Thomas Loftus, Mary Kilpatrick, Mary McLean and Lizzie Hart the Lucky Ones.

One of the important matters discussed at the last meeting of the school board was the selection of teachers to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of four of those who have presided over rooms in the past few years. The resignations offered and accepted were those of Miss Martha D. Hards, of No. 6 school; Miss Stella V. Hunter, of No. 8; Miss Margaret Murphy, of

No. 9, and Miss Grace Squier, of No. 8. The elections made by the board to fill the vacancies were Thomas Loftus and Misses May Kilpatrick, Mary Mc-Lean and Lizzie Hart. The salaries and locations of the new teachers will be fixed by the board at their regular meeting on the first Monday in Aug-

Celebrated at Crystal Lake.

The local lodge of the Daughters of Naomi enjoyed an outing at Crystal lake yesterday. This is the first anniversary of the organization of the lodge and the occasion was fittingly celebrated. Two large bus loads of the daughters and their friends were driven to the lake by Frank Walsh. Several large freezers of ice cream and many baskets of other refreshments went with the party. They picnicked in the grove at the lake and made their anniversary celebration an enjoyable affair not soon to be forgotten. The lodge is in a most flourishing condition for a year-old organization, and everything points to a prosperous and useful

OLYPHANT.

The borough council met in regular session last night. As considerable dissatisfaction has been manifested on the line of the proposed sewer districts, in regard to the expense they be put, several changes have been made in the ordinance, and a portion of the district, between Church and Smith streets have been stricken off. The size of the pipe is also reduced and on Lackawanna street it will Railroad street, yesterday. be thirty inches, and correspondingly reduced to the end of the district. The change will lessen the expense of con-struction of about $1,800. At last night's meeting the old ordinance was repealed and the new one as amended passed first and second readings.

The pave ordinance was also repealed, and a new one with several changes will be brought up at a future meeting. The secretary was instructed to get prices on 300 feet of hose for Olyphant Fire company, No. 2.

Sunday trains are now the fashion and so the E. & W. V R. R fall into line and run two trains each way every Sunday The workingmen claim they must have a day to rest in and consequently they make the railroad companies force their employes to work on Sunday when they themselves want to rest. Athough it may be nice for the workingmen from Scranton to come out here and spend a quiet day, it is not so nice for our men, who must work all the week and then Sunday, when they wish to rest, they must work harder than any day in the week to help take care of the crowds who came out here for rest. And then if the workingmen come the riff-raff of the city will come also, and then will the Sabbath become a day that cottagers and our quiet town folks will dread to see. And yet the world is getting better every year.

Bafir, a clerk at Hollister & Bowman's store, was returning from dinner he met with what might prove fatal injuries by being struck with a Jersey Central engine. He had alighted from his wheel while a Delaware and Hudson train was passing and as the store is but a short distance away, he did not again mount the wheel but pushed it across one of the tracks. At this instant the south-bound freight coming along unnoticed struck him, hurling him about twenty feet. He was taken to the store and medical aid summoned. It was found that a leg and an arm were broken and his head and face badly jacerated. Rev. J. J. Mc-Cabe administered the sacrament of extreme unction before his removal to he hospital. At a late hour last evening he was yet allve, but his physicians have no hope of his recovery. Mr. Bafir is a well-educated Polander and s quite popular among the employes at the store. There are gates at this crossing and Mr. Flynn, the gate-tender, had just raised them after the north-bound train had passed and was bout to lower them again as he saw the oncoming train, but Bafir was already within the gates and he did not ower them, so that he might have an opportunity to pass.

PROGRAMME OF THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

CINCINNATI PREPARING TO EN-TERTAIN THE VETERANS.

Every Veteran Will Receive a Coupon Book with Tickets Entitling Him and the Members of His Family to Free Admission Into All the Places of Amusement in the Cincinnati, O., July 22. The complete programme for the week of the naional G. A. R. encampment, to be held in this city Sept. 5-10, inclusive, was approved and made public today by the citizens' executive committee, in charge of all arrangements. The Cincinnati entertainment promises to be out of the ordinary as encampments have gone. A unique system has been adopted by which free entertainment provided will be limited to veterans and their families, though all the hundreds of thousands of visitors expected may participate with but small expense. A coupon entertainment book will be given every veteran. Each department headquarters will be provided with a supply of these little books equal to the number of representatives in attendance upon the encampment. In these coupon books will Indians. At 3 o'clock in the after-noon, another flag raising will occur at the Public Landing, under the auspices of the National Naval Veterans' association, whose members will be quartered on a fleet of steamboats at the river front. At 8 o'clock in the evening, the Navai Veterans and exprisoners of war will hold a camp in famous Music hall, though the enter tainment, including prominent speakers, war pictures, music and miscellaneous entertainment, will be under the auspices of the local entertainmnt committee. These constitute the formal features of the day's bill. CONTINUOUS PLEASURE.

