HOW TO CELEBRATE JULY 4.

The question that is now agitating the minds of the patrictic people is where can I spend an enjoyable Fourth? The answer that is most appropriate to this is Laurel Hill park. The Holy Cross congregation have engaged the park for the Fourth and are making preparations to give a most enjoyable time to all who attend.

The committees in charge have been working vigorously and their tedious work will be appreciated on that day. The Fourth generally furnishes us a very hot day, and no doubt the heat will be a great factor in increasing the crowds at the park. It is estimated to be one of the places almost within the city limits where the sweltering sun can be defied

The grounds have recently been improved with many flower beds, and beautiful roses throughout the heavily shaded park, and with the street car facilities any one is enabled to return home without fear of being crushed or The committee in charge have engaged the Lawrence full or chestra for the day to furnish dance music, and this alone is an inducement to the lovers of the dance

BANK DECLARED A DIVIDEND.

Action of Board of Directors of the Merchants and Mechanics. The board of directors of the Merchants' and Mechanics' bank held a meeting yesterday and declared a semidividend of 3 per cent. and increased the surplus from $100,000 to $125,000. The last six months' business showed a most gratifying increase. The finance committee of the board of control made arrangements with the bank yesterday to berrow $19,000 to pay the salaries of teachers, officers and janitors employed by the district. The board began to pay these yesterday for June services.

MAJOR CAMERON IS HERE.

His Visit Is Purely of a Social Nature.

The presence in the city yesterday of Major Simon B. Cameron, of the Third brigade of the Pennsylvania National Guard, gave rise to the report that he was here to conduct the mustering in of the proposed reorganized Thirteenth regiment. His visit was a purely social one as the guest of Major W. S. Millar, Third brigade inspector Major Cameron will be here Tuesday, as has been announced, to do the mustering. He will then be accompanied by Dr. George Halberstadt, major and surgeon of General Gobin's old staff.

Major Cameron came here from Wilkes-Barre and had lunch with Major Millar at the Hotel Jermyn. He was in the city for only a few hours. From his visit it developed that Major Millar, Major Cameron, Major Halberstadt and the other members of Gen-eral Gobin's old staff would continue to serve as brigade staff officers at least until General Gobin's successor is appointed. Most of them, if not all, will likely be re-appointed.

Major Millar, however, will resign as origade inspector. He may accept the captaincy of Company B, which would give him better assurance of being acepted as a commissioned officer in the event of a third call. The reorganized Thirteenth will onsist of eight companies, four from Scranton and one each from Honesdale, Easton, Allentown and Strouds-

PAUL BOYNTON AT LAKE ARIEL.

The Great Aquatic Exhibition to Be Given There Monday Next, July 4.

The greatest aquatic exhibition ever seen in this section will be given at Lake Ariel on July 4 by the celebrated Paul Boynton World's Water Show company. The programme is a varied one and embraces a game of base ball on the lake, a monkey boat race, deep sea diving by ladies, diving from a pole 100 feet high. The Walrus hunt, naval battle between torpedo boat and man of war. A great display of aquatic fireworks and ocean display signals. Besides this great attraction there will be music and dancing, games of all kinds and an abundance of refreshments. The base ball grounds have been improved and a game has been arranged between the best amateur clubs. Trains will leave the Erie and Wyoming depot every hour. The best accommoda tions have been made for the comfort of all who spend the day at this popular and beautiful resort.

A fact that should not be lost sight of is that no charge is made to see this most wonderful exhibition. Your ticket to the lake entitles you to enjoy the many advantages on that day.

The Nagle Bammerlin Balloon company, of Mansfield, O., has in its employ some of the most daring aeronauts in the world, and it is gratifying to note that, notwithstanding the enormous expense attached thereto, the Caledonians of this city have secured, through their agency, one of the most thrilling attractions for their games at the Driving park July 4th ever witnessed in this section. It consists of a man ascending to a dizzy height in a balloon, and then being shot into space from a cannon, descending to terra-firma by the aid of a parachute. This, in connection with a splendid programme of athletic events, combine to insure a day of rare sport, which will certainly be enjoyed by thousands of people. Are you to be one of the number?

THE PUBLIC RESPOND.

