

"Catching On" Our Oxford Sale

Ladies' good quality Tan and Black Oxford Tie and Sandals. Will close out, Today Only,

Ladies' hand - sewed turn-sole Oxford Tie, cannot be duplicated elsewhere under $2.50. For Today Only,

$1.85

SCHANK & SPENCER

410 SPRUCE STREET.

The Wilkes-Barre Record can be had In Scranton at the news stands of M. Meinhart, 119 Wyoming avenue; Mac, Lackawanna avenue.

CITY NOTES.

Cards of thanks, resolutions of condo-lence, obituary poetry and the like will be inserted in The Tribune only when paid for in advance, at the rate of 10

St. Luke's summer home for women and children at Cresco will open July 6, Camp 8, Sons of Veterans, conducted a atterded excursion to Harvey's lake yesterday.

There will be a special meeting of the hall this evening at 7.70 o'clock

The Orpheus club will give a concethe Second Presbyterian church this evening, beginning at 5.15 o'clock,

The ladies of the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church will hold a lawn fete this evening to which all are in-

Thursday afternoon the Woman's Christian Temperance union, of Green Ridge, will hold a meeting at the library building, Green Ridge.

The funeral of Mrs. Barbara Huber will take place this morning at 10 o clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Kuschwa, 1319 Vine street. Reynolds Bros., stationers and engravers, are distributing a series of "blotters" with handsome half-tone cuts of the ships of the white squadron thereon.

In Sanderson park on July 4 the con-cregation of St. Paul's Catholic church, Green Ridge, will conduct its annual prewhich is always a very pleasant af-

Patrick Leftus, a laborer employed in digging a sewer on Monsey avenue, was caught in the excavation Tuesday by the aving of the sides and was seriously in-

Detective Moir, of the police depart ment, went to Albany yesterday with requisition papers for McDonough and Lance, the two youths arrested in Bing-hamton for robbing the Free Press office in this city last week Monday night.

John Berge was arrested vesterday by Special Officer Durkin for stealing a ride on a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train. He was arraigned before Alderman Millar and in default of a fine of $3.56 was committed to jail for ten days.

The funeral of Ann O'Hora will take place temorrow morning from the rest dence of Mrs. John J. Gordon, 102 East Carbon street, at 9 a. m., after high mass of requiem at St. Peter's. Interment will be made in the Hyde Park Catholic

The Traders' National bank has opened to the public a subscription list for the new issue of the United States govern-ment bands. Any person desiring to subsuribe for these bonds may now do so and the subscription will be handled by this bank without charge. The bends will be issued in denominations of $20, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. The subscriptions much reach the treasury department Washington, D. C., before Thursday July Any one desiring to subscribe at do so not later than Monday, July II.

00000000000000000

Flour

$5.35 Bbl. $1.38 Sack. Highest Grade.

At the

Scranton Cash Store

MANY BRILLIANT JUNE WEDDINGS

Host of Pretty Brides Stood Before the Altar Yesterday.

MISS AMY JEANETTE HOWELL MARRIED TO JACOE VAN MAUR, OF PHILADELPHIA, IN ST. DA-VID'S CHURCH, WEST SCRANTON. MISS HATTIE EVANS AND REED SIVELLY UNITED AT THE HOME OF THE BRIDE-LUXEMBERGER-M'CORMACK NUPTIALS.

Miss Amy Jeanette, only daughter of Esdras Howell, of Washburn street, was united in marriage to Jacob Van Maur, of Philadelphia, last evening at 8.30 o'clock at St. David's church, West Scranton.

The church auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity and the guests were ushered by Turvy Breese, Eli Harris and John Howell, of this city, and Albert Howell, of Ogden, Utah. Promptly at the hour set, the bridal party entered the church as the wedding march from Lohengrin was being played by Bauer's orchestra. Eight young ladies, the Misses Nell, Lois and Jane Fellows, Elizabeth Heiser, Edna Saxe, Pearl and Leila Porter, each attired in white, led the way and strewed the main aisle with daisies.

