REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

STATE.

Governor—WILLIAM A. STONE. Lieutenant Governor—J. P. S. GOBIN. Secretary of Internal Affairs—JAMES W. LATTI. Judge of Superior Court—W. W. PORTER.

LEGISLATIVE.

Senate.

Twentieth Dist.—JAMES C. VAUGHAN. House.

First District—JOHN R. FARR. Fourth District—JOHN F. REYNOLDS.

COLONEL STONE'S PLATFORM

It will be my purpose when elected to so conduct myself as to win the respect and good will of those who have opposed me as well as those who have given me their support. I shall be the governor of the whole people of the state.

General Miles has now the chance to show the quality that is in him, and we predict that he will prove equal to it.

Come to Scranton.

At the next convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers, which will be held in Toledo, O., the first week in September, the delegation representing this city will work to secure for Scranton the honor of entertaining the convention of 1899.

Intelligent Cubans will recognize that learning the art of self-government is a slow process, and they will therefore not crowd the mourners at Santiago.

The Terms of Capitulation.

The terms of capitulation on which Santiago was surrendered present no detailed feature of novelty or interest beyond the fact that we have undertaken to transport the enemy to their own shores.

We have agreed that guerrillas and Spanish irregulars shall be permitted to remain in Cuba if they so elect, giving "a parole that they will not again take up arms against the United States unless released from parole."

In fulfilling the terms of the capitulation treaty, the transportation of the twenty-five thousand Spanish soldiers will cause some difficulty.

There were not sanitary and hygienic reasons beside. The best thing we can do is to hire English, French, or Italian transports at once.

Army officers back from Cuba explain the beheading by Cubans of Spanish prisoners. The men thus treated in a few instances were Spanish guerrillas, caught red-handed in the act of murdering our wounded.

Wife Beating: A Contrast.

Wife beating is a popular pastime among the lower classes of Englishmen. It has not struck root in American soil, and let us hope that it never will.

Joseph Francois, a foreigner, was arrested on Saturday afternoon charged with hitting the street with rubbish. We have no desire to palliate violations of the ordinances of the city.

Editor Hearst, of the New York Journal, is in quarantine, and his paper ought to be. It is now recalled that Captain Eulate, late of the Vizcaya, once boasted that he would tow the Iowa back to Spain.

Perks were paid for by depreciated American securities. If any one looks back to that period of industrial and commercial anxiety, when panic was written in each face, each one may judge of the consequences of a drain of gold in its broad, palpable features.

W. E. Curtis, who is close to the administration, says its peace terms are: First, the independence of Cuba under a protectorate of the United States for the purpose of preserving order and protecting property until a stable and responsible government can be established.

It is now recalled that Captain Eulate, late of the Vizcaya, once boasted that he would tow the Iowa back to Spain. The wise mariner does not boast.

If Porto Rico trade under Spanish rule has been worth $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 a year, under American control it ought soon to be worth $100,000,000.

General Gomez at last has arms, ammunition and food. It is therefore his turn to do something.

Growth of a New National Spirit

Y O U have referred to the complete change in the tone of the country which has occurred in the short time since the beginning of the war.

During the fruitless negotiations with Spain preliminary to the breaking out of hostilities, the more especial newspaper organ of this spirit of detraction in New York published the following extract from the medical and surgical history of our civil war.

The credit of the country has never been better nor its general and industrial prospects brighter. The war has demonstrated the actual capabilities of our immediately available resources in a sudden national emergency.

In place of this enfolding self-deception that has marked the last two months pride in America and confidence in its ability to sustain the fullest responsibilities of a controlling power in the world's affairs have calmed down.

Between February 1, 1894, and March 1, 1898, the export of gold from the United States reached the alarming figure of $22,000,000. Indeed, it nearly proved disastrous.

Another gratifying indication is the disappearance of the stubborn partisan prejudice which expressed itself in political opposition simply for the sake of opposition. Go back over the history of our political contentions for at least fifteen years.

W. E. Curtis, in Chicago Record. We are told an interesting story of a recent dinner at the Aurora borealis of the house of representatives, Mr. James Hamilton Lewis, of the state of Washington, and Nelson A. Miles, Mr. Lewis was the guest of honor.

MILES AND LEWIS.

General Miles, my people are wondering why our boys are not sent to the front. They are tired of being woodcutters and water-carriers and bootlickers.

General Miles, my people are wondering why our boys are not sent to the front. They are tired of being woodcutters and water-carriers and bootlickers.

"Oh, yes," retorted General Miles, "we all have heard of you." And among other things he probably recalled the fact that Mr. Lewis had twice objected to the consideration of a bill to revive the rank of lieutenant general in the army.

"We are running this war, and are not being dictated to by any one. All the flag end of border civilization can't expect to conduct this war because they belong to military companies. We are fighting to win, and not to give glory to all sorts of people."

SHALL WOMEN BE EXECUTED?

From the Wilkes-Barre Times. The question of electrocuting women is agitating the public of New York. This discussion has arisen over the sentence of death in the case of Mrs. Alice Lewis.

General Miles is an honorable man. On landing in Cuba, although the ranking officer of the United States army, he made no attempt to snatch the laurels of victory from the brow of General Shafter.

HAIR.

From the Medical Record. A writer in an English weekly journal says it is a curious fact that red-haired people are far less apt to go bald than those with dark hair.

THE THIRD STEP.

From the Troy Times. The third chapter in the Spanish-American war is closed. The first ended with Dewey's conquest of Spain's sea power in the Pacific and his seizure of the key to the Philippine Islands.

AN IMMUNE.

The stamp tax does not bother me. Nor may my life's tranquility. Still—still in gentle peace I live; I have no checks, dear friends, to give!

GOLDSMITH'S G. B. BAZAAR.

Merchants Who Are Afraid

To forget the cost of their goods, thereby causing them to carry over many from season to season, frequently in an outburst of passion over their imprudence, lay great stress on their clearing sales.

HONORABLE AND MANLY.

From the Syracuse Standard. General Miles is an honorable man. On landing in Cuba, although the ranking officer of the United States army, he made no attempt to snatch the laurels of victory from the brow of General Shafter.

FIGHTING JOE WHEELER.

From the Buffalo Express. While the chief credit belongs to General Shafter as commander of the army, there are many who will regard General Wheeler as the real hero of the expedition.

BUT SHE'LL GET THERE.

From the Washington Post. It may require some time for Mrs. De Witt to find the lack of wearing her American citizenship gracefully.

NOT SO FIENDISH AS THAT.

From the Washington Post. We are confident that the government will not be so inhuman as to send those Spanish prisoners on a French liner.

WAR CHAT.

The Franco-German war cost $3,000,000,000. England's ordnance survey map cost $2,000,000. Santiago bombardment powder cost $1,000,000.

WAR CHAT.

The army of Germany boasts eight women colonels. Yellow fever killed 11,500 Spanish soldiers in Cuba.

WAR CHAT.

Spain has sent Cuba 1,000 tons of medicines, etc., in three years. Our oldest vessel still in service, the schooner Polly, was built in 1865.
