MORNING CHURCH WEDDING. Miss Barnes and Mr. Weinschenk Are Married at St. Luke's.

In St. Luke's Episcopal church at 11.30 o'clock yesterday morning Miss Helene Barnes and Arthur A. Weinschenk were married by the rector, Rev. Rogers Israel. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. L. Wade Barnes, of 239 Wyoming avenue; the groom is a Scranton architect and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton W. Weinschenk, of Grandview avenue, Arlington Heights.

The bride was the bride's sister, Miss Louise Marie Barnes, and the groom was attended by Ralph D. Williams, of this city. Harry C. Haak and Edwin B. Robbins were the ushers. The bride was accompanied to the altar by two flower girls, Maud Kellow and Estelle Kelly, nieces of the groom. The bride's gown was of dark blue poplin braided with bow-knots of shirred blue satin ribbon. She carried bridal roses. She wore a toque of army blue straw, trimmed with lace, jet quills and blue flowers. The bridesmaid wore a gown of white velvet trimmed with green velvet and lace. She carried pink roses. The flower girls wore Empire frocks of white lawn trimmed with lace; their hats were of white organdy trimmed with pink carnations. They carried baskets of pink carnations.

Preceding the wedding the bridal party breakfasted at the bride's home. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Weinschenk went to the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. George Kellow, on Chestnut street, and at 1.30 o'clock left the city on a Central Railroad of New Jersey train. On their return they will reside for a time at the home of Mr. Weinschenk's parents.

LOFTUS IS A SEAMAN. He Is with the American Vessels at Santiago de Cuba.

Miss Maggie Loftus, of Moosic, received a letter a few days ago from her brother Patrick, who is one of the seamen on the gunboat Nashville, from which the first shot was fired in this war, as written at Santiago de Cuba on June 6. The letter says that the Spanish fleet is surely bottled up in the harbor, but even if it wasn't the Spaniards are too cowardly to come out and fight. He predicts that it will be a matter of only a short time until they have to give up the fight. He says they are very poor gunners, and cannot shoot straight.

TIRES INFLATED FREE. Carbonic Gas Machine in Use at Florey & Brooks' Store.

An automatic tire inflater attracts scores of wheelmen and wheelwomen daily to the sporting goods store of Florey & Brooks on Washington avenue. A turn of a screw attached to a rubber tube leading from a splendidly constructed hand-operated machine quickly and well. Only two seconds are necessary to inflate a tire. Carbonic gas is the material used. One tank is sufficient to inflate 1,000 tires. No charge is made by the firm for the use of the machine.

RECRUITING WORK HAS BEEN FINISHED

Final Party for the Thirtieth Leaves Here Today.

LIEUTENANT DENTLER, OF THE REGULAR ARMY, WILL REMAIN. HOWEVER, AS LONG AS THE CITY CONTINUES TO FURNISH SUCH GOOD MATERIAL -- DR. FULTON HAS EXAMINED 30 MEN FOR THE THIRTIETH AND REJECTED ONLY 2 PER CENT.

The last lot of recruits for the Thirtieth regiment will leave here for Camp Alger via the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road at 3 o'clock this morning. There will be two detachments, one of 20 men for the first battalion and one of 25 men for the second battalion. They will remain, however, to be furnished with transportation to camp three of four men who have been given two extra days in which to arrange certain business matters.

The first battalion detachment of twenty men will include eleven who have enlisted as musicians. Thomas Miles, who has been enlisted as band leader, has been until now a cornet player in Bauer's band. He is a musician of considerable merit. Following are the names of the Second battalion recruits: Thomas Davis, Eugene Watson, Richard Lynd, John Ganum, William Mann, Franklin Smith, Charles Deake, William Staples, Gilbert Bailey, Louis Putnam, John Sester, Claude Lester, Joseph Ackerman, Michael Mallia, James Nealon, Marshall Bakewell, Louis Decker, Jacob Vascius, Frank Lesch, George Gary, Nelson Brakey, George Heis, John Gilman, Howard Shannon, Orlando Custard.

RETURNS TODAY. Captain Frank Robling, who has been recruiting men for Companies A, B, C and D, of the First battalion, stated last night that he would return to camp tomorrow with the first lot of commissioned officers comprising his recruiting detail. Captain R. James McCausland, of Montrose, who has had charge of the recruiting for the Second battalion, Companies E, F, G and H, says no time has been fixed for the departure of his recruiting detail. He will remain here with them until he gets orders to return.

Dr. W. G. Fulton, ex-major and surgeon of the Thirtieth, was engaged in making the final physical examination of recruits at the armory until 10 o'clock last night. It was nearly midnight before Captain McCausland and his men finished the necessary clerical work connected with the recruiting. When Dr. Fulton completed the examination he had examined 35 applicants, approved 33 and rejected 2. The percentage rejected was 29, and about 5 per cent. less than in the examinations of recruits for the regiment before it left Mt. Gretna. These figures show that the present lot of men are superior physically to the first.

