WILLIAM DAVID PORTER NOMI-NATED FOR SUPERIOR JUDGE.

Colonel William A. Stone and Other Candidates on the State Ticket Are Introduced and Address the Committee-Executive Members Appointed to Manage the Campaign. Chairman Elkins' Address.

Philadelphia, July 19 .- The Republican state committee met in this city this afternoon and nominated William David Porter, of Allegheny, as a candidate for superior court judge. Judge Porter is at present a member of the court, having been recently appointed by Governor Hastings to take the place of the late Judge Wickham. The only other business transacted was the adoption of a resolution requesting the state chairman to appoint a sub-committee to take such steps as may be required to secure for the soldiers at the front the right to vote.

Complete harmony prevailed and the meeting lasted only about an hour. Colonel William A. Stone and four other candidates on the state ticket were introduced after the meeting. They made brief addresses.

Prior to the meeting of the state committee, Chairman Elkin appointed the executive committee that is to manage the campaign as follows:

Congressman William Connell and Louis A. Watres, Scranton; William H. Andrews, Walter Lyon and James S. McKean, of Pittsburg; I. W. Durham, Charles F. Kindred, Horatio E. Hackett and David H. Lane, Philadelphia; General Frank Reeder, Easton; W. J. Scott, Warwallopen; William F. Rice, Warren; Thomas V. Cooper and John E. Robinson, Media; A. C. Hopkins, Lock Haven; Lyman D. Gilbert, Harrisburg: W. W. Greist, Lancaster.

A committee at large was also appointed as follows:

A. M. High, Reading; William J. Harvey, Wilkes-Barre; James A. Campbell, Charles Heustis, Alex Crow, fr., and William E. Gill, Philadelphia; F. L. Kinner, Athens; George R. Mc-Crea, Lock Haven: Dr. R. W. Ram-sey, Chambersburg: Walter T. Merrick, Blossburg; James B. Raymond, Altoona; Parker L. Walter, Pittsburg.

CHAIRMAN ELKINS' SPEECH. In calling the assemblage to order, Chairman Elkins spoke as follows:

"Permit me, as chairman of the organization in this state, to congratuate you as its chosen representative on the splendid outlook for an aggressive and successful campaign. It is my opinion that the party was never in better condition than at the present time. Factional disputes, poltical disappointments, personal ambitions have been temporarily laid aside or entirely forgotten. There seems to be and is a general desire among all Republicans to give the state ticket an old time majority; to elect a solid Republican delegation to represent this great Keystone of the Republican arch in the next congress; and to return a tried and true Republican to the United of our country."

States senate. "The election in November is one of the most important in which the voters of this state have been called upon to participate in for many years. We have a long list of the most important J. P. S. Gobin, Galusha A. Grow, Genofficers to elect: A governor, a lieu- eral James W. Latta and Judge Wiltenant governor, a secretary of inter-judge. Mr. Magee said he had no doubt that the Republican voters of Penn-sylvania would ratify the good judgment of Governor Hastings in naming Judge Porter temporarily for the posttion. Brief seconding speeches were made by District Attorney Schaffer, of Delaware, and Arthur L. Bates, of Crawford, and then Judge Porter's name was placed on the ticket by the unanimous vote of the committee. On motion of Mr. Ray, of Crawford, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Whereas, The Republican party, in one of the great crises of the country's his-tory, in the important national election of residence and registration; and Whereas, It is sound doctrine, worthy of the Republican party, that the right of suffrage keeps step with the American soldier, wherever he follows the flag in the service of his country; therefore Resolved, That the chairman of this committee, be and is bereby requested to appoint a sub-committee, whose duty shall be to take such steps, as may be necessary to insure the exercise of this right to the Pennsylvania soldiers, who are now in arms for their country, wherescever they may be, without regard to zone or hemisphere.

This ended the regular business of the meeting and on motion of W. H. Andrews, a committee of five was appointed to escort the candidate to the assembly room in order that they might meet the members of the com-The escort consisted of Mr. Andrews, Senator Magee, Mr. Hackett, of Philadelphia; Mr. Eckels, of Venango, and General Reeder, representing every element of the party.

Colonel Stone was the first candidate introduced. In the course of his brief speech he said he would be glad to do whatever duty he was called upon to perform in order to convince the people of the country that the Republican party in Pennsylvania still lives. The campaign will probably not open until the first of September so far as public utterances by the candidates are concerned.

"By that time, with the brilliant achievements of Dewey, Shafter, Schley, Sampson and Miles fresh in the nands of the people there may not be any Democrats left in Pennsylvania. "Parties cannot make issues; they are made by the people and the issues of this campaign are the war, the tariff and sound money. Since March 4, 1897, the people have not looked anxiously in the papers every morning to see if the gold reserve is all right. They have not even thought of the gold reserve. We don't need a gold reserve with the Republican party in power. The only use for it comes when we are cursed with a Democratic administra-

Mr. Stone expressed the opinion that the war must end in a very few weeks, "and then comes the question of the government of Cuba. Already we are seems likely to halt. We cannot afford to have any other flag flying over the island than our own. We must only guarantee for these people who have been oppressed by Spanish tyranny for years a government like unto our own, The war will soon be over, but for some years to come the Cuban question must necessarily figure in the policy

THE MARKETS. Wall Street Review.

New York, July 19 .-- Midsummer dullness was the characteristic of the stock market today. The bears amongst the small room traders took advantage of the duliness to hammer at the list here and there. They sold down Metropolitan Street railway with some confidence. Prices of railroad stocks are now from 5 to 10 points higher than they were a year ago, but in the meantime dividend rates have in many cases been increased and extra dividends disbursed, and the railroad companies are making extensive preprations to handle a large grain and merchandise trade during the coming fall and winter. The situation in the stock market seems to hinge largely upon the price of wheat or rather upon the grain movement, which is held back by the failure of wheat to advance. Until reliable estimates can be made of the world's new crop of wheat and the world's consequent need for our surplus products speculation

MANY NEW QUESTIONS.

"The war has opened up many new questions which American statesmen will have to grapple during the next twenty years. It will require the ablest and best thought of the nation pected that much of the important to solve aright these vexed problems in the near future. The past two months have been history-makers in the modes and defences of modern warfare, but the next ten years will be history-makers along the lines of international diplomacy. The United States stands at the threshold of a new governmental policy and we must see to it that Pennsylvania stands guard with every man in his place. It is safe to predict, however, that the ing: party which successfully conducted a great civil war and shaped the destinles of the country during the last quarter of a century can be relied upon to solve to the satisfaction of our people and the people of the world the vexed questions of the future.

"President McKinley has already won the respect and admiration of every civilized nation for the tact, diplomacy and courage he has shown in the conduct of the war with Spain. His hands must and will be upheld by those in sympathy with him. His party must stand by him in these trouble some times of war. Pennsylvania never yet faltered when called upon to perform a patriotic duty and she will not falter now. It is the especial desire of the Republican state committee that a solid Republican delegation should represent Pennsylvania in the next We hope your deliberations congress. today will be tempered with modera-We want such action taken as tion. will unite the party in the campaign | The Transport Steamer Carries Nearwhich will ensue."

When he had concluded his speech Mr. Elkin called for nominations.
