

REGIMENTS LEAVE TODAY

Orders for the Two Michigan and 9th Massachusetts Regiments.

OFF FOR NEWPORT NEWS

Another Brigade Will Follow Within a Week.

SOLDIER BOYS INSISTED ON MUSIC BY THE NEW BAND AND THEN RENDERED A VERDICT THAT THE MUSICIANS WOULD GO ACCORDING TO ORDERS RECEIVED YESTERDAY.

Special from a Staff Correspondent.

Camp Alger, Va., June 21.—The two Michigan regiments and the Ninth Massachusetts, General Duffield's brigade, leave tomorrow for Newport News.

Everything is bustle and hurry in the camps of the six regiments being prepared for the army that will soon proceed to Cuban waters.

The present programme contemplates getting General Duffield's brigade, Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Michigan and Ninth Massachusetts on the road by tomorrow and sending out soon after them the Eighth Ohio, Sixth Illinois and Sixth Massachusetts, commanded by General Garretson.

The six regiments have a numerical strength of over 4,000 men and will tax the utmost capacity of the two steamers, the Yale and Harvard, which are to convey them from Newport News.

THIRTEENTH TO MARCH.

The Thirteenth received orders today to begin its two days practice march Thursday morning.

Private Charles Sprandel, of Company C, was accidentally stabbed in the chin this evening by a bayonet which he collided with in emerging from his tent.

GOSSIP OF THE CAMP.

Special from a Staff Correspondent.

Camp Alger, Va., June 21.—No regiment of the brigade received the news of General Gobin's coming with more genuine enthusiasm than the Thirteenth, and no commander will give the brigadier a heartier welcome than Colonel Courson, whom he supplants.

Lieutenant Colonel Mattes, who is disposed from the command of the regiment, was the bearer of the news of General Gobin's coming and the enthusiastic manner in which he imparted the information left no doubt as to his feelings in the matter.

General Gobin's coming means a good fair piece for one Pennsylvania boy and that same boy is well deserving of it. He is Regimental Adjutant Wilder Norris, of the Eighth Pennsylvania.

INDIGESTION.

was not to be mustered in with the other volunteers at Mt. Gretna, Captain Norris resigned his dress parade honor and accepted a lieutenancy in the Eighth, deserting his fine home, fashionable friends and lucrative law practice for a rank lower than his own in the volunteer army.

The request from the Pennsylvania colonels and General Garretson to General Gobin to assign to the second army corps was the outcome of a suggestion of Lieutenant Norris. He went to "Lieutenant" Norris long.

Just how many places General Gobin will have at his disposal is not known for a certainty here, but it is quite certain that the principal positions, adjutant general, brigade surgeon, quartermaster and commissary, will not be left for his choosing, the department reserving these assignments for itself.

One of the positions, that of commissary of subsistence, was filled before General Gobin was sent here. Captain Cabell reporting to Colonel Courson for duty in that position yesterday. It is quite likely that the other positions named will be filled in a similar manner.

If the position of brigade surgeon is left to General Gobin to fill there is every hope that Major Parke will be given the place. It is probable, however, that one of the twenty-seven brigade surgeons recently appointed by the president will be assigned to the position.

It is a singular thing that General Gobin was absent the last man in the Michigan regiments and the Ninth Massachusetts, General Duffield's brigade, leave tomorrow for Newport News.

DO NOT BE IMPATIENT

Let That Summer Suit Wait Until the Weather is Settled.

"Thank goodness, I am rid of those things for a while."

So speaks the man who casts aside his heavier clothing to put on his summer suit. He goes to business on some treacherously fine day, leaving his waistcoat behind him. Toward evening a coolish breeze springs up and of course you know what happens next. The man in thin clothes is a prey to a summer colic, which is more likely to attack the stomach and bowels than the throat and lungs.

Physicians who do not always prescribe alcohol, order their patients to take a small pure whiskey for the best comfort and protection in summer. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, and deserves the reputation of being especially valuable in these cases. It healthfully stimulates, it checks diarrhea and its general effect is heartening and uplifting.

The National Relief association is greeting a wooden building near First division headquarters to be used as a storeroom. Distributions will be made by an agent upon requisition from the hospital surgeons. The work of getting the depot in working order is being supervised by Rabbi Joseph Kausskopf, of Philadelphia, a member of the associating's field commission. It will establish similar depots at Chickamauga and Tampa.

The "law of 60" was ordered to be enforced in Washington yesterday and from this out no one in soldier uniform can secure intoxicants within the limits of the District of Columbia, unless a saloonkeeper can be found who is willing to risk being fined $20 and lose his license for a second offense. Extra bartenders are being engaged for the three saloons in Roslyn, the 2nd town on the Virginia side of the Annapolis bridge, where is located the terminal of the Washington, Annapolis and Falls Church trolley line by which the soldiers reach Washington. The police force of the town consists of one colored constable, but it is very probable that a large provost guard will be permanently stationed there to prevent trouble.

Requisition has been made by Quartermaster Cox for web cartridge belts to supplant the leather belts and cartridge boxes with which the regiment is now equipped. One hundred rounds of cartridges can be carried in the belt, while the present box will hold only twenty.

Brigadier General Cole has reported for duty and has been assigned to the Third brigade of the Second division. Major C. R. Parke, acting brigade surgeon, is entertaining his wife and his father, Rev. Dr. N. G. Parke, of Pittston.