From Monday until Friday night, there will be continuous entertainnents at the many open-air pleasure resorts surrounding Cincinnati. These will all be of a different nature. Chester park, immediately adjoining Camp Sherman, will provide vaudeville entertainment, bicycle races and features of a like nature, the park having one of the most famous bicycle tracks in the country. The Lagoon, a beautiful summer resort with a large lake surrounded by Kentucky hills, just across the river from Cincinnati, will present beside its regular attractions, a daily display of Japanese aerial fire works, a daily naval sham battle at 8 p. m., reproducing the capture of Manila, hombardment of Santiago and other scenes, with a continuous vaudeville performance in the large amphitheater, Coney Island, ten miles up the Ohio river, and reached by a magnificent river ride, will present its regular attractions under the Coney Island management, including a continuous vaudeville performance. Steamers will leave the wharf at the foot of Vine street, every hour of the day from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., not only for Coney Island but for general river excursions. The Zoological garden, whose fame is not confined to this country, will be open daily from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m., with evening concerts and general entertainment in the day. There will be a ball game daily at p. m., in the National Association park, the Cincinnati Reds contesting with the Clevelands on Monday, the Chicagos on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and the St. Louis Browns on Friday. There will be daily afternoon and evening performances at the six leading theaters, with a varied bill including the famous war drama "Shenandoah." minstrel performance and vaudeville. These are the general features of entertainment. Many special ones are provided for by the citizens' committee

PARADES.

On Tuesday, at 3 p. m., the Nava! Veterans and ex-Prisoners of War will parade. Wednesday, the grand par-ade of Grand Army of the Republic Veterans will move. The signal will from national headquarters at the advantage.

Grand hotel. The parade will be reviewed by President McKinley and Commander-in-Chief John P. S. Gobin, now a brigadier general in the United States Army of Volunteers. The line of march has not been made public, but will be entirely over level streets, and with the exception of a very small portion over asphalt. At 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, the citizens of Cincinnati will present a civic and industrial parade of large proportions. made specially attractive by a large number of historic and allegorical floats. The camp fires on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at Music hall, will be in honor of the Grand Army of the Republic, and will be of a character similar to that of Monday evening. Among the speakers expected at these camp fires are President McKinley, ex-President Harrison, Senator J. B. Foraker and many other notables. Every member of the president's cabinet, all senators and representatives, and the governors of all states will be invited to attend the encampment.

The fourth evening of the week. Thursday, will be devoted to a grand display of fireworks. In order that all may witness them without discomfort, similar displays will be made at the same hours at the Public Landing, in Eden Park and at Camp Sherman. The delegates to the encampment, and notables will witness the display from steamboats anchored at the Public Landing. These fireworks display will be as elaborate as the mind of the designer can conceive. The city will be brilliantly lighted every evening with artistic illumination

OTHER FEATURES.

A point of interest to all visitors will be Fort Thomas, from which the Sixth United States infantry went to face such terrible loss at the battle of Santiago. It is still occupied by the families of the departed regiment, and as a hospital for sick and wounded. It is one of the most beautiful spots about the hill crowned city, the view from the crest of the hill being unsurpassed. The Citizens' committee will erect a large tent at the fort in which be served refreshments free to all veterans and their families. Street cars leave the heart of the city every three minutes for this point.

This in the main constitutes the general features of entertainment which will be offered the city's guests encampment week. To be sure there will be many other features, including receptions, minor camp fires, and probably a grand reception to President McKinley. There will be special provisions for the care of lady visitors, including receptions, by notable citizens and special features of entertainment yet to be provided for them.

SIMPLY SMILED.

The Red Men Were Not as Stupid as

They Looked. Three full-blooded Indians sat under the awning covering the main deck forward of one of the steamboats going down the river last Sunday afternoon. Two of them were bucks, ap parently about thirty years old-but an Indian's age is hard even to approximate-and the other was an old man. All three of them, were neatly and quietly dressed in dark clothes, and they all paid strict attention to their own business, talking Indian, that sounded a good deal like Chinese, to each other.

Two funny young men, accompanied by a pair of giggly young women, took camp chairs directly in the rear of the admission tickets to every place grunts of the three Indians very amusing indeed, and the two funny young

COAL BRIQUETTES.

Coal briquettes are made very extansively and used in Germany, Franco, Russia and Belgium. In Germany a large part of the output of brown coal, which is too friable to stand handling, is utilized in this way. In the United States very little has been done in this line. A fac-tory for making briquettes from anthracite coal dust was put up at Rondout, N. Y., about fifteen years ago, but it did not prove a paying business and was aban-