The Opening of the Martin Shoe Sale Draws a Crowd.

It may seem hard to awaken shoe buying enthusiasm in hot weather, but citizens always are quick to take advantage of legitimate reductions in rice on standard footwear. The opening of the sale of the Martin stock of Rochester shoes yesterday morning fully proved that when an opportunity such as this big purchase of ours made possible is offered, the response will be quick and decided. Such bargains and such selling always go together. Half prices on seasonable shoes are not the rule of every-day selling, and the public knows when to grasp the chance to own them at the values.

REVENUE STAMPS IN GREAT DEMAND

Not Enough in Scranton to Meet the Call for Them.

ALL THE SMALLER DENOMINA-TIONS OF BOTH PROPRIETARY DOCUMENTARY STAMPS HAVE BEEN SOLD - SOME PER-WILL USE STAMPS OF GREATER DENOMINATION THAN THE WAR ACT DEMANDS, BUT A FEW WILL TAKE CHANCES.

So great was the rush for war revenue stamps at Collector Penman's office early this week that yesterday, when most of the provisions of the new act went into effect, few documentary or proprietary stamps could be ob

No documentary stamps of small denominations survived the rush of the early week and all the proprietary stamps of most useful denominations were sold during the same period. Of the proprietary stamps all the 1/4 and 4-cent denominations were sold, leaving on hand only a few 1/4, 1, 2 and 4cent. Nearly all of these were disposed of when the office closed last

The railroad, express and telegraph companies snapped up all the 1-cent documentary stamps several days ago: in fact, almost as fast as they were issued by the government. In the Scranton revenue office only 1-dollar, 5-dollar, 10-dollar, etc., documentary stamps remain for sale.

. CAME IN SWARMS.

Druggists and others who were slow in providing themselves with the % and %-cent proprietary stamps in advance were in the revenue office yesterday in swarms trying to figure how cheaply they could make up for their tardiness in purchases that must be made. Many of them bought %, 1 and 2-cent stamps with the purpose of using them and pasting from 14 to 16cent more than the law demands or each sale rather than violate the lav or close up shop.

How soon this lack of stamps will be relieved, Collector Penman does not know. Several days ago he kept the wires hot telling the treasury department he already had orders for ten times more stamps than had been sent him. He finally received telegraphic word that a full supply would reach him Thursday. The supply has falled to materialize, however. Scores of per sons who apply personally or by letter asking what they shall do if the gov ernment doesn't furnish stamps with which they may comply with the law can be given no definite answer excepting one-that postage stamps cannot be used as a substitute. Most of these inquirers openly said they would sell goods just the same and take chances on the government's unwillingness to prosecute them. This condition of affairs, it is believed, cannot last longer than a few days at most In reference to postage stamps They are not "postage" stamps if bearing the "I. R." imprint, meaning "internal revenue." That makes them revenue stamps. AT REVENUE OFFICE ONLY. They are issued only at the revenu office and are simply a makeshift until such time as the treasury engraving and printing bureau can catch up with orders. The postoffice department has relieved the engraving and printing paper periodical stamps of from $1 upwards for use as documentary stamps

According to the understanding of the question among subordinate revenue officials railroad, express and telegraph offices are supposed to keep documentary stamps on hand for use by patrons. Who shall pay the reve nue is a matter to be settled between the companies and the patron. In other words, it is not required of a person to provide himself with the necessary stamp or stamps before entering a railroad, express or telegraph office to do business. The consignor has ground for demanding that the stamp shall be furnished by the company Who shall pay for it, however, is another question. Thus far the patron has been bearing the expense.

The government has arranged bank-check stamp system which will greatly facilitate the business of banks and their patrons by furnishing a bank note check bearing an engraved internal revenue documentary stamp. These checks are to be printed in designated government printing establishments in ten cities, Atlanta, Boston, Galveston, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Chicago, St. Louis, New York, San Francisco and Tacoma. A government bank check agent has been established in each of those cities from whom internal revenue collectors can order bound bank-check books for banks or indi-

BANKS WILL ORDER THEM. Banks will take advantage of this facility and order the books, giving them to depositors as at present but charging 2 cents for each check in the book. This will largely obviate the an noyance of affixing gummed stamps. Lawyers who had not taken advantage of the early sale of proprietary stamps and secured supplies of th smaller denominations were yesterday put to the expense of using stamps of larger denominations than is required by the war act. This was illustrated in the visit of an attorney to the revenue office. He had with him two mort gages which were to be recorded and on each of which a 75-cent stamp was required. All stamps of that and lesser denominations had been sold and he was required to put a 1-dollar stamp on each document.