Mrs. DuBois and daughter, Miss Belle DuBois, of Washington, were guests yesterday of Private Bruce Chase, of Company G.

Company Clerk Edward Connolly, of B, is back again from his furlough. Private John L. Kromer, of Company B, whose home is in Dalton; Private Michael A. Kibbin, Company G, whose home is in Halstead and Company C, whose home is in Scranton, left last night on seven day furloughs.

The Thirteenth went up for inspection today and possibly on Thursday will start on its two day's practice march. The First brigade of the First division, consisting of the First New Jersey, Sixty-fifth New York and the Seventh Ohio, started out this morning. Thron A. of the cavalry squadron, started later by a different route, and will endeavor to surprise and capture the infantrymen's baggage train.

The Thirteenth's most decided foe is its cavalry bothers their train when they start on the march. There will be a lot of duds troopers from New York walking home without their clothes.

As many of the recruits as could be found are already uniformed and as fast as the others arrive they will be put into the blues. The guns have been sent for and almost any day Quartermaster Cox expects his requisition to be honored. The newcomers are having a much easier time of it than the "regimentals" at Mt. Gretna. Blankets, uniforms, tents and plenty to eat waiting them is slightly different to what the Mt. Gretna recruits found waiting them.

Major General M. C. Butler and his adjutant, Major F. B. Strong, visited Colonel Courson and staff yesterday.

H. E. Smith, of Scranton, was the guest of Quartermaster Cox yesterday. A large box of Clark & Snover has been received from Colonel Ripple. It is a much appreciated gift.

Sergeant Colvin, of Company F, Fourth Artillery, stationed at Fort Myer, visited his old comrades in Company A yesterday. Immediately upon his transfer to the cavalry he was given a place as sergeant. This was a compliment to the excellent record he made during his former term of service with this command.

Private George Blackwell, of Company D, has been called to his home in Scranton by the serious illness of his mother.

Arthur Chase, a former resident of Scranton, now an employe of the navy yard, spent yesterday with friends in the Thirteenth.

Captain Fellows, of Company F, was much gratified yesterday by the receipt of a congratulatory address from the pupils of the Intermediate grade of No. 18 school. It told of how Captain Fellows and Company F were roundly cheered by the school on the closing day and conveyed the company the best wishes of the pupils for a pleasant tour and safe return. It was signed by all the pupils.

Joseph Wesley, of Great Bend, is visiting Company G.

Justices of the peace Charles Crook, of Halstead, is the guest of the "bandsters" in Company G.

William Fike, of Halstead, private secretary to Hon. Galusha A. Gray, called on the Susquehanna boys yesterday.

Private Bruce Brown, of Company G, is entertaining his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Brown, and his sister, of Jackson, Pa.; his aunt, Mrs. Strong and cousin, Miss Strong, of Starbuck.

Captain Smith, of Company E, is officer of the day. Sergeant Karsky, of the same company, is sergeant of the guard.

Private William Grisher, of Company G, and Louis A. Ralph, of Company H, were yesterday's orderlies. T. J. Duffy.

THIS AND THAT.

Thomas Miles, a member of Bauer's band since 1885, enlisted in the Pennsylvania infantry, Thirteenth regiment, for two years, Monday, as bandmaster of the Halstead band, which volunteered in a body and left Scranton yesterday morning for Camp Alger in a body. Mr. Miles was a valuable member of Bauer's organization, filling the position as solo cornet in the band and orchestra for several years. He has a wife and one child, who will break up housekeeping at their home on Capouse avenue. The members of Bauer's band, after rehearsal on Monday evening, gave their old member, who so valiantly left home and friends to go to the front, a parting farewell reception. Refreshments were served and several of the members expressed themselves in words befitting the occasion. Mr. Miles will leave for Camp Alger this morning at 8 o'clock on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad and will be escorted to the station by the band.

The clerks and many patrons of the Dime and Discount bank were thrown into a state of excitement yesterday morning by a foreign-born customer of the institution, who had been in the bank with a friend and left after transacting some business. He returned on a run and shouted out the loss of a pocketbook containing $100. He said he had left it on the counter when he was in the bank. Nobody could throw any light on the observations of the missing money and the man left the place. He returned shortly and went through the same excited manoeuvres. Finally the friend who was with him on the first visit displayed the missing pocketbook and the two left the building, the friend exclaiming that he had been teaching the other not to be careless.

A pleasant reception was given at the Young Women's Christian association last evening for Miss Rachel Tolles, who was general secretary for a brief time. Miss Tolles is on her way home from New York city and is the guest of Miss Metcalfe. The reception was entirely informal, no regular programme being given. Mrs. Ripple was present and introduced the guest of honor. Miss Edna Judd played a number of piano selections and Miss Freda Kann gave mandolin solos, which were greatly enjoyed.

Rev. A. L. Hamer, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, has left town for a two weeks' stay. He will attend the graduating exercises of Muhlenberg college, at Allentown, June 21 to 23. He will represent the Central Lutheran League of Northeastern Pennsylvania at the State Lutheran League convention which will be held at Allentown in Bethlehem, Pa., June 29 and 30.

Photographer T. E. Dillon has finished some excellent photographs of groups at the policemen's outing at Lake Henry last week. All are good, but the one of particular excellence shows the whole party waiting for the train at the Maplewood depot.

An open-air concert will be given in Nay-Aug park at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Bauer's band. Arrangements are being made by the park commissioners to give a series of concerts at the park during the summer season.
