

EVENTS OF DAY IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

Special Meeting of School Board Transacted Important Business.

NUMBER OF JANITORS FOR THE BOROUGH SCHOOLS WERE CHOSEN. APPLICANTS FOR THE VARIOUS POSITIONS—PROFESSOR DOVARD GRANTED A WEEK'S LEAVE OF ABSENCE—FUNERAL OF MILTON DECKER—INTERMENT MADE IN DUNMORE CEMETERY.

A special meeting of the school board was held in the central building last night, all the members being present. The object of the meeting was to appoint the janitors of the school buildings for the coming year. At 9:00 o'clock, when the meeting opened, fully a dozen of the applicants were present.

Mr. Webber made a motion that the teacher employed at No. 7 school also act as janitor. This motion was also carried. Nos. 5 and 6 schools were passed until applications are received. The applicants for the other schools were: John Payton, Stephen Richards, Sidney Matthews, C. P. Russell, William F. Mott, H. Mott, Mrs. Lofz, Carl Minich, Thomas Steward, John J. Barrett, Mr. McNulty, Adam Weinard, Mrs. Keller, Hal Thornton and Wright Beardsley. For janitor of No. 4 building Miss C. P. Russell, Adam Weinard and Stephen Richards were nominated. Richards was declared elected. For janitor No. 3 building, W. H. Mott and Carl Minich were nominated. Mott was declared elected by a majority of two. After considerable discussion the salary of janitor of No. 4 building was raised from $12 to $17 per month.

For janitor of No. 1 building Mr. John Payton, the present incumbent, was unanimously appointed. Mr. Payton received a vote of thanks from the board and was commended for the manner in which he had executed his duties. His salary will be the same as it was last year. The school law for 1897 calls for a trustee officer whose duty will be to hunt up tenants from school. Hal Thornton was appointed at a salary of $2 per day for each school day in the year.

Mr. Kellam suggested that a contract be drawn with each janitor specifying what his duties should be. Mr. Spencer made a motion to that effect which was carried. It was also decided that the time of employment should be from July 1, 1898 to June 30, 1899 inclusive. The meeting then adjourned for a five minutes recess.

After the recess a regular business meeting was called. Supt. Board reported a week's absence from duty to attend the teachers' conference at Washington, D. C. His request was granted. The board then adjourned.

FUNERAL OF MILTON DECKER. The funeral of the late Milton Decker occurred from St. Mary's church yesterday afternoon. Rev. M. B. Donlan officiated. The pallbearers were: Patrick Boland, John Flannely, Patrick Preston, Eugene Flannely, Anthony McHale and Patrick Flannely. Interment was made in the Dunmore cemetery.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Four-Year-Old Son of John Zintle Poisoned by Eating Tar.

HORSE FRIGHTENED BY THE STONE CRUSHER RAN AWAY. DRIVER HAD A NARROW ESCAPE FROM INJURY—PIECE OF A NEEDLE REMOVED FROM A CHILD'S FOOT—FUNERAL OF H. F. KOCH, LATE OF 322 NORTH HYDE PARK AVENUE.

The 4-year-old son of John Zintle, of 210 North Bromley avenue, ate some tar Wednesday and had a narrow escape from death in consequence. In relaying its track on Washburn street, the Scranton Railway company uses a quantity of tar which seems to have quite a fascination for the children of the neighborhood who, strange to say, have found it palatable.

"Some of the older children would roll the tar up in the form of pills and give it to the younger ones, telling them it was candy. In this way quite a quantity of tar found its way into the stomachs of children of that vicinity, one of whom was the Zintle boy. He became so ill that his parents called in Dr. Longstreet who quickly discovered the cause of the trouble. Acid contained in the tar is poisonous and almost had a fatal effect in this instance.

The Zintle child is now out of danger, but several others are said to be in a precarious condition.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN FATAL.

Another accident happened yesterday afternoon as a direct result of the operation of the big crushers used by the Scranton Street Railway in making its roadway repairs. The scene of the accident was at the corner of South Main avenue and Washburn street, where a heavy switch is being placed for the connection of the Washburn street line.

Philip McAloon, delivery clerk for Heiser & Warnke, grocers, was driving down Main avenue. The maneuvering of the big crusher started the unusually docile animal. He reared, and breaking loose from the then overturned spring wagon, dashed up Main avenue and was caught near the corner of Jackson street. McAloon was hurled to the pavement by the suddenness of the horse's action and was severely bruised about the left shoulder and side. His face and hands were covered with blood.

He, however, jumped to his feet and started after his horse. The wagon and harness were somewhat damaged.

CHILD'S PAINFUL INJURY.

Mary, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daniels, of Jackson street, was compelled to undergo a delicate operation yesterday afternoon for the removal of a large piece of a needle from her right foot. Dr. G. B. Reynolds performed the operation and succeeded in getting the foreign substance out. The child was remarkably brave for one of her tender years.

She had been playing about the house in the morning and had removed her shoes. The needle, lying on the floor penetrated the foot near the instep and broke off. The presence of the piece of steel caused the little one intense pain and an operation was necessary to relieve her. She is resting well now.

HAD A LOADED CLUB.

Not many arrests are being made during the warm, wedding days of June by the members of the West Scranton detail. However, when one is made, there is nearly always a "feature." Early yesterday morning a gang of hoodlums were busy on disturbing the whole community in the vicinity of Sherman avenue and Jackson street.

Patrolman Klah Peters, who had been noting their movements for some time, cautioned them. They said things. Among them was one fellow, young, big and foolish, who was also emphatic. He got arrested, not without a tussle during which he drew a club similar in shape to a policeman's club and endeavored to "resist."

In police court yesterday morning he paid a fine of $5 out of a roll of $20 and left his club, which was heavily loaded, as a memento. His name is John Johnson, and he resides on Sherman avenue.

STRAYED FROM HOME.

Joseph Smitcavitch, the seven-year-old son of John Smitcavitch, of Third street, was lost yesterday all day and his parents knew nothing of it until he was returned to them by the West Side police detail at 10 o'clock last evening.

The lad was picked up by Patrolman Evans, on North Main avenue, about 9 o'clock. He said his brother brought him up there to see a parade and then ran away from him. He lived near Majernik's hotel, he said, and he also recognized Patrolman Peters as the man who put two men out of his father's hotel "last year." He really did not care whether he went home or not, and would like to be a parade man or a policeman.

MRS. DAVIES INJURED.

Mrs. Henry H. Davies, of 13 Storrs avenue, narrowly escaped serious injuries yesterday afternoon while picking cherries in her yard. In order to reach the fruit, without climbing up the tree, she placed a high step-ladder beneath the limbs.

Having secured what fruit she wanted, she began to descend. The ladder twisted and fell and she, in falling, struck her left side and hip upon the ladder. The left limb is badly wrenched and she is also suffering from internal contusions and the resultant shock.

FUNERALS OF YESTERDAY.

The funeral of the late Henry F. Koch was held yesterday afternoon from the residence, 522 North Hyde Park avenue. Services were held at the residence and many friends and relatives were in attendance. Large representations were also present from the Hari-Gari and another German society of which the deceased was a member.

Rev. Jacob Schoettle, pastor of the Chestnut Street German Presbyterian church, officiated and preached the funeral sermon. At the conclusion of the services the remains were viewed and then, attended by a large cortege, were borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made. The beautiful floral tributes were borne by William Pfeiffer and Conrad Rieber. The pallbearers were: W. Enoch, John Von Weisenfuh and George
