alger the war pass of Sergeant J. H. Mahon of Company C, Ninth regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, has been taken up.
Sergeant Mahon recently wrote to the Wilkes-Barre Times somewhat severely criticizing the action of Colonel Dougherty, of the Ninth regiment, in allowing a caption to be established within the lines of the regiment at Chickamauga park.

Walter W. Connell, grand secretary of the Fraternal Accident order, is at the Hotel Jermyn. Mr. Connell is very much impressed with the progressive spirit of the city.

BICYCLE CLUB ANNIVERSARY.
Delightful Entertainment Has Been Arranged for This Evening.
The Scranton Bicycle club will celebrate its seventh anniversary tonight. A delightful entertainment for its members has been arranged for.
An open-air concert by Lawrence's band will occupy the first hour of the evening's entertainment. The remainder of the program will take place in the house under the direction of the committee appointed to get up a fitting birthday celebration.

This has been done in true Scranton Bicycle club fashion and every member of the club will be in attendance; they cannot afford to miss it. The Scranton Bicycle club enjoys the distinction of being one of the oldest bi-cyclic organizations in the United States, being organized by only four clubs and these only a few months older than the home organization.

There was a gradual and steady settling after the cave up to quite late in the evening, when some of the ground cracks had closed or enlarged and the buildings had resumed nearly their former equilibrium or had been more visibly tipped.

The mules were removed from the mine without incident. The few men inside the mine when the caving occurred were too far removed from the workings affected to be in any danger.
It is believed that no work will be attempted in the mine for some time.

The present cave extends more closely into the central part of the town than did either of the two recent caves.
The bodies of Thomas Williams and David Emanuel, the men caught in the last cave, are supposed to lie in the inner edge of the present settling.

MRS. PARDEE BADLY INJURED.
Run Down by a Trap on Adams Avenue Last Night.
Mrs. H. A. Pardee, proprietress of a boarding house at 326 Adams avenue was knocked down and trampled by a horse attached to a trap in which were two women as she was crossing the street to her home at 7.45 last evening. Her right collar bone and thumb were fractured, and she suffered internal injuries. After she was put to bed, she vomited a quantity of blood.
The possibilities of Niagara's power were spoken of and the speaker said a lad of ten years of age can turn that power to influence 100 miles in radius, can transmit it into heat and by pressing the button change the dark and mighty flood to a brilliant illumination from Lake Erie to New York Bay.
"The frutrage of the past lies mellow at thy feet for thee to taste." The present with great haste seeks to open up the gates of golden years for the future.

The example of Thomas a Kempis, and the lesson of Hawthorne in the "Great Stone Face," were recalled.
There are two classes of human lives separated by two fundamental differences: Epicurean living for itself; altruistic—living for others.

In conclusion the speaker said: "Concentrate all the influence of brain, body and spirit in realizing the possibilities of your privileges." Rev. Dr. Logan made an address in which he spoke of the beginning of the School of the Lackawanna and gave many personal allusions. He referred to many brilliant men and women now prominent in various parts of the world who were in this school.
Professor W. H. Burr was greeted with tumultuous applause as he arose to make the address to the class. "The teachers have done their best," he said,
"to see that you earned your diplomas."

Me. Plumley presented the diplomas to the graduating class: John Thomas Dunne, Peter L. Walsh, Dayton Ellis, Edwin W. Guernsey, M. Stuart Plumley, Edgar Allen Jones, Mortimer W.
Rice, Harry A. Mott, Claude M. Pitcher, Edna Williams, Katharine A.
Donnelly, Nellie S. Shields, Carrie M.
Hickman, Ontario.

Prizes were awarded as follows: School composition, Leola M. Morse; classical prize, Katharine A. Donnelly; Greek, Harold Shields; Latin, Walter Niemeyer; German, Marie K. Shaw; algebra, John L. Schneider; arithmetic, E. W. Terrey; honorable mention, James Cooney.

MINE CAVE AGAIN
STARTLES DURVEA
Third Recent Settling of Hallett Mines' Old Workings.

THIS TIME THE AFFECTED AREA EXTENDS INTO THE CENTRAL PART OF THE TOWN—SURFACE AT THE D. L. & W. DEPOT AND ON MAIN AND STEPHENSON STREETS SHOWS MARKED SIGNS OF THE DISTURBANCE WITHIN—SEVERAL BUILDINGS DAMAGED BUT NO LIVES WERE LOST.

Durvea was thrown into a wave of excitement early last evening by another caving in of the Hallett mine workings, the third within a recent period.
Soon after 7 o'clock the first shock was felt. The surface was affected over an area of two or more acres and was caused by a caving in of one of the old veins that has been worked out, which one could not be ascertained last night.
Near the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station the ground settled two or three feet. The main tracks were affected. Traffic was delayed but not stopped as all trains were permitted to run at reduced speed over the affected spots. One siding was twisted into a shape like the letter S and rendered useless.
On Main and Stephenson streets the surface was cracked. There were several fissures of two or more inches in width. One water main of the Spring Brook Water company was broken.
Savage's hotel, the Exeter hotel and the office of Justice of the Peace Gilboy were among the buildings whose foundations were disturbed and framework so strained as to make the closing of some doors and windows impossible.

ing of thanks to the board of control and the parents of the class. A policeman's club was given to Mr. Lewis.
Mr. Schantz received a hatchet, Mr.
Red, a tin soldier that went to war and came back again. Thus a basketful of various articles was dispensed with much apparent fitness, to judge by the applause.

