RIVAL LECTURE COURSES.

Cycle Club and New Century Club to Fornish Entertainment.

A few years ago this city considered itself lucky if it was provided with some seemed to be the only organization willing to assume the responsibility of conducting one. Now we have the Cycle chil and the new Chinry club planning course entertainments of the season of 1898-90.

The new Century club's name was used in consection with last wieter's course, the financial success of which was assured by Agent Wiley, who sold between 400 and 500 tickets before the ourse opened. However, the large attendance encouraged the ladies and they now have confidence enough to undertake the project without outside

The Cycle club has not with such uninterrupted success in its manage ment of high class entertainments that t decided some time ago to engage the best talent to be bad for next season. The question as to whether two courses will pay, naturally arises. The answer to this is found in the fact that the club made a little money on cach of its entertainments last season, and they were sandwiched in between the numbers of the course.

In this cornection many will be interested upon learning that Miss Louise Gumaer is no longer the prima donna of the Mozart Symphony club, which appeared here last winter. Miss Katharine Huntington, soprano, of Carton, O. and President McKinley's favorite vocallst is now with the organization.

HORSEMEN COMING TO TOWN.

One town's loss is always another's The Scranton driving park is being done away with and its surface is being cut up into building lote. As a consequence the horses that have been kept in training are being removed. In looking about for new quarters the attention of the horsmen was at once drawn to this city and now nearly every stall in the big stables at Anthrapark contains a trotter. Bob Wes lake's racing "string" has just been brought there. It numbers eleven horses, among which are some of the speedlest racers in this section. Another lot of fine racers is expected in a few days and the park is new the scene of the greatest animation.

And How Mrs. Pinkham Helps Overcome Them.

Mrs. MARY BOLLINGER, 1101 Marianna St., Chicago, Ill., to Mrs. Pinkham: "I have been troubled for the past two years with falling of the womb, leucorrhoes, pains over my body, sick headaches, backache, nervousness and weakness. I tried doctors and various remedies without relief. After taking two bottles of your Vegetable Compound, the relief I obtained was truly wonderful. I have now taken several more bottles of your famous medicine, and can see that I am entirely cured."

Mrs. HUNRY DORR. No. 806 Findley St., Cincinnati, Ohio, to Mrs. Pinkham: "For a long time I suffered with chronic inflammation of the womb, pain in abdomen and bearing-down feeling. Was very nervous at times, and so weak I was hardly able to do anything. Was subject to headaches, also troubled with leucorrhoa. After doctoring for many months with different physicians, and getting no relief, I had given up all hope of being well ong be remembered by all who had again when I read of the great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing. I decided immediately to give it a trial. The result was simply past belief. After taking four bottles of Vegetable Compound and using three packages of Sanative Wash I can say I feel like a new woman. I deem it my duty to announce the fact to my fellow sufferers that Lydia entirely cured me of all my pains and the altar, were a mass of beautiful suffering. #### Dr. Bird Makes Reply. Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I find in today's Tribune an article from the pen of the Rev. Wil- have figured with some prominence taking me to task for certain stricttouching the faith, doctrine and preachers of the saints.

Allow me to say that if the faith of the Mormons is as strong as that article and their professed veneration of on the coast of Africa, between paralloseph Smith is as mendacious, there lets 14 and 17 degrees of north latitude s no wonder that the Mormons are and parallels 22 and 25 degrees of west thinking people.

Mr. Smith did not hear but a few entences of the sermon and not one ord did we say against the faith or o them in our sermon in any such

Mr. Smith tries to bolster up his own cause and curry favor with the xpects to draw most of his votariesby prejudicing them against us and ur work and thus make friends for inself and cause. I believe in the Westminster catechism: I endorse the Baptist confession of faith: I accept and subscribe to every word in the Methodist discipline. I accept without equivocation or amendation the whole Scriptures as my guide and rule of I believe in all orthodox creeds. but I believe also in a ballot box creed and have no controversy with other denominations except to proclaim vehemently against preachers and church members praying, "O, God thy king-dom come," and then on election day go and vote for rum. I am opposed to the church of God affiliating with dirty politicians and setting up the orks of the davil in our .nidst.

We secured all our information con cerning Mormonism from the encyclo paedias and people who knew the Smith family. As to their practices, they certainly belie their now latterday saints. Saints do not set up an other prophet over Jesus Christ and insult God and heaven with a pretended veneration that robs the Almighty of His spirituality. Let me say, I am a citizen of this republic and as patriotic as the best of Mormons, and do not consider myself an enemy to the flag or disloyal to the Union because I point out and denounce the evils of the nation.

In October, while going up Bonanza, I saw a long-haired, full-bearded man n weather-beaten, grease-covered suit, shuffling along with a pickax on his shoulder. It was the gentleman from the ball. A little later I saw a man at a windlass in a costume that is indescribable. Only a few months pre-viously I had seen him sitting a dignified, august judge, in next to the highest court of our state. He was now working a few feet of some man's laim on shares. I have seen a party candidate for county auditor in a prom-inent city dealing stud poker in Dawon, says a writer in the New York

Mall and Express. On the trail we met a very agreeable gentleman from New York, a real estate broker. He has not been doing anything since his arrival. Last night I was surprised to find he had become a pusher for one of the saloons-that is, he played stud poker for the house keen, the game going. Last night when I came home, I found a stranger sitting on my bunk. He was dressed in overalls, black with grease, a muskrat shirt and moccasins, and his face was covered with a stiff beard. It took me a long time to recognize him. The last time I had seen him was at Lake Linderman, as fresh and fair and well-groomed as if he were out for a promenade on Fifth avenue What a change camp life and roughing it had produced. He had just come lown from Stewart river to record a claim. I noticed this morning that he did not wash, so accustomed had he become to outdoor life.