Miss Agnes G. Howell, of San Jose, Cal., a cousin of the bride, preceded the bride as bridesmaid. The bride, leaning on her father's arm, came next, attended by Miss Anna Konechny as maid of honor. The ushers, as they reached the chancel railing, stood facing and the eight misses formed to the right and left. The bride was met at the altar by the groom, who was ac-companied by Charles Shaw, of Wilkes-Barre, as best man.

Here the betrothal ceremony was carried out, the bride being given away by her father. Immediately following Rev. E. J. McHenry, rector, performed the nuptial ceremony according to the Episcopalian rite. During this solemn moment, Prof. R. J. Bauer played a violin obligate and as the bridal party passed from the church at the conclusion of the ceremony the orchestra played Mendelssohn's march.

The bride was attired in a beautiful stume of French serge, with pearl assementerie and chiffon trimmings. She also were a tulle veil caught up with a pearl sunburst pin, the gift of the groom, Miss Howell, the bridesmaid, were figured organdie over pink silk. The maid of honor, Miss Konwhny, was attired in figured organdle over blue silk. Each carried a white prayer book, with a string of dalsies At the conclusion of the ceremony he bridal party repaired to the bride's esidence, where a reception was held and a wedding repast served. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Van Maur departed on an extensive wedding tour through the south. They will reside at Philadelphia, where the groom is connected with a prominent engineering company. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present at the reception.

Sivelly-Evans.

At the residence of Mailcarrier and Mrs. Eleazer S. Evans, 222 North Bromley avenue, the marriage of their daughter, Miss Hattle, to Reed Sivelly, of Adams avenue, occurred last evening at 9 o'clock in the presence of only he immediate relatives of the contract ng parties and a few intimate friends. Mrs. Evans was assisted in receiving by Mrs. William C. Price.

The ceremony was performed in the cond parlor, which was artistically decorated for the occasion. As Mendelssohn's wedding march was being played by Mrs. D. B. Thomas, the bridal party proceeded from upstairs o the parlor. Master William Price led the way, carrying a basket of field daisies, and following him came Miss Bessie Thomas, of Conkling, N. Y., the maid of honor. The bride, leaning on her father's arm, followed and immediately behind came the groom, attended by Charles Kreig, of Pottsville, as groomsman. Standing, beneath a canopy formed by draping of the national colors in a large bay-window, with a background f palms and ferns, Rev. H. H. Harris, D. D., of Taylor, united the couple according to the Baptist ritual. bride was given away by her father. The officiating elergyman is a cousin of the bride. The bride was charmingly attired, wearing white silk organdle over white silk, with real lace and ribbon trimmings, and carried roses. Miss Thomas were white silk organdie over pale blue slik, with trimmings, and carried carnations.

was in perfect keeping with the bride, A reception was tendered the couple at the conclusion of the ceremony, after which a wedding repast was served. Mrs. Comer Price was in charge and was assisted by Mrs. Robert Robinson Mrs. Henry Sivelly and the Misses May Jones and Harriet Evans. and Mrs. Sivelly will spend a few days on a short wedding tour and will be at home to their friends at 222 North Bromley avenue after June 20.

Mrs. Sivelly was for some time con nected with the millinery department at Clarke Bros., while Mr. Sivelly has charge of the Green Ridge branch of the Scranton Dairy company, Sharpe-MeGlynn.

In St. Ignatius church, Kingston, yes terday morning at 7 o'clock Hugh P of Wilker-Barre and Miss Sharpe. Alice McGlynn, of Westmoreland place were married by Rev. Father O'Malley. pastor of the church. The bride was attended by her siser, Miss Mary McGlynn and the hest nan was Attorney Frank P. Stattery of this city. The bride presented an xceedingly attractive appearance, and as attired in a handsome costume of ream colored lansdown and carried by Clerk of the Courts Daniels. boquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid also were a cream colored contume. Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe will spend their honeymoon in Boston.

Christophel-Williams.

