LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Results That Were Obtained by Adoption of Savings Bank Idea.

AMOUNT ON DEPOSIT FROM THE PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDINGS WHERE THE IDEA WAS IN VOGUE ARE VERY CREDITABLE—WALTER J. HOUSE INJURED IN THE DODGE MINE—MARGARET HUNDON INJURED BY BEING RUN DOWN BY A BICYCLE.

The total deposits for each of the public schools which were using the "savings fund" idea have been compiled by the West Side bank, at which the deposits were made. For No. 19, from Dec. 13, '97, to June 13, '98, $14,911; for No. 13, from Jan. 25, '98, to June 13, '98, $37,822; for No. 32, Jan. 7, '98, to June 6, '98, $16,150. Each of the above totals furnish an irrefutable fact that great results can be obtained from small but continued efforts. A short sketch of the "savings fund" idea and its introduction into the public schools might not be amiss at this point.

Last fall, after some experiment and a thorough investigation concerning the matter, Miss Josie D. Lees, principal of public school No. 19, submitted a request to the board of control asking that permission be given her to introduce the small "savings fund" idea at her school. City Superintendent Howell heartily endorsed the idea and the request was readily acceded to by the board. Miss Lees then perfected her preparations, and on Monday, Dec. 7, 1897, the first deposit, made collectively for all rooms, was made at the West Side bank.

There were many who were skeptical others who openly spoke against it, but there were also others who believed in the principle involved, and gave their sympathy and encouragement to Miss Lees. She went out bravely for all rooms, and collected forward. Every Monday an collection was taken and a deposit made. Each one grew larger than the one before as the idea became more and more clear. The parents of the pupils first considered and then seconded the efforts of the principal.

The child was taught thrift, economy, industry, attention, and, above all, the spirit of working towards an end which offered independence and gave self-reliance. The teachers under Miss Lees quickly caught her ardor and enthusiasm and began to vie with one another towards accomplishing the best results. The general beneficial effect was soon felt throughout the school.

Complete vindication came when other school principals sought information concerning the "savings fund" idea, and later introduced it at their schools. The weekly articles in The Tribune fully proved that the idea was feasible, and moreover had come to stay.

David Owens, principal at school No. 12, saw the many advantages, and after a careful canvass among his teachers and pupils, finding as he did a sympathy for the idea, he decided to introduce it at his school. So successful was it, that the total deposits were almost equal to those of No. 19, though starting nearly two months later. Mr. Owens made the first deposit Jan. 17, 1898.

The week before H. L. Morgan, principal of school No. 22, had made a deposit from that school, which only represented a few rooms and was not a general result of the introduction. The idea gradually spread and his deposits grew.

No other schools on this side have thus far taken up the idea, but they may at the opening of the next term in September. Several schools in other sections of the city have been using the fund idea, and its feasibility is thus assured. Many of the children have signified their intention of saving during their vacation. This fact shows how strong a hold the principle has taken.

Spice will not permit of the printing of the totals for each room or the list of depositors in the several rooms, the number running into the hundreds. It would, however, be a grand roll of honor of those who are convinced by trying that "a penny earned, is a penny saved."

MINE ACCIDENT.

Walter J. House, a "runner" at the Dodge mines, narrowly escaped instant death or being crippled for life while at work yesterday. As it is he will be confined to his home for several days. He has a long, jagged wound on the right temple and he was severely squeezed on the arm and leg.

He, with his driver, was bringing a loaded trip out just before noon. There was one door which he had to go ahead and open. This he did, and after doing it, tried to board the trip. His coat caught in a broken part of the door and he was jerked against the rib. The space was narrow and his injuries resulted.

He walked out to the shaft and was assisted by his home on South Main avenue, where Dr. H. C. Comery's attended him.

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

Strongman Keiper Gave an Exhibition in Germania Hall Last Night.

LATER ON IN ALDERMAN LENTES' OFFICE HE GAVE ANOTHER EXHIBITION THAT WAS QUITE DISTINGUISHED—OBJECTED TO HAVING ANNOUNCEMENT MADE OF THE FACT THAT HE IS GOING TO BE MARRIED TUESDAY—OFFICERS OF P. O. S. OF A. DRUM CORPS.

If Henry Keiper makes good his boast this item will result in a murder being committed and Henry will be the man who will do the gore-spilling. It's dollars to doughnuts that Henry will change his mind.

Last night Keiper compelled one John Gordon (who is himself) to retreat, and somewhat ingloriously, too, if the truth must be told, for Henry is a big burly boy with more strength than is good for him.

We don't want to brag, but if Henry starts out again to look for trouble, it may be his turn to retreat.

Keiper is to be married on Tuesday to Miss Rauter, of Irving avenue, and this fact was printed in last Monday's Tribune. It was claimed by a person who unquestionably had knowledge of the facts and the right to speak about them. Keiper does not question the truth of the item, but he thought it was not strictly a matter of news and consequently it was his privilege, if not his duty, to smite the man who wrote it, and smite him with and with right good will at that, if again the truth must be told.

Last night Keiper interrogated Gordon (who is himself) in Germania hall and, as there was no violation of confidence whatever, was told the source from which the item came. Keiper then loosened his flood-gates of abuse, directing the torrent of invective against the person who furnished the information, with occasional dashes at the writer of the paragraph.

The remarks recounted verbally and Keiper, losing his temper, twice knocked Gordon to the floor. When arraigned before Alderman Lentes Keiper was so foul-mouthed that he had to be sharply reprimanded by the alderman. He was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court.
