

CARBONDALE.

The Carbondale correspondence of The Tribune has been placed in the hands of Mr. C. R. Munn, Salem avenue and Church street, to whom news items may be addressed. All communications to the regular delivery, etc., should be made to Roberts & Reynolds, news agents.

REQUIEM HIGH MASS.

Celebrated Over the Remains of John White at St. Rose's Church.

The funeral of John White was held from his late home on upper Carbon street at 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning. There was a long train of carriages carrying mourning relatives and sympathizing friends, and evincing the wide spread love and respect in which the deceased had been held. At St. Rose's church a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J. Griffin, after which Father Griffin preached an appropriate funeral sermon. He took his text from the sixteenth chapter of the gospel of St. Luke "Give me an account of thy stewardship because now thou canst be steward no longer."

Father Griffin then paid a high compliment to the deceased, dwelling on his unselfish life and his continual devotion to duty. After the close of the service, the remains were borne from the church and conveyed to St. Rose cemetery for interment. The pallbearers were Frank Collins, James Collins, Edward Reardon, John White, Thomas Conklin and John White. They comprised four grandchildren and two nephews of the deceased.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were the following: in addition to near relatives from Wilkes-Barre and Ontario, Mrs. J. E. Roche, of Scranton, John Flannigan, Misses Maggie Flannigan and Julia Walsh, of Honesdale.

OPEN AIR CONCERT.

First of the Season to Be Given This Evening.

There is to be an open air concert this evening. It will be given by the Mozart band from the balcony of the Hotel Anthonio, beginning at eight o'clock. Everybody has been waiting and watching for the first of the season's series of concerts by our popular organization and there will be a big crowd to enjoy tomorrow evening's programme, which is as follows:

- "Star Spangled Banner"
March, "Pompasus"
Overture, "Midness of Liberty"
Waltz, "Fleeting Shadows"
Paraphrase, "In the Deep Cell"
Lover's March, "Cesara's Triumph"
Overture, "Idyl"
March, "My Old Kentucky Home"
Hornpipe march, "Uncle Dooley's De-light"
America

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A very pleasant social event which took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilcox, 44 Belmont street, when their only daughter, Miss Nellie, was united in marriage to Richard Friend, Jr., of Mayfield. The ceremony was performed under an arch of roses and taking in the presence of many distinguished guests by the Rev. B. N. Harris, of the Congregational church of Mt. Carmel, Pa.

The commencement number of Brown and White, the interesting periodical conducted by the students of Lehigh university, contains the list of those to whom the Willour prizes were awarded this year and in the list is found the name of John J. Nolan, of this city, who took the first prize of $10 for the best proficiency in French speaking. Dr. and Mrs. A. Niles received yesterday a card from their son, Dr. J. S. Niles, who is touring the west. It was dated "Summit of Pike's Peak, June 15." The card was of the souvenir variety and contained pictures of the route to the top of the mountain. It said: "Showing here, and there are drifts ten to twelve feet deep, while flowers are blooming in the valley. We are well and enjoying ourselves. Leave tonight for Salt Lake."

Robert B. Marshall, of this city, and Charles A. Whittemore, of Scranton, of the class of '97, started on their wheels yesterday afternoon to ride to Factoryville to attend the graduating exercises and to attend union tomorrow at Keystone academy.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. William H. Eggett for a tea to be given at her Lincoln avenue home Saturday at six o'clock.

The Fortnightly club was entertained by Mr. W. G. Scurry at Elk lake yesterday.

AVOCA.

The employees of the Pennsylvania coal company will be paid tomorrow morning.

Dr. P. H. Kearney, of Scranton, and Miss Marie Curran were guests of friends in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. M. F. Whalen, Mrs. John Reap, Mrs. M. A. Golden, Mrs. John Edward Murphy, Mrs. M. P. O'Brien, Mrs. James Gilbooley and Miss Kate Dempsey were guests of the L. C. B. A. members at Parsons on Wednesday evening.

Miss Kathryn McDonald, of the North End, was among the graduates at St. Cecilia's academy on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Charles Ferret and daughter, Mrs. Charles Howell, of South Easton, are guests of friends on the West Side.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Primitive Methodist church extended a welcome memento to Rev. J. E. Wilson and bride on Wednesday afternoon in the shape of a beautiful floral horse shoe extending from the veranda of the parsonage.

Bernard, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bouley, is seriously ill.

William McNulty has opened a shoe repairing shop on Main street.