Miss Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac L. Williams, of 544 North Sumner avenue, was married to Jacob F. Christophel, of Remington avenue last evening at 9 o'clock at the residence of her parents. It was a quiet home affair, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being

The ceremony was performed in the parior, which was artistically decorated, and Rev. Thomas DeGruchy pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, officiated. The bride was atmaid, and John Christophel, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride were a pretty gown of cadet blue, with white silk and satin ribbon trimming, and carried roses. Miss Evans was attired in a gown of organdle, over pink silk, and carried roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held and a repast served. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Christophel departed on their wedding tour to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will reside in a newly-furnished home at 318 Maple street. The bride enjoys a wide circle of acquaintances among West Scranton young people. Mr. Christophel is a well-known South Scranton young man and is Delaware and Hudson station agent at the steel works station.

Hopkins-Jenkins.

Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, of 1608 Price street. was married to Simon Hopkins, of Everett avenue, last evening at the residence of the bride's parents. was a quiet home affair, only the imparties being present.

The ceremony was performed in the with palms and evergreens for the oc- in the penitentiary. casion. Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of her sister, Miss Louise Jenkins, as the The wedding marches were man. played by Miss Mary A. James,

The bride looked charming in a costume of white organdie over white silk, similarly attired and also carried roses. At the conclusion of the ceremony, a reception was held and later a post charge upon which he was yesterday nuptial repast was served. Mr. and put on trial. Mrs. Hopkins are both well-known They will reside for the time at 160s Price street.

Luxemberger-McCormack.

Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. Mary McCormack, of 1415 Washburn street, was united in marriage to Dr. George Luxemburger, of Wyoming avenue, yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was performed at St. Patrick's church and the rector, Rev. J. B. Whelan, officiated. Many friends lace, and was attended by Miss Mary McCormack, her sister, as bridesmaid. The bridesmaid was costumed in a pretty gown of white organdic, over William Luxemburger, a brother of the groom, attended him as best man. Miss Durkin played the wedding marches. Immediately after the ceremony, the bridal party repaired to the bride's residence, where a wed-ding breakfast was served. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Later, Dr. and Mrs. Luxemberger eparted on their wedding tour to New York and Philadelphia. Both are wellknown young people, and the doctor is one of Scranton's prominent dentists, Crampton-Von Gorder.

Miss Edith VanGorder and Architect Tharles F. Crampton were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. VanGorder, 1420 Gibson street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Sweet, paster Simpson Methodist Episcopai hurch.

Miss Lity Carlyon was bridesmaid and Rex VanGorder and Wayne Horn-baker ushers. The bride were a gown of white organdie, trimmed with lace, She carried white carnations, Miss Carlyon's gown was of white swiss, The marriage ceremony occurred under bell of daisies and carnations in the front parlor. Only the near friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Cramp. ton will forego a wedding tour. They will reside at 1420 Gibson street.

A Plymonth Marriage.

George Clewell, formerly of Scranton, and Miss Cora French were married last evening in the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth, Both are residents of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Clewell have many friends here. The groom was a member of the Scranton Bicycle club during his residence here. The wedding was attended by Attorey A. J. Colborn and Attorney and Mrs. H. C. Reynolds, Holleren-Schofield.

In Holy Rosary church, Providence, esterday afternoon, Martin Holleran and Miss Mary Schofield were married Rev J. J. O'Toole. A large number of the friends of the contracting parties were present to see the nuptial There was a reception last evening at the bride's home. Mr and Mrs. Holleran will reside in Minooka.

RELEASED, THEN ARRESTED.

Herman Escaped Prosecution Here, but He's Wanted Eisewhere.

Frederick Herman, who is wanted by the authorities at White Plains, N. Y., for grand larceny, was arrested in the court house yesterday after escaping prosecution for alleged larceny here. The prosecutor in the case here died recently and the court directed Herman's release as there was no one to oppear against him.

A bench warrant which has been in the hands of the sheriff for some time in the White Plains case was served on Herman. He was taken back to lail to await instructions from the White Plains authorities.

