LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Mt. Pleasant Shaft Is to Be Driven to the Second Dunmore Vein.

DOG WHICH BIT ALBERT LEWIS AND SEVERAL OTHER CHILDREN WAS SHOT BY PATROLMAN JONES. SEVERAL SOCIAL EVENTS-COM-PLIMENTARY CONCERT TO LEWIS WATKINS IN ST. DAVID'S EPISCO-PAL CHURCH-WILLIAM PHILLIPS SUSTAINED A BROKEN ARM.

The Mt. Pleasant has entered the list of collieries hereabouts which are sinking their shafts to lower veins. Proposals have been advertised for and before this month is out, a contract will be let to sing the present shaft from the Clark vein to the Second Dunmore, a distance of about 120 feet. This vein averages about 31/2 feet in thickness and is a fair seam of coal, though rather expensive to work owing to its thinness which necessitates some cutting of rock. The Diamond and Cayuga mines on the northeast, operated by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, are getting coal out of this vein at present, and it has proved a workable and profitable vein. The shaft at the Mt. Pleasant, which is owned by the William T. Smith estate, is 11x20 feet in dimensions and the extension will correspond. At present four veins are being worked, being the 3-foot, 5-foot and New Country veins. The Second Dunmore will make five and will be opened up and operated as soon as the shaft is ready. The latter will be done as soon as practicable.

Though a new vein of coal will thus be worked no increase in the output of the colliery is expected. The purpose of the opening being to simply make the output uniform both as to quantity and quality of coal as in the reference to the Mt. Pleasant shaft it might be said that few plants of the kind are better equipped any-where in the valley. The late William T. Smith, who owned and operated it, was very practical and as fast as modern appliances were put upon the market for mining and facilitating the mining of coal, they were introduced by him into his mine. His efforts were ably seconded and carried out by his superintendent, Thomas Sprague, a gentleman thoroughly posted in mining and its intricacies.

The application of electricity to mine operations was made here quite extensively throughout. Pumps, haulage system and lighting to a large extent is being done by this latest improvement in mine operations. As fast as possible, all these appliances will be introduced into the new yein when Another pleasant feature in connection with the proposed work is that employment will be open for many who are now out of work.

DOG WAS SHOT.

Word being sent to the West Side police station yesterday that Albert Lewis, 12 years of age, and three other boys, had been bitten by a rabid dog, Day Patrolman Thomas Jones Investigated and learned that the Lewis boy had been bitten, but not severely, and the other three had been bitten at various times long before but by the same carine.

Albert was running across the street yesterday morning, and the dog, who of late has been in the habit of chasing any child whom he saw running. ran at young Lewis and set his teeth into the boy's trousers. The skin was grazed and the lad was frightened. The dog belonged to Mrs. Peter Schuler, of 156 South Bromley avenue. Lewis' parents reside nearly opposite. Patrolman Jones obtained permission and shot the

CALLED WATSON A LIAR.

Attorney Responded by Aiming Blow at Mr. Pugh.

A warrant was issued last night for the arrest of Attorney George M. Watson on a charge of assault and battery preferred by R. F. Pugh, of Pugh & O'Brien, agents for an out-of-town building and loan association. The warrant was issued by Alderman Millar and will be served on Mr. Watson this forenoon. Mr. Pugh's version of the difficulty as it was detailed in the information supporting the warrant goes on to say that between 5 and 5.30 vesterday afternoon he stepped from his offices in the Board of Trade building, across the corridor to the office of Attorney R. A. Zimmerman.

Mr. Watson was there and charged him with bribing Constable Cole to bring Attorney W. J. Tracey to jail the day the warrant was issued against Mr. Tracey, He called Mr. Watson ; liar. Mr. Watson jumped up and struck him a blow on the chin. It was delivered with good force and aim, but Mr. Pugh jumped back, thereby missing what would otherwise have been a knockout.

Without any attempt at retaliation Mr. Pugh left the office, sought his personal attorney and received instructions how to proceed to invoke the law on his aggressor. Mr. Pugh was anxious to have the warrant executed last night, but Alderman Millar persuaded him to defer it until today.
