JUDGE WOODWARD TO HEAR SMITH CASE

Judges of the Lackawanna Courts Decided to Certify the Case to Him.

WHEN THE APPLICATION FOR THE REINSTATEMENT OF CORNELIUS SMITH CAME UP YESTERDAY MORNING MR. SMITH PRESENTED A PETITION ASKING THAT THE MATTER BE CERTIFIED TO THE PRESIDENT JUDGE RESIDING NEAREST THE PLACE OF TRIAL.

Cornelius Smith's application for reinstatement came up yesterday forenoon before Judges Archbald, Gunster and Edwards, and on his own motion an order was made certifying the case to Judge Stanley Woodward, of Wilkes-Barre, for disposition. The bar committee will notify Judge Woodward and arrange with him to come here this week if convenient for him and all parties concerned.

The bar enclosure was packed with members of the bar in anticipation of the argument. Attorney James Mahon addressed the court for Mr. Smith and read aloud the petition for his reinstatement. Mr. Smith was disbarred on June 11, 1896, and the Supreme court modified the order so as to permit an application for reinstatement at the end of two years from that date.

Judge Archbald asked Mr. Mahon if the petition contained the qualification of the Supreme court that the application could be made providing that meanwhile nothing except what was of record appeared against Mr. Smith's private or professional character.

MR. SMITH'S REMARKS. At this point Mr. Smith addressed the court and said the petition was sufficient for a prima facie case for the rights he was seeking. He read a petition that Attorneys James H. Torrey, S. B. Price and E. C. Newcomb had required to show by warrant of attorney by what right they were acting in this case. The court refused the petition, and in doing so Judge Archbald stated that the court had abundant authority to appoint a committee to represent it in these proceedings, and it had appointed three disinterested and impartial persons. Mr. Smith presented then the following petition:

Cornelius Smith, the petitioner, being duly sworn, says: That he is informed and believes that the parties to the issue in these cases are the honorable judges of Lackawanna county on the one side and the petitioner on the other side; and that the judges, who act, by law, required to try the said issue, are parties to it and personally interested in the event of the same. That the said issue is a part of a long bitter and personal contest between the said judges and the petitioner, and the petitioner is informed and believes that the said judges are strongly prejudiced against him, and that he cannot obtain a fair and impartial trial before the said judges. He therefore prays the court to certify the case for trial to the president judge residing nearest the place of trial, who is disinterested.

FAVORED PETITION. Mr. Torrey consulted with Messrs. Price and Newcomb and announced that the committee would be in favor of the petition as it would relieve the court of an embarrassing position. Judge Archbald said the court would retire and consult about it. The three judges came back in a few minutes and the following order was made:

Without conceding the truth of the allegations made in this application, but being entirely willing to be relieved of the duty of passing upon the petition for reinstatement, the motion of the petitioner is allowed and this case is hereby certified to Hon. Stanley Woodward, president judge of the Eleventh Judicial district, as prayed for. By the Court.

MRS. D. L. TATE INJURED. Twisted Her Ankle While Walking on Mulberry Street.

Mrs. D. L. Tate who is spending some time at the home of her father, Hon. Joseph A. Scranton, received a painful injury yesterday, caused by twisting her ankle while walking down Mulberry street. She sustained a severe fall after being taken home. It was found that a serious sprain had been occasioned by the accident.

It is hoped by physicians that there will be no permanent ill results to the injured ankle, although her recovery must necessarily be slow.

This is a particularly anxious season for Lieutenant Tate's friends as he is at Tampa where he was detailed to drill a new troop, and is momentarily expecting orders to Cuba, whence he will go with the next transport.