Marringe Licenses Granted.

Walter A. Sanford and Carrie E. Bliss of Waverly, Ira B. Winter, of 2012 Oly-phant road, and Jennie Jehu, of 2019 Wayne avenue; Thomas F. Harrison, of 50 Wyoming avenue, and Annie O'Mal-ey, of 402 Lurch street; Simon Hopkins, of 317 Everett average, and Margaret Jon-kins, of 1868 Price street; Thomas G. Da-vies, of 535 North Hyde Park avenue, and Hattle Davis, of 2613 North Main avenue, were granted marriage licenses yesterday

Commencement Exercises.

The fourth annual commencement excises of the Lackawanna Hospital Training School for Nurses will be held this evening at Adoright Library had. Dr. W. G. Fulton will address the grad-uates and Rev. D. J. MacGauldrick will also give an address. Miss Kraemer has arranged a reception at the hospital arer the exercises at the hall. Refrechestra will provide music for dancing.

A New Postni Regulation.

The postuffice department has issued ew order regarding second class mail matter which, after July 1, will not be forwarded unless prepaid. Heretofore apers have been forwarded to changed ddresses with the due postage to be ollected at the other end. This method will be discontinued on the above men-

HUGH M'LAUGHLIN IS NOW ON TRIAL

Gave Damaging Testimony Against Himself in a Highway Robbery Case.

BY DIRECTION OF THE COURT HE WAS THEN INDICTED FOR THE OFFENCE HE IS NOW ON TRIAL FOR-FRANZ SCHUENISMAN CON-VICTED OF HAVING FELONIOUSLY WOUNDED PATROLMAN JOHN D THOMAS-REMANDED TO THE CUS TODY OF THE SHERIFF.

Hugh McLaughlin, of Keyser Valley, was called yesterday before Judge Edwards to answer the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. He was a witness mediate relatives of the contracting for Edward Dacey and James Walsh, of the Continental, who were tried and convicted last term of highway rob parior, which was profusely decorated bery and are now serving a long term

In order to help Dacey and Walsh the Tabernacle Congregational church, along he swere that they were in his officiated. The bride was attended by place drinking at the time the robbery was alleged, and they had been there bridesmaid and Gwilym Hopkins, a long enough before and after the time brother of the groom, acted as grooms- fixed to set up an alibi for them, providing, of course, that the jury believed McLaughlin. The robbery was com-mitted on a Sunday night. That, the jury falled to do, and to make things and carried roses. The bridesmaid was still worse, Judge Edwards made out a bench warrant for McLaughlin to hold him on his own admission for the District Attorney Jones put a half among West Scranton's young people. dozen Hungarians on the stand and the They will reside for the time at 1608 most of them testified, though not in the most convincing manner, that they were in the defendant's place on the night of the robbery and had either whiskey or beer to drink and paid for

MR. JONES' OFFER.

Mr. Jones then offered to prove that McLaughlin admitted he sold liquor on that Sunday. The evidence in the highway robbery case was taken by Stenographer L. M. Schoch, who is absent from the city and has enlisted or is The bride wore a pretty gown of about to erlist in the United States mouselline de soie, trimmed with real army. The notes have not been transscribed, and there is no one who can decipher them except the man who wrote them. Court Stenographer Willis D. Coston was called as a witness to prove that Mr. Schoch is not to be had and that he, himself, cannot trans-

Attorneys Joseph O'Brien and E. W. Thaver, representing McLoughlin, objected then to the evidence of any witness by whom it was proposed to prove that McLoughlin made such an admis-The objection was on the ground that the record was the best evidence. Judge Edwards overruled the objection and Martin Weyshner was called to testify that he heard McLoughlin make the admission. Mr. Woyshner would not swear positively and his testimony was stricken out Detective Steve Dyer was called for the same purpose as Mr. Woyshner, and Mr. O'Brien objected on the ground that the law does not require a defendant to testify against himself. The evidence of McLoughlin in the robhery case would virtually be used to convict him out of his own mouth Judge Edwards decided the objection was a good one and the evidence of The common-Dyer was not heard. wealth then closed its case. The defense will be opened today.

