CONDUCTORS' EXCURSION.

They Have Decided to Go to Cooperstown, N. Y., Again.

The conductors' order, division 15d, of this city, has decided to run its an-nual excursion to Cooperstown, N. Y., again this season. Saturday, August 27 is the date and they are arranging for another immense crowd. Their exursion of last year and year before ttest the popularity of the resort. Ot-ego lake is one of the chief attracions. There are four steamers on it nd numberless row boats. For those the may desire to stop over special otel rates will be obtained.

Among other interesting events of he day will be a base ball game between the Cooperstown club and probably the Wilkes-Barre club, though the latter has not been positively decided upon.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Corporal Jadwin and Clerk Al-He Vandermark, of Company E, spent the Fourth with their parents in this city.

Delaware and Hudson dispatcher H. B. Briggs left vesterday for Asbury Park where he will spend his annual vacation. Most of the distance will be covered by wheel, the route being via the Delaware Water Gap.

E. D. Lathrop has returned from Binghamton, where he spent several days visiting relatives. Haydn Evans spent yesterday in this city. Dr. and Mrs. Mark Bailey have returned from their wedding tour. Robert McMillan, of Rochester, N. Y., spent the Fourth with his parents

One of the Palace Creamery teams In charge of Charles Scharlock was left standing on Church street yesterday morning. It became frightened at fire works and ran away. On Brewery kirk, Edith Watkins, Susie Harris and Hill the horses ran off a culvert and smashed one wheel and the whiffletree. The animals came out unin-