The marriage of Miss Lena Dommersmuth and Edward Bennett, both residents of Avooca, was solemnized in the Primitive Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. T. E. Wilson performing the ceremony. The bride and her attendant, Miss Regina Dommersmuth, were handsomely attired in white organdy and carried bouquets.

Mrs. Eugene O'Rourke and daughters, Kathleen and Dora, of Waymart, were guests of Mrs. A. J. O'Malley yesterday.

Michael Rutledge, of South Main street, will leave today as a recruit to the regular army.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Miss Jessie Winter returned home Wednesday evening from Wyoming university, where she has been attending the school.

Miss Eliza Osborne returned Wednesday evening from Kingston, where she had been attending the commencement exercises at Wyoming seminary.

Grand master Samuel McKever, of Philadelphia, and D. G. M. Esau Loomis, of West Chester, have accepted invitations to deliver addresses at the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Rush Brook lodge on July 12.

The funeral of Thomas Ellis will be held at the residence of Richard Stevenson on "L" street this afternoon at 2.30, Camp No. 294, Sons of Veterans, of which he was a member, will attend in a body.

The Education Co. company will pay their employees tomorrow.

Miss Emma Cure, of Scott, is the guest of Madame Hymer, on South Main street.

The Jermyn Ice company's business was sold by Deputy Sheriff Ryan yesterday afternoon. It was bought by Attorney O'Neil for $372.

The entertainment last evening given by the children under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, of the St. James Episcopal church, was very successful. The little ones looked charming in their different costumes. It will be repeated this evening.

The marriage of Mr. Richard Friend, of Mayfield, and Miss Nellie Wilcox, of Carbondale, took place Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, 44 Belmont street. In the presence of a large number of friends.

TAYLOR NEWS.

Musical Festival a Success--Bilk Mill to Be Enlarged--Personal News.

The competitive meeting which was held in the Welsh Congregational church on Wednesday evening was quite largely attended. At 8.30 o'clock the conductor, Rev. J. M. Lloyd, called the meeting to order and after saying a few happy remarks called on the Watkins musical family for a selection. Professor Watkins and his children played in excellent form and surprised their auditors. They are destined to occupy the front ranks as the foremost musical family of the country.

Following this the famous Watkins family gave a selection. Soprano solo was the next number; three entered. Miss Olive Howells was awarded the prize of 50 cents. Baritone solo was the next rendition. Three contended for this solo. The prize of 25 cents was awarded to John Morgan. Spelling match furnished three competitors. Prize of 25 cents was awarded to Miss Olive Howells. On the double quartet only one party entered. Professor Cousins awarded the prize to Sallie and Evans. Professor Evans closed the meeting with a tenor solo. The adjudicators on music were Professor Cousins, of Peckville. On recitations, Rev. J. M. Lloyd. Accompanist, Miss Lydia Hoskins.

The ladies' union silk company of this place has been very busy for some time past, and orders keep pouring in on account of the fine quality of goods produced. The company has decided to double the capacity of the plant and Manager Lubinski has gone to Paterson, N. J., and Worcester, Mass., to hurry the completion of the new machinery.

The Tribune branch office in Taylor is in the Cobleigh building. Local representative, E. G. Evans in charge. Thomas Evans, of Keystone academy, Factoryville, was the guest of his father, Mr. William Evans, of Washington street on Tuesday.

William Stone spent yesterday in Wilkes-Barre visiting relatives.

FOREST CITY.

The marriage of Miss Flora May Allen to Arthur David Kehren, which has been anticipated with much pleasure by their many friends, was solemnized last evening at 6.45 in the Presbyterian church in this borough. A large number of invited guests witnessed the ceremony. The church was artistically decorated for the occasion with stately ferns and laurel and this together with a rare June day gave the occasion a happy and beautiful condition. Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party was escorted to the altar by the ushers, Messrs James Jennings and George Maxey. Rev. P. H. Kennedy assisted by Rev. W. A. Carrington, conducted the nuptial service while from the organ emanated the soft strains of "Oh, Promise Me." Professor Firth, of Carbondale, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as the party proceeded to the altar and the Swedish march was played at their departure. Miss Estelle Allen, the bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss Estelle Allen, appeared to perfection in an attire of white organdy over blue silk with lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Edna S. Higgins, the little flower bearer, wore a wreath of roses and carried a basket strewn with them. The bride's sister, attended as maid of honor, and Dr. Leidy Kiel, of Scranton, acted as best man. Edna S. Higgins was flower bearer. The bride was handsomely gowned in white organdy over white silk with lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and a sunburst of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, contributed to the beauty of her adornment. The maid of honor, Miss