FINAL VOWS.

Taken by Twelve Young Ladies at St. Rose Convent Saturday.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Hoban officiated at the convent chapel Saturday morning in the impressive ceremony of religious reception and profession. During the past nine days a large number of the sisters of the Immaculate Heart have been engaged in annual retreat at St. Rose. The exercises were conducted by Rev. Thomas Hanley, a Redemptorist Father from Annapolis. At the close of the retreat this morning Bishop Hoban celebrated mass for the sisters, after which he received the final vows of the following young ladies who had spent two years in the St. Rose noviti-

Sister Mary Bennett, Dunmore, Pa. Sister Mary Thecla, West Scranton, Pa. Two young ladies were then invested in the religious habit and were made novices. They were: Miss Mary Gallagher, Parsons, Pa., in religion, Sister Mary Thomasina, Miss Agnes Judge, Pittston, Pa., in religion, Sister Mary Eleanor. Two little girls dressed in spotless white, Rose McAvoy and Mary Glynn, acting as bridesmalds, attended the sisters-elect. During the ceremony the bishop was assisted by Father Coffey. The bishop preached the sermon explaining the ceremony and gave words of comfort to the parents who were making the sacrifice in giving their children to God and the church.

In the sanctuary were the following clergymen: Rev. Thomas Hanly, C. SS. R., Annapolis: M. F. Crane, Avoca; N. J. McManus, Jeremiah Dunn. M. E. Loftus, A. T. Broderick, of Scranton; M. B. Donian, Dunmore; W. H. Connolly, Troy; P. F. Quinnan, Pittston; J. L. Shanley, Dickson; M. E. Lynott, Jermyn; J. J. Griffin, city.

Prospective Litigation Over the Letting of a Contract.

City councils had a hot time Saturday night. They met in joint session and let two important contracts in a very unusual manner. That for paving River street, Park Place, Sixth avenue and South Main street went to Blair & Kennedy for $1.97 a square vard for paving, 48 cents a foot for surbing and 14 cents a foot for re-setting curb stones. They were $682 higher than Coon & Lindsay, but were given the contract because they are local bidders.