SCHUENEMAN GUILTY. Franz Schueneman was found guil in manner and form as charged in the ing a lunch of bread and Polish sausindictment for feloniously wounding age. A lump of the meat stuck in his Patrolman John D. Thomas, Gurrell made an affidavit to the court immediately after court convened that | forced down he died from strangulahad been credibly informed of the tion. defendant's intention to debark for some distant recruiting station and ton was dead when he arrived. The join the United States army if the jury deceased was a veteran of the late war, found a verdiet of guilty. He would be at liberty until Saturday. Judge Edwards directed the sheriff to take im in charge and it was done. The defense he offered was that he had been set upon by two or three in the crowd in the saloon, and was using the knife in self defense. He did not know the officer, but thought, in the excitement of the fight, that he was one of the assailants. William Conroy, of Minooka, was let off easy for beating Motorman Cleason. He was fined $10 and costs, and got out under the insolvent law. John Kapp was found guilty of being the father of Kete Mohel's child. He was acquitted of the charge of seduction.

The jury in the case against Alderman Kelly went out at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and after supper they were out for an airing with the ripstad who had them in charge. At a late haur last night there was a light burning in their room in the court house. would not be the first jury to disagree in the same case.

DID NOT SMASH WINDOWS. Winfred Moran, of the West Side, was acquitted of malicious mischief and the costs were put on J. D. Flast man, the prosecutor. She was charged with smashing the windows in his house by bombarding it with stones. The costs were divided between George Harney and Mary Thomas in an assault and battery case. The costs were divided between Joseph Rudorswich and Charles Blyshon, of the Ridge, who were parties in a barroom brawl,

Charles Wheeler and Abel Stores, of Moscow, were put on trial before Judge Clunster on the charge of perjury preforred by W. K. Beck, of Moscow Attorneys John D. Kelly and M. J Martin represented the defendants and Assistant District Attorney Thomas the ommonwealth. Mr. Beck sucd Mr. Storms before a Moscow squire on book account, and Mr. Storms set up an off set for some props. Mr. Peck said he never took any props from the man in his life. Wheeler was a witness to prove the offset and Mr. Feet alleges they perjured themselves. The case had not been finished at elipurn-

Verdicts of not guilty were taken in the case of larceny and receiving against Fred Herman, and in the case of keeping a bawdy house against Mary Courtright. In the latter casthe costs were put on the county.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

The case of F. A. Branda against the Pennsylvania Bicycle Protective asso-ciation was down for a hearing yester-day but it was continued until next Monay at 2 a. m. Fred Harper, of Dunmore, was released on $1,000 ball yesterday, his father, John Harper, becoming his bondsman. Peter Reiher, whom he struck with a club on he head, is recovering rapidly at the Lackawanna hospital. Attorneys Voshurg & Dawson, repre-senting Alvah White, applied to court yesterday for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain the release of a child, Jennie Walters, from the custody of Celia Thomas. The child was indentured by the Scran-

Special Sale

OF CUT GLASS SALT and PEPPER SHAKERS at about half their usual price.

Clear Cut Glass Body, Silver Plated Top,

Beautifully Cut, with Embossed Sterling Silver Tops, 20c.

50c.

China Hall.

MILLAR & PECK, 134 Wyoming Avenue,

ton poor district to the plaintiff. The THE LACKAWANNA board took the child away from its mother, who is accused of shoplifting. Judge Edwards made the writ returnable Sat-No. 224 Adams Avenue, Joseph P. Sanborn, Minnie and John Zeugner, Sadie and W. J. Coleman, by their atterneys, Streeter & Lowry, began equity suit yesterday against George Purdy for an injunction to restran ilm from cutting any bark or timber from a certain tract of land near Crystal The hearing will take place Saturday morning.