This is wholly due to the fact that extreme care was used by the two captains in approving applications. They have learned from the previous recruiting experience and from the examination made at Ft. Gretna, Pa., at camp just what imperfections were sufficient to disqualify. It is further true that the last lot of recruits excel the first in morals and intelligence. The reason is found in the fact that the more recent recruiting has been systematic and not hurried.

FOR REGULAR ARMY. Eighteen men were recruited for the regular army yesterday by Lieutenant Dentler. He will send a party of thirty men in a car attached to this noon's 12.15 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train. Following are the names of twenty-two of this party: Edward D. Sling, John King, Thomas J. Flynn, John A. Cook, Godfrey Smith, Richard J. Collins, John R. Davis, Martin M. Gallagher, Patrick J. Cannon, Thomas McHale, Thomas H. Edmunds, James F. Madigan, Michael P. Callen, Frank Cleveland, Stephen Wheeler, Charles Lampman, Joseph H. Krueger, John W. Wilson, Benson A. Barber, Edward J. Ryan, Martin McCormick, Thomas F. Grier.

Lieutenant Dentler said yesterday his work here would not be finished for possibly two weeks. He needed, he said, many more men. He was satisfied with the quality of recruits he was getting here and would not leave as long as the supply of good material lasted. One source of gratification to him, he remarked, was the large number of applicants who have served in the regular army and who were re-enlisting.

HUBBELL LAMP PERFECTED. Company Is Now Prepared to Furnish Them to the Public.

After a year of expensive and exhaustive experimental work at the factory of the Hubbell Electric Lamp company, located on Canouse avenue, Nos. 1311-12-13, in this city, the company is now prepared to furnish its electric lamp to the public. Its appearance will be gladly hailed by bicycle riders who have until now been unable to secure a satisfactory lamp. When it comes into general use in our mines there will be no more terrible casualties from gas explosion to chronicle. All the objectionable features of existing lamps, both oil and electric, have been completely overcome in the Hubbell lamp. The officers of the company are Captain C. J. Hubbell, president; Dr. L. M. Gates, vice-president; W. D. Boyer, secretary and treasurer, and among its directors and stockholders are the names of E. P. Mueckler, Harry Kinzard, Mat H. Dale, George M. Hallstead and Edward C. Jones, of Olyphant. The company has already large orders to fill and the capacity of the factory will be taxed to its utmost.

HELM COMMITTED.

He Was a Common Pleas Juror and Appeared in Court in an Intoxicated Condition.

When the suit of Livoryman George Atherton, of the North End, against William McHale was about to be resumed in common pleas court Saturday at 9 a. m., Squire Nicholas Glynn, of Pell township, was absent from his seat in the jury box. The case was all tried except the charge of the court. Judge Gunster issued a capias for him and continued the case until yesterday morning. Later Saturday forenoon Mr. Glynn sent a telephone message to the sheriff's office that he was sick. He was instructed to be on hand yesterday, and when court convened yesterday he was present, and Judge Gunster accepted his explanation. The twelve jurors were present, and the judge told them to retire to the box in No. 2 as the main room was needed for criminal court.

As soon as the judge was ready to begin his charge in No. 2 he discovered that one of the seats in the jury box was vacant. This time it was Mr. Glynn. The roll was called and Charles Helm, of the South Side, was the missing man. It was thought that he had retired for a few minutes. He was waiting for an hour, Judge Gunster submitted the proposition to the attorneys on both sides that the case be left to the consideration of eleven men, and it was agreed to.

About the time the judge was finishing the charge in walk Mr. Helm, with enough of liquor aboard for two. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff and committed to the county jail until he sobered up in the afternoon, and was docked one day's pay. The eleven jurors came in at 2 o'clock with a verdict of $99 in favor of the plaintiff.

MAJOR MILLAR RECOMMENDED. General Gobin Asks That He Be Appointed Assistant Quartermaster.

Alderman W. S. Millar, late major and inspector of the Third brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, seems likely to be commissioned an assistant quartermaster and assigned to the staff of Brigadier General J. P. S. Gobin. In a letter to Major Millar from General Gobin, the latter writes: "I want you--and I want you badly." He writes further that he has recommended Major Millar's appointment and urges him to ask the aid of Mr. Connel and other representatives from this section. Ordinarily such a recommendation would be equivalent to an appointment, but just now Major Millar is among 1,200 who have been suggested.

A TALK ON VELVETS.

Let's have a little confidential chat about Velvet carpets. We think there's a whole lot of carpet goodness in velvets. In many ways they're better than axminsters. In every way they're better than moquettes. And our velvets are good velvets. Heavy wear resisting pile. Colors that seem just a little better than any you've seen before. Patterns too, shows that our buyer makes a study of his end of the business. We're sure our line was never as good as this year. And surely no one shows a better one. The weather is to warm to make change so we've priced them at an even dollar a yard.
