HERBERT STEVENS BEHIND THE BARS

A Former Montrose Boy Accused of Acts of Vandalism.

HE ADMITS THAT OUT OF REVENGE FOR DISMISSAL FROM LAFAYETTE COLLEGE HE HAD PLANNED TO BURN ALL OF THE BUILDINGS OF THE INSTITUTION-VERY BITTER AGAINST DR. WARFIELD.

Easton, Pa., June 23.-George Herbert Stevens, who until a little more than one year ago was adjunct pro-fessor of moral philosophy at Lafayette college, is under arrest at Easton on the technical charge of malicious mischief. Stevens was arrested last night at Duncannon, Pa., by Detective Doran. He was taken to Harris-burg and brought to this city this morning. The police charge Stevens with various acts of vandalism about the college including the cutting of the college including the cutting of hol shall be classed as spirits and parer and valuable vines, the tarring duty accordingly. That ruling wa organ, the throwing of hymn books into a well, etc. When this mischief was committed it was invariably charged-to the students, but there was no clue by which the police or college authorities could fasten the crime on the boys. Several young men were arrested, charged with turring the chapel but they were all discharged.

Last Saturday another attempt at vandalism was made in the college chapel and as a result Stevens is under arrest. That night the watchman strange man. A hot scuffle ensued and then cut his own throat, but soon re in the chapel was confronted by a the intruder got away. The watchman reported to the authorities that in the light he struck the intruder on the head. There is a bruise on Stovens' fershead. In the door of the chapel the key Stevens had during the time be was an instructor at Lafayette was found. In the chapel was found a basket containing a number of eggs that long ago had reached a stage which they could hatch only frou-Stevens' valise was found in a student's room in one of the halls on the campus. Stevens denies the charge made against him.

Just a year ago Stevens guined some notoriety by his attack on Dr. Warfield, president of the college Stevens refused to obey instructions from the president and was dismissed. He appealed to the trustees and that body at their commencement session sustained the action of the head of the college. Then Stevens came out with an attack on the president, but it was refused by the local papers. Stevens' home is at Montrose where he owns a farm. He is a Princeton graduate.

STEVENS CONFESSES.

Late this afternoon Stevens broke down and confessed to everything charged against him. He also revealed plans of the future work of destruction he had laid to burn all the college buildings except the gymnasium. Stevens' sole idea, he said, was to avenge Swartwood and Wood. himself against Dr. Warfield for the loss of his position. He had determined to do everything in his power to drive Warfield out of Lafayette and away from Easton. He said he intended to burn building after building with the hope that the president could not otherwise but resign or be forced out of his chair.

The professor declares he broaded so much over the loss of his position that his mind became unbalanced and little by little he yielded to the awful desire to destroy in order to gain revenge. After he left college he says he wer to his home but could find no rest. He carefully concocted plans to destro Pardec half, the pride of Lafayette Accordingly on the night of December 17 he came to Phillipsburg, N.J., (across the river from Easter) in disguise an went to a hotel. During the night he stole unnoticed up to College Hill and entered the Pardee hall with a key I had not turned over to the facult when he left the college. He went the department of biology, over which Professor Davison has charge, and against whom he had an imaginary grievance, and piled rugs, mats, car pers and every portable and inflammable article he could lay his hands on in a heap. Then he can a gas burner under the inflammable collection, turned on the gas and applied the match.

BITTER AGAINST WARFIELD. Stevens then went back to Phillips burg and at 6 o'clock in the morning took a train for New York city. He had ample time to get away from the burning building as the fire was not discovered for several hours after had been started. Stevens stood at the railroad station and calculy watched the awful work of destruction. various other times later or he returned to Easton and on each occasion committed acts of vanualism. His next intended step was to burn South College, the chapel building in one of its wings. The other buildings, except the gym-nasium, were to go too. Until finally the whole of the college and its buildings would be destroyed. very bitter ir his denunciations of Dr Warfeld and claims that he was confronted with statements from the professor of Lufayette every time he applied for a position since he was comeiled to leave Easton, declaring that by (Stevens) was dismissed for insubor limition. These letters, he says, incariably operated against him and he has not been able to secure a situation for a year past. Stevens was taken to jail this evening. Tomorrow District game. Attorney Fox will swear out another complaint charging him with arson. There is hardly a possibility of his being released on ball. His relatives are said to be wealthy.

New York, June 23.-The persistent drives by the bears against special stocks which had been a feature of the trading on the Stock exchange for some time was lacking today and in consequence the apparent change of front by these interests was reflected in substantial advances in Sugar, People's Gas. Tobacco, Brooklyn Transit and Manhattan. The buoyancy exhibited by these properties exerted a healthful tone upon the general rall-way list which was consequently augway list which was consequency aug-mented by the execution of fairly large buying orders in the Vanderbilt proper-ties, notably New York Central. The Grangers received more attention than for a long time and conspicuous advances were registered in Burlington and Rock Island. Some of the high priced investment shares responded in a notoworthy extent to a moderate inquiry, notably Pullman, which figured for a rise of 3 points. The market at intervals curing the day displayed stagnation but prices
