Ebenezer and Tallison Lewis Burned in the West Ridge Mine.

WERE ON THEIR WAY TO THEIR CHAMBER WHEN THEY IGNITED A BODY OF GAS—JAMES HOPKINS ARRESTED AT THE INSTANCE OF T. H. C. MALONEY AND HELD IN BAIL—FUNERAL OF HENRY REESE WILL TAKE PLACE THIS AFTERNOON.

Ebenezer and Tallison Lewis, brothers, were badly burned in the West Ridge mine by an explosion of gas yesterday afternoon. At the time of the accident the men were on the way to their chamber, when they ignited a body of gas. Men employed in the mine were immediately apprised of the accident and conveyed the unfortunate men to the surface, from where they were removed to their home on Putnam street. The men are badly burned about the face, chest and arms. Dr. Dunmore, who attended the men, when seen last evening in reference to their condition and prospects of recovery, stated that the men are painfully burned, but he has bright hopes of their recovery. They are married and aged 35 and 40 years respectively.

ALDERMANIC CASES. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of James Hopkins at the instance of T. H. C. Maloney. When given a hearing before Alderman Roberts yesterday he was charged with selling liquor without a license. Bail was furnished in the sum of $500.

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

Funeral of James Keogh, Sr., from His Late Residence on Fig Street.

TWO WARRANTS OUT FOR MRS. C. N. BRUSH—ONE OF THEM CHARGES BIGAMY AND THE OTHER ASSAULT AND BATTERY—SPIKE ENTERED THE NECK OF A TWO-YEAR-OLD GIRL—OTHER ITEMS OF AN INTERESTING CHARACTER.

The funeral of James Keogh, sr., occurred from his late residence on Fig street yesterday morning. For hours before the sorrowful procession moved to St. John's church, the old home, neighbors, who came to take a farewell look on the face of their dear friend.

At 2:30 o'clock the cortege moved to the aforementioned church, where a solemn mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. J. A. Marlin. Rev. J. J. McLeary was deacon, and Rev. John Sweeney, sub-deacon. At the end of the mass Father Moffatt pronounced an eloquent eulogy, in which he paid a glowing tribute to the worthy life of the deceased. Around the casket were placed many floral pieces, one a large harp, sent by the management of the Sauguit silk mill, where for thirty years the deceased was a trusted employee. Interment was made in Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were Patrick Ruddy, sr., Patrick Mahon, Patrick Scott, Patrick Gallagher, Anthony McDonald and Michael Flood.

MRS. BRUSH WANTED. Alderman Ruddy, of the Twentieth ward, issued a warrant Tuesday for the arrest of Mrs. C. W. Brush, of the Nineteenth ward, on the charge of assault and battery, preferred by Miss Rose Lewis, who alleged that Mrs. Brush hit her with a club recently.

Among those subpoenaed to appear and testify against the defendant was her husband, Mrs. Brush could not be apprehended when Deputy Sheriff Ruddy went to serve the warrant. Yesterday Mr. Ruddy went before Magistrate Ruddy and gave information for the arrest of his wife, charging her with bigamy. He alleges that he has ascertained that his wife was married twice previous to their union and that neither of the previous contracts had been made void by law. The much-wanted Mrs. Brush is still in hiding.

ACCUSED HIS SON. Patrick Mangano, sr., of Minooka, charges his son Patrick with having brutally beaten him at the parental residence Monday evening. The old man with tears in his eyes, the humanity of his offspring to Alderman Ruddy and he accordingly issued a warrant for the ungrateful boy's arrest.

At the hearing last night Patrick, jr., explained that his conduct was caused by a quarrel with his father, and he made apologies, apparently prompted by remorse for his wrongdoing. The case, by consent of the father, was dismissed.

CHILD BADLY INJURED. The little two-year-old daughter of Mrs. David Conway, of Crown avenue, was the victim of a singular accident Tuesday. She was playing with an iron spike, when suddenly she fell, and when she came in contact with the ground, the spike, by the force, was forced into her throat. Her mother who saw the child fall, rushed to her aid and withdrew the iron spike.

Dr. Walsh was called and dressed the injury. She will recover.

NUBS OF NEWS. From his home on Meadow avenue, the funeral of Harry Burke, occurred yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the house by Rev. J. C. Schmitt, pastor of the Church of Peace.