John Lentes last month succeeded Perce Robling as alderman of the Eleventh ward but the latter has refused to turn over his deckets. Attorney M. J. Donahoe applied to Judge Gunster yesterday for a writ of alternative mandamus to issue to Mr. Robling directing him to deliver the books to his succe earing will take place Saturday morn-

COURT AGAIN APPEALED TO.

Asked to Say Just How a Contest Witness Can Be Examined.

Commissioners Lewis and Duggan disagreed on a question at issue in yes terday's hearing of the Langstaff-Keily entest, and it had to be certified to court for a ruling. Mr. Holgate objected to the cross-examination of witnesses on any matter except what they testified to in a direct examination. The court upheld the contestants, and when a witness is on the bill of particulars as not having paid taxes he can be examined and cross-examined only on that subject.

The witnesses yesterday were from the Nineteenth ward. They were as fellows: Peter Hart, John C. Dippre, Charles Langman, William Maus, jr., Peter Lopi, Edward Kell, Louis Kuta wood, John Frolich, John Vaugnau Cornelius McCue, John Schrieber Henry Heintz, Joseph Schrieber, Christian Storr, Everett Sonterg, Conra I Piel, George L. Muller, Henry Krockenberger, William Dippre, Charles Dippre, Louis Scheuer, Arthur Doden dorf, William Racunas, Charles Hammi Henry Reif, Philip Faust, Charles A. Lengier, Ferdinand Muckley, John Mais, Albert Ziesner, William Miller, Joseph Reif, Charles Snyder, John Zies ner, Charles Saar, August Helreiget William Maus, er., Antiony Quien William Ziesner, Peter A. Snyder, William Pheel, Andrew Klosz, George Brehlen and Andrew Miller.

YARRINGTON CHOKED TO DEATH.

Accident Occurred While He Was Enting a Lunch. Meorge N. Yarrington, of Throop, was choked to death Tuesday night in Sieger's hotel in that borough, while eat Chief gullet behind the larynx, or voice box, and before it could be coughed up or

A doctor was sent for, but Yarring Coroner Longstreet will investigate the Trans-Mississippi and International Exposition, Omaha, Nebraska.

Reduced rate tickets on sale June 10th o October 13th, via Lebigh Valley railroad, to Omaha or Kansas City, Inquire of ticket agents for particulars.

MEDICAL and SURGICAL INSTITUTE

Opposite Court House SCRANTON, PA.

For the treatment and speedy cure of all Acute and Chronic Diseases of men, vomen and children. Women and Children.
CHRONIC, NERVOUS, BRAIN AND WASTING DISEASES A SPECIALTY.
ALI, DISEASES PECULIAR TO MEN,
such as Nervoustess, Nightly Losses, Genorrhoea, Syphilis, Gleet, Lost Manhood, Shrunken and Shriveled Parts, Pain in Side and Back, Variococcle, Spermo-torrhoea, Loss of Memory, Stricture, etc. ALL THOSE DISEASES AND IRRECT ULARITIES PECULIAR TO FEMALES such as Lucorrhoea (whites). Prolapsus for falling of the womb). Dysmenorrhoea for painful menstruation), all Displace ments, Inflammation, Discharges, Pair in the Back, Hips, Sides, etc.

CANCERS, TUMORS, PILES AND
RUPTURE cured without knife, pain Epilepsy, Fits, Tape and Stomach

Worms CATARRHOZONE.

Anyone suffering with catarrit, bron-hitis, throat, head or lung troubles may seeive three months treatment for one Trial treatment free in office. It never fulls to cure. Use it at home. At the institute will be treated all discases of the Heart, Kidneys, Skin, Liver Stomach, Erain, Nerve, Blood, Bladder Ear. Eye. Nose, Threat and Lungs.
All specific and Genito-urinary diseases.
Chronic Eczema and all Skin and Blood diseases positively cured. Eruptions, Pimples and Blotches removed from the face of both male and female. Old sores and cripples of every description. Consultation and Examination Free. Surgery in all its branches, Dr. J. C physician and surgeon.

