CONVICTION IN

Jury Returns Murder in the First De-

HISTORY OF ONE OF THE MOST COLD-BLOODED MURDERS ON RE-CORD - A DEFENSELESS WOMAN KILLED FOR INSURANCE MONEY. CONVICTED MURDERER ON THE WITNESS STAND.

Norristown, June 24.-James Clemmer, who has been on trial here for ten days charged with being an accomplice in the murder of Mrs. Emma Kaiser, was today convicted in the first degree. The trial was one of the most sensational in the history of this county, about 150 persons testifying in the case. Among the witnesses on the stand were Charles O. Kaiser, the husband of the murdered woman who is now under sentence of death for the crime, and Lizzie De Kalb, who is awaiting trial charged with being an accessory. The latter has figured in the case as the mysterious "woman in

The placing of a condemned murderer on the stand to testify against an accomplice in the same crime is said to be without a precedent in this state. Clemmer also took the stand and attempted to prove an alibi. The crime for which Clemmer and Kaiser were convicted was most cold blooded, and was committed for the purpose of collecting $1,000 insurance which had been placed on the life of Mrs. Kaiser with the intention of killing her and cheating the companies. On the afternoon of Oct. 28, 1896, Kniser took his wife out for a drive. They were followed by Clemmer and Miss De Kalb in another carriage. When the Kaisers had reached a dark and lonely spot on a road a short distance from Norristown they were overtaken by Clemmer.

COLD-BLOODED DEED. The latter, under the guise of a highwayman, stopped the carriage and demanded their money and valuables. While Mrs. Kaiser was removing her watch guard Clemmer shot her through the head, and as had been sonatana in D No. 2 Mozart tunate as to attend the meeting are previously arranged between the two men Clemmer shot Kaiser in the arm. Kaiser returned to Norristown and gave the alarm, saying he and his wife had been attacked by highway robbers. The true story came to light before the conspirators succeeded in collecting any of the insurance money. Clemmer and Miss De Kalb returned to Philadelphia, where they fived as man and wife, and shortly afterward disappeared. Kalser was arrested on suspicion and was tried and convicted. Clemmer and Miss De Kalb were subsequently captured in New Jersey after a long chase and brought here. Miss De Kalb will be tried on the charge of being an accessory after the crime. The maximum punishment for this is two years.

MUSICAL GOSSIP.

Many Scranton people are interested in the promising career of Miss Clara Louise Hardenburgh, of this city, and daughter of Hon. E. B. Hardenburgh, of Honesdale. At the recent grand concert given by the Randelph-Macon Woman's college, of Lynchburg, Va., Miss Hardenburgh had the post of bonor on the programme where her Wessis, Thomas and Beynon. brilliant plano playing attracted general admiration. Her work there, under the well known musician and writer, Charles W. Landon, is receiving the credit it deserves. The following was Miss Hardenbergh's graduating pro-

Side, composed of J. Gomer Evans, first tenor; Edward B. Davies, second tenor; John H. Tohmas, first bass, and Tallie M. Evans, second bass, rendered several selections at the Lutheran church at Park Place on Thursday evening. Several solos were also admirably executed by each member of the quartette, Miss Elizabeth Thomas, the favorite soprano, seems to abundantly deserve all the praise that has been lavished upon her. Last Sunday Miss Thomas sang two very beautiful soles at the Elm Park church and also made a favorable impression in the quartette singing. The "Better Land," in the morning, and "Forever With the Lord," in the evening, were rendered with much brilliancy, in a pure and rich soprano voice. Energy and intelligence, combined with firmness and tact, are some of the attributes of this talented lady. Miss Thomas also sang the 'Shepherd Cradle Song" for the ladies in the mission room, Monday afternoon. She is the wemanly specimen one occassionally finds in professional life and of whom it is a pleasure to speak.

A piano-forte recital will be given at the Penn Avenue Baptist church lecture room by Haydn Evans' senior pupils Monday evening, June 27, assisted by Messrs, Richard Thomas and Thomas Beynon, vocalists, The programme is as follows:

The concert given at Nay Aug park his afternoon by Bauer's band will be the first of a series of free concerts that have been arranged by the park commissioners for the summer, No doubt the attendance will be large, as the music will be up to the standard always furnished by Bauer. It is to be regretted that the park commissioners have not sufficient funds at present to enable them to erect a band stand for the accommodation of the musicians at the park. The programme of the concert appears elsewhere today.

Mr. Amos Whiting will be pleased o meet any who may wish to consult him in regard to their voices. Hotel Nash from 12 to 2 and from 4 to 8 p. m., daily, affords me pleasure to testify to the remarkable curative power of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I was severely afflicted with trouble in my langs—spitting up blood, and was so weak I was unable to continue my work. I tried several remedies which gave me no relief, and I had commenced to think there was no hope for me. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended to me so I tried it and began to improve at once, and was soon able to resume work. I consider it a wonderful meditime.
