COLONEL GUFFY VOUCHSAFES REPLY

He Makes Answer to Judge Gordon's Charge of Perfidy.

SAYS WHEN HE AGREED TO SUP-PORT GORDON HE SUPPOSED GOR-DON WAS A DEMOCRAT-WHEN HE FOUND OUT HE WAS A MUGWUMP HE TOLD GORDON HE COULDN'T SUPPORT HIM-GORDON'S SMALL

Pittsburg, July 1.-Democratic National Committeeman Colonel J. M. Guffey, in reply to accusations made by Judge James Gay Gordon anent the Altoona convention, makes the following statement:

I have read this morning the statement of Judge James Gay Gordon, con-cerning the report of the Altoona convention. When a statement over Judge Gordon's signature imputes bad faith and the violation of personal pledges, it cannot be ignored.

"Judge Gordon knows when I withdrew my support from him, and also why I withdrew it. When I favorably and earnestly considered his candidacy I supposed him to be a Democrat When the question of his Democracy was raised, I made every possible effort, through his friends and representatives, and the chairman of the state central committee, to secure an expression from him as to his position in 1896. This effort failed, the reason for withholding such a statement baing offered, that Judge Gordon's publican allies had made a request of him, and he had given a promise not to do so. This was the question raised at the much-advertised New York meeting, on June 8, where it was claimed we had agreed on Gordon,

ONE THING NEEDFUL. "On the 13th of June, I advised his principal Democratic manager that no man could be supported for the head of the ticket at the Altoona convention who had not stood by the party in 1896; that this was the one imperative qualification for Gordon or any other man to secure the support of the Pennsylvania Democracy,
"On June 15, I consulted with the Democratic leaders of ten western countles, and on the following day, over long-distance telephone. I advised Judge Gordon himself of the determination that he could not be supported for the nomination because by his own action he had disqualified himself as a regular Democratic candidate. One week later, at the request of Gordon's leading Democratic friend. I met his principal Republican supporter and explained to him why Gordon could not be regarded as an eligible Democratic candidate.

"These facts sufficiently reply to the assertion that 'secret and malign influences changed the situation' on the eve of the convention in a single night. When Judge Gordon forced his candidacy on the convention, and was overwhelmingly defeated, neither corporate power nor the influence of Republican bosses had any part in it. It was due to the overwhelming sentiment of a representative Democratic convention where Democracy was the supreme requirement, and where no man who stabs his party in the back, either in national or municipal contests, had

GORDON'S LITTLE TRICK.

James Gay Gordon took advantage of disagreement of the committee on resolutions to force into the convention, simply and solely that its action might be embarrassed, an unqualified endorsement of issues that are recognized by all members of the party who have its real welfare at heart, to have no place on this campaign.

There is no backward step on national issues in the platform or candidates. The struggle this year is on state issues alone. It is a battle for honest government for a great and patient people, who have been remorselessly cheated, deceived and mis-

Wall Street Review.

New York, July 1.-The course of today's stock market was one of aimless drifting until near the close when some appearance of animation and strength developed throughout the list. This was doubtless in large part due to the cov-ering demand by belated shorts who did not care to have their contracts open over the three days' holiday. The buying at the close lifted prices to the top level and made the net gains extending to over a point in exceptional cases. During the coast of Morro as a base of supthe earlier part of the day the market was almost entirely stagnant, many active stocks showing not a single quotation. It looked very much as though even the closing up of contracts incident to the eve of a three days' suspension of trading had all been completed yesterday and there was no disposition to venture upon fresh committments on account of the conflicting possibilities in the outlock. nexation resolution passed by the On the part of the bears there was lots house of representatives, character-Santiago, or the occupation of Manila.