The closing number was a class song, the words and music composed by Miss Gertrude Miller. The effect was rendered by the chorus of voices was tuneful and pleasing.

Among the graduates are two colored girls, Miss Scott and Miss Lee, who are the first of their race to be graduated from the Scranton high school. Their scholarship and general standing compare favorably with those of their classmates.

CLOSE OF THE TERM
Exercises Held at School of the Lackawanna—Those to Whom Diplomas Were Awarded.

The School of the Lackawanna celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary yesterday in the commencement exercises conducted in a pretty morning was devoted to the intermediate and primary departments and the little people had the happiest time imaginable. The exercises were unique and interesting. Elizabeth Dickson and Jack Logan participated in a pretty, little German dialogue. Clara Price and Kenneth Welles also had a dialogue in the same language Douglas Torrey read an original story on "Our Flag." Margaret Bessell, Benjamin and Henrietta Harris and Joseph Alexander delivered recitations. Lucy Logan and Carl Coston gave a pleasing dialogue. The many children were served with ice cream and cake, prizes were given and everybody went home happy.

At 3:30 in the afternoon the grammar and preparatory schools with many friends assembled in the flower-decked upper rooms. Over the platform appeared the class motto, "Altitudo in Verbis." A glee club composed of students under the direction of Mr.
Kestel was the feature of the orchestra.
Several songs were sung with excellent effect. The program opened with "The Stars and Stripes Forever," rendered by the orchestra. Rev. H. H.
Harris of Taylor, offered prayer. The class sang the "Kyrie Eleison." Rev. George E. Guild made an address filled with scholarly thought and clear diction on "Privilege: Its Possibility and Its Use." The all pervading presence of privilege was first mentioned and the difference between the privilege of the citizen in the jungle and the child reared in such localities as Andover, Amherst, Williamstown or New Haven was emphasized. The fact of privilege goes down deep and touches the sacred springs of our character and of our civilization.
"Possibility" impresses us with its mysterious power, suggestion and fascination. It challenges every faculty of the brain, body and spirit. The youngest person is a bundle of possibilities and it is the duty of the parent and the child reared in such localities
or New Haven was emphasized. The
character and of our civilization.

"My experience in the office of street commissioner has led me to believe that there is room for some radical improvements in that department. One of them would be the creation of a board of public works that would decide what improvements are necessary and the amount of money that should be expended on them. This, in my opinion, would greatly simplify the matter of public improvements and leave the commissioner, to a great extent, unhampered. It would, of course, do away, in a measure, with the present system of special appropriations. It may be said that nearly all of the councilmen realize that the ward system of appropriations is not a wise one and many of them authorized me to expend the money belonging to their ward in any manner I thought advisable for the betterment of the streets, the money, of course, to be expended within the boundaries of the ward."

PROBABLE SUCCESSOR.
At this time it is impossible to predict who Mr. Dunning's successor will be. E. A. Fitzsimmons, P. A. O'Boyle and James Manly are mentioned for the position. Mr. Fitzsimmons has been Mr. Dunning's first assistant and understands the department and his needs thoroughly. Moreover, he had a great deal of practical experience as a contractor before entering the street department and prior to becoming a contractor he was one of the men who supervised the construction of the New York, Ontario and Western railroad between this city and Hancock, N. Y.

Mr. O'Boyle is proprietor of the Columbia hotel on Lackawanna avenue, the son of Select Councilman Thomas O'Boyle, of the Eighteenth ward. He has been making a fight for the office for some time.
Mr. Manly is the ex-Select councilman of the Twelfth ward, and was mentioned for the office at the time of Mr.
Dunning's appointment.

Michael Keely, of 307 Williams street, was allowed a pension on June 14 inst., at the rate of $2 per month from September 11, 1864, and at $5 per month from March 2, 1865, aggregating in all about $88. Hon. William Connell first called for the status of this case March 24, 1898.

A. B. DUNNING
INTENDS TO RESIGN
Has Decided to Organize an Engineering and Construction Company.

GENERAL OUTLINE OF THE WORK
IT INTENDS TO DO—MR. DUNNING DENIES THE STORIES PRINTED IN SOME OF THE PAPERS TO THE EF-FECT THAT HIS RESIGNATION WAS DESIRED BY MAYOR BAILEY.
HIS PROBABLE SUCCESSOR NOT KNOWN AT THIS TIME.

"I have decided to resign," said Street Commissioner A. B. Dunning yesterday when seen by a Tribune representative.
"I take this step not because I am fed up to it or because I have been asked to resign, as some of the newspapers of the city would like to make people believe, but because I see an opportunity to carry to fulfillment a plan I have had in mind for four or five years and to which I have devoted much time and thought. My plan is to form an engineering and construction company, with headquarters in this city, which will have a capital stock of perhaps $50,000. This company will undertake to do the engineering work and supervise the construction of railroads, electric roads, bridges, water works, sewers, etc., and it will also probably promote the construction of such improvements in cities not provided with them and where they would be desirable."

"I have rented a suite of offices on the third floor of the Sears building and I believe we will be able to begin business in the near future. An application for a charter has not yet been made, but matters are almost in shape to permit this to be done. Several well-known men of this city will be interested in the company."
