Along the branch that Deacon drove tre several "pitching" chambers. The empty cars are pulled up into the face of the "place" by means of a pulley and chain to which a mule it hitched. This peration was underway in this instance when the chain broke and the ar struck young Deacon before he was able to get out of the way.

The mule was injured. Deacon was Murray, J. White. badly braised and cut and his neck was broken. The remains were renoved to the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Deacon, sr., of Price street.

BASE BALL THIS AFTERNOON.

Y. M. C. A. and Minooka Tenms Will

Contest at Athletic Park. The champion Young Men's Christian association base ball club and the Minooka team will play at Athletic park this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. The Minookas are undoubtedly the strongest opponents that can be selected to to battle wiht the association team, as they have defeated the Eurekas. who shut out the Y. M. C. A. club recently. O'Neill, who is on the pitching staff of the Y. M. C. A. club, will twirl today for Minooka, and that in itself is sufficient to insure a good game, as he is undoubtedly the best amateur pitcher in the county.

The battery for Minooka will be Flannery and O'Neill, and Philbin, Shea, Laffy, Diskin, Powell, Kelly and others will be in the game

The make-up of the association team will be as follows: Logar, catcher; McDonald, Steele or Matthewson,pitch-Owens or Gaughan, first base; White or Brooks, second base; Cleary, shortstop: Blandin, third base: Reese center field; Steele or Brooks, left field; Gaughan or McDonald, right field. McGuinness will umpire.

CLOSE OF ST. JOHN'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

Interesting Exercises in the Church Hall on Fig Street.

MEDALS WERE CONFERRED ON THE GRADUATES BY BISHOP HO-BAN-A FEATURE OF THE EXER-CISES WAS THE TWO-ACT PATRI-OTIC DRAMA, "THE ANSWER OF THE UNITED STATES" - BISHOP HORAN MADE A SHORT ADDRESS TO THE GRADUATES.

The commencement exercises incl dent to the graduating of the class which has just finished its course at St. John's Parochial school, were held yesterday afternoon commencing at 30 o'clock in the basement hall of St. John's church, on Fig street, South Scranton. The interior of the hall was profusely iderned with bunting artistically arranged, and the background of the stage was covered with three beautiful American flags. The emblem of Cuba was also given a prominent posi-

On the left side of the hall near the stage was hung a pertrait of Our Lord, and directly across was the likeness of the father of our country, General Rt. Rev. M. J. Hoban occupied the seat of honor, and seated at his left was Rev. E. J. Melley, pastor of St. John's congregation. The other clernott, of Jermyn; Rev. W. P. O'Donnell and Rev. John Loughran, pastor and curate, respectively, of Holy Cross congregation; Rev. M. B. Donlon, of Dunmore: Rev. Father Candleian, president of St. Thomas college; Rev. T. J. Dunn, of Green Ridge; Rev. D. J. McCarthy, of Sugar Notch; Father Jordon, of Rendham, Father Loftus, of the Trio. Cathedral and Father Moffitt, assistant pastor at St. John's.

The opening number was a song of greeting to Bishop Hoban, the clergy, parents and visitors. It was sweetly given by all the children attending the school; then follewed the entrance march, the accompanists were Misses M. Heffron, A. Lavelle, B. Brown, S. Ruddy, K. Gallagher, R. Donnelly, M. Manning, G.

HONORS FOR GRADUATES. At the close of the march the graduating class, comprised of Misses Mary Frances McGovern, Mary Josephine McCormack, Teresa Mercedes Jordon, Catherine Angela Dowling, Mary Philemena Durkin, and Ama Alphonsiue McAloon, came forward and the honors of graduation were conferred by Bishop Hoban. The medals attached to heliothrope ribbon, were placed around the graduates necks, while they were in a kneeling position.

The next pleasing feature was the appearance of thirty little girls attired as Japanese maids, who sang in a manas Japanese maids, who sang in a man-ner that prominently brought forth the Recitation, "Last P-aim," excellent training given them by the good sisters of the school. The accompanists were Misses L. Coyne and M. McNiff. "Merry youngsters," a band of gallant lads, followed the maidens and rendered a pretty chorus. Miss M. Connors and Maser J. Walsh accompanied the "Youngsters." The following young ladies of the music school executed an overture in longed applause: Misses A. Lavelle,

The first number of the second part of the exercises was of a decidedly patriotic nature and was a very agreeable and inspiring production. It was of the United States." Miss McGovern represented "Columbus," and she was bedecked wiht the Stars and Stripes. Master J. Walsh was the representative of Cuba: Master Richard Dougherty, commander-in-chief of the United States army; the junior boys formed the brigade of Columbian cadets; the boys was made, but the bag which senior boys, forty-five in number, enclosed the money in the Free Press carrying American flags, represented the states of the union.