Hawks' friends combatted the removal with such vigor in councils that its imsuch vigor in councils that its immediate effect was not insisted upon. According to Hawks, there followed a conference in which he, his father. Finn and the mayor participated, the result being an agreement that if Hawks presented his resignation, to take effect July 1, his retirement would not be insisted upon. He was given to understand, he says, that the resignot be insisted upon. He was given nation would be pigeon-holed and not 1896, the duties of the office without, a brought to light.

With this understanding Hawks continued his regular patrol turns and yesterday at noon resumed what had been his recent day beat on Penn avenue. At 2 o'clock Mayor Bailey directed Mounted Officer Dyer to remind Hawks that he was no longer a police patrolman and to relinquish his beat and deliver his equipments at police headquarters. Hawks complied with the request. Later he made no con-cealment of his purpose to make fur said office of poor director in said dis fly in high places for what he alleges esign.

He will be the man if his honor does not exercise his prerogative of changing his mind.

WANT TO OUST THE ACTING POOR BOARD

Quo Warranto Proceedings Begun by the Men Elected Last February.

PETITION IN THE CASE WAS PRE-SENTED TO JUDGE GUNSTER YES-TERDAY BY ATTORNEY L. H. BURNS-BY VIRTUE OF HIS OFFICE NAMED AS THE PETITIONER. FACTS SET FORTH IN THE PA-PERS-JUDGE TOOK NO ACTION.

Quo warranto proceedings were begun yesterday in court to oust the present poor board of the Scranton district and seat the seven men who ran on the Democratic city ticket last February and were elected. The petition was presented to Judge Gunster by Attorney I. H. Burns. Judge Gunster did not issue any order in the case for the reason that he wants to have the matter passed upon by the entire bench.

Attorney John J. Murphy is the one in whose name the petition is brought. Mr. Murphy was one of the candidates. The others were Frank Mc Donald, of Dunmore; M. F. Wymbs, of Hyde Park; D. J. Campbell and Morris F. Schwartzkopf, of the central city; John McNamara and J. K. Smith, of Providence.

Mr. Murphy ran in the district represented by F. L. Terppe; Mr. McDonald in the one represented by P. J. Murphy; Mr. Wymbs in the one repre sented by Dr. W. A. Paine; Mr. Schwartzkopf in the one represented by Reese G. Brooks; Mr. McNamara in the one represented by W. S. Langstaff, and Mr. Smith in the one rep resented by Thomas Shotten.

M'NAMARA CHOSEN.

Mr. McNamara defeated J. K. Berge who was the regular nominee on the Democratic ticket. He has since gone to the Klondike. The Republicans did not put up any caudidates. District Attorney John R. Jones is represented as the petitioner, because he is, ac cording to Act of Assembly, a deputy attorney general. In all cases affect ing the question of the constitutionality of laws action is taken in the name of the attorney general. The petition filed yesterday was as follows:

John R. Jones, district attorney for the county of Lackawanna, who sues in this behalf for the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, comes here into court and gives the court to understand and be formed that on March 23, 1896, F. That the said John J. Murphy did on March 18, 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m., attend the regular meeting of the poor board of the Scranton poor district held at Muni cipal building in the city of Scranton and offer his certificate of election to said board and did demand that he be sworn in and seated as a member of said board for the Eleventh, Twelfth, Nineteenth and Twentieth wards; that the said board at said meeting, through its president, W. S. Langstaff, did refuse to swear in and did refuse to seat the said John J. Murphy as a member of said board for said district.

That the said F. L. Terppe uses and enjoys the rights, privileges and fran-chises of said office of poor director and usurps upon the commonwealth therein to the great damage and prejudice of the said commonwealth and of the con stitution and laws thereof, and to the
