BURNED TO THE GROUND.

Residence of Lyman Rhell, on Rock Street, Destroyed.

Early yesterday morning the residence of Lyman Rhell, on Rock street, was burned to the ground. The family had been away and in the evening Mr. Rhell came home, lighted a lamp and called on a neighbor. During his absence the house was ignited and shortly after midnight it had been completely reduced to embers. Owing to the lack of an electric fire alarm system the blaze gained great headway before the hose companies reached the scene and it was with great difficulty that much valuable property surrounding the Rhell home was saved. The fires of the past fortnight have done more to emphasize the need of a fire alarm system than the occurrence of a year previous, still not a word has been said by councilors about providing one. Ordinary fire alarm agitation has lost its potency and some herculean method must be adopted to win us the safeguard. How would it work for the constituents of each councilman to petition him and hold him personally responsible, accepting no excuse and brooking no delay in the exercise of his best endeavors for a fire alarm?

SAYS HE WAS DRUGGED.

But Tom's Allegations Do Not Agree with Those of Christmas.

Tom Monk, formerly of this city, recently of Justus, came to Carbondale to spend the Fourth with old friends. He called at Christmas Day's celebration at Belmont house for refreshment. As to what happened there, there is a wide divergence of opinion. Tom and Christmas do not agree. Tom made his statement to Alderman Atkinson and swore to it. He alleges that while partaking of cheering beverages he was overcome by a sensation that was never before known to come out of a schooner with him at the open end. When he recovered, his watch was gone. Tom believes he was drugged for the purpose of robbery. The alderman's wit in the hands of Constable Gibby says so. Christmas says it is all a blackmailing scheme.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fear and family, of Broad street, Pittston, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rees A. Price, on South Spring street, where they passed the Fourth. Yesterday, accompanied by the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. William Osborne, Mrs. Edmund Jones and Mrs. John Price, they went to Crystal Lake, where they enjoyed the picturesque scenery and the pleasures to be derived from that beautiful summer resort.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burr are spending a season at the Delaware Water Gap.

A. J. O'Neill, of Connellsville, is visiting friends in this city.

H. J. Brennan left yesterday for an extended business trip.

Misses Anna Carroll and Grace Tallman have returned from Jackson.

The Misses Ethel, Hilda and Beatrice McMillen are visiting at West Clifford.

In the list of officers for the new company that has been formed in West Pittston for the Provisional National Guard is the name of F. P. Dunkle, formerly of this city. He is fourth sergeant and quartermaster.

Dr. and Mrs. Mark Bailey will occupy the residence No. 32 Washington street, owned by Mrs. H. B. Judd. The Bowers house on Garfield avenue has been taken by Thomas Law, mine superintendent.

OLYPHANT.

As the result of a quarrel among neighbors Christopher Ashman, of this place, is lying at his home with his head badly cut and bruised. Ashman lives in a small settlement east of Olyphant near the reservoir. John Warring lives across the street from Ashman. Early last evening Warring's children commenced to call the Ashman's names, which riled Ashman's temper. He went over to Warring's yard and threatened Warring's life. Warring came out and ordered him from the premises and he refused to go. A fight ensued and Warring picked up a hoe and hit Ashman on the head several times. By this time Ashman's son put in his appearance and it was a pitched battle for a few minutes. All some neighbors interfered. Warring had a warrant sworn out for Ashman and they were given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Cummings and held in the sum of $50 each.

Mrs. Daniel M. Jenkins, of Edwardsville, and Miss Thomas Davis, of Providence, spent Tuesday with Miss Elvira Jones.

The many friends of the late Mrs. William Cooper, who died on Sunday last, attended the funeral services which were held yesterday afternoon from the family home on Jones street. Rev. F. Hammond, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiated. During the services appropriate selections were rendered by the choir. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Matthew Gray, Henry Wright, Thomas Weaver, William Edwards, E. Brennan, John Glida.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas received serious injuries about the head by falling from a tree on Tuesday.

FACTORYVILLE.

Perhaps there are many readers who do not know why June 14th was designated as the day of the Flag day. On that date in 1777 the Continental congress resolved "That the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, that the Union be thirteen stars, white on a blue field, representing a new star for each State admitted to the Union."

Professor George Tranasu, of Pottsville, has joined his family who were here for a month, and they will spend the summer here in their cottage on Hill street.

The young man from this place who enlisted in the regular army are in camp at Tampa.

Seargent Walter Colvin, of Factoryville, who is in Battery C, of the artillery, has been ordered to the Philippine Islands, and left for Manila last Tuesday.

Prof. Whitford has severed his connection with Keystone academy, as a teacher and Professor Loren Fassett will succeed him.

The G. A. R. circle of this place, at their next regular meeting, will give a literary entertainment. Among those who will recite are the Misses Bertha Holgate and Ione Hanson.

The Fourth passed very quietly in this town. In fact the town was pretty well decorated. During the day most of the residents visited some one of the many surrounding lakes, and some witnessed the celebration at Dalton. Perhaps Lake Sheridan came in for a larger share of the patronage from this place than the other lakes, for the reason that the name is appropriate and patriotic at the present time, and that a large party from here went there for an old fashioned picnic.

The Young Women's Christian Temperance union will meet next Tuesday afternoon at their rooms on Main street, at 2.30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

While County Commissioner Fred