OFFICE HOURS: Daily, o a. m. to o p. a Sundays, to to 12 and 2 to 4

Strawberries.

Finest Home Grown for Canning. Red Raspberries, Black Raspberries. Blackberries. Cherries. Apricots and Peaches, Water Melons and Canteloupes.

Pierce's Market

Health and Pleasure

for the summer months can be had at

Spring House Heart Lake, Pa.,

ation, pure air, pure water, pure milk w boats and fishing tackle free to gests. Good bicycle roads, fine shady rounds, large piezzas, dancing hall. Fo

U. E. CROFUT, Proprietor

Summer Furnishings

Here Are a Few Special Values:

Ingrains.

Everything to be had worth the having, New designs. Unique color effects. Special values at 50c, 65c, 75c.

Straw Matting.

All this season's importations. The colest, most sanitary covering to be found. Here are sample values:

China Matting. $4.50 roll, 40 yards, value $6.00. $6,00 roll, 40 yards, value $8.00.

$8.00 roll 40 yards, value $10.00.

Highest quality hand-made same as Furkish goods. New line just opened, specially adapted for the cottage or the veranda. All the sizes, 9 x 12 at..... 10 0 x 7.6 at Some special hall rugs, 5x9, 5x12, 3x15.

Tokio Rugs.

Japanese Matting.

See our line at 15c. 20c. 25c, 35c and

LINOLEUMS OIL CLOTHS, WINDOW SHADES. Everything to be found in a first-class stock at right prices.

WILLIAMS McANULTY 127 Wyoming Avenue.

To Introduce Our $3.00 Shoes

Greatest Offer Ever Made Anywhere One Day Only

Friday June 24.

To the First 60 People Who Buy Our

$3.00 or $3.50 Shoes, either Women's or Men's, we will give ABSOLUTELY FREE, with each pair a beautiful framed picture, 15x20, mounted on fine quality glass. (See Show Windows.) These pictures are works of high art and are worth $2.00. The number is limited to 60 and are all very fine views. Nothing of this kind ever offered in this city with less than $20.00 worth of trade. Come early FRIDAY, 24th.

STANDARD SHOE STORE,

Handiest Store in the City. 217 Lacka. Ave.

፞፠፞ኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯኯዾ

THE GREAT

310 Lacka. Ave.

We are now ready for you to look over our assortment of

Fireworks

of all kinds.

Fire Crackers Sky Rockets Roman Candles, Caps, Torpedoes, Etc.

Get a Vote on Our Ben Hur Bicycle Contest.

THE GREAT

310 Lacka. Ave. JOHN H. LADWIG.

FOR BABY' COMFORT at the

Baby Bazaar. Try the Knit Night Drawers, Knit Drawers, for Ladies and Chil-

Dresses, long and short, Waists. Undervests. Sacques. Blankets, Hoslery and Shoes. In great variety and daintiest design.

512 Spruce Street.

Steam and

dren

Hot Water HEATING

Gas, Electric And Combination

FIXTURES Electric

Light . . . WIRING

The Standard

Charles B. Scott,

119 Franklin Ave.

Electric Clocks No Winding. No Springs. No Weights. No Repairs. No Trouble of Any Kind.

Suitable for Stores, Offices, Banks, Etc. ONE NOW RUNNING IN SCRAN

TON SAVINGS BANK SINCE DE-

CEMBER LAST: VARIES ONLY

At Small Cost.

Mercereau & Connell.

Sole Agents for this Territory.

ABOUT ONE SECOND A WEEK.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST STOCK OF CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY AND SILVERWARE IN NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

130 Wyoming Avenue.

PLEASANT At Retail.

Coal of the best quality for domestic use and of all sizes, including Buckwheat and Birdseye, delivered in any part of the city, at the lowest price.

Orders received at the office, first floor, Commonwealth building, room No. 6; telephone No. 2624 or at the mine, telephone No. 272 will be promptly attended to. Dealers supplied at the mine.

W. T. SMITIN.