DEMOCRATS NAME THEIR TICKET CONVENTION WAS AN UNUSUALLY QUIET AFFAIR.

Hon. F. W. Gunster Was Nominated For Judge, I. H. Burns for Congress, M. W. Cummings for State Senator, A. B. Dunning for Surveyor and Dr. James F. Saltry for Coroner—Resolutions That Were Adopted by the Convention—Mr. O'Brien's Nominating Speech.

The convention was a very quiet affair and the attendance was not so large as at the average Democratic gathering of this kind. All of the candidates save Mr. Dunning were unopposed. After it was shown that he had more votes than his opponent, Patrick Bewley, his nomination was made by acclamation.

The convention was called to order at 10:35 in the morning in the main court room of the Court House by county Chairman F. J. Fitzsimmons.

The resolutions were read by Mayor O'Neill, of Carbondale, for temporary chairman. He was unanimously chosen and appointed the following committees:

RESOLUTIONS.—Hon. J. M. O'Neill, C. R. Pfeiffer, T. J. Farrell, J. M. Casey, John M. Corbett.

At 11:15 the convention adjourned until 2 p. m. At 2 p. m. the session began. There was a large attendance than at the morning session, but the court room was by no means crowded.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, while surrendering to the people the right of electing their representatives to the national convention of 1898, and which found a peerless exponent in the brilliant and heroic William Jennings Bryan, yet agrees with the declarations of the recent state convention at Altoona, which endorse the campaign in Pennsylvania to the discussion of state and local issues.

THE DEMOCRACY OF PENNSYLVANIA. In arranging for his administration and the legislature for gross official misconduct and monstrous and disgraceful extravagances the Democracy of Pennsylvania has been publicly proclaimed by a large, potent and well-informed electorate of the Republic at mass meetings and in the press of the Commonwealth during the present year.

Resolved, That we deplore in common with all good citizens of this state the official profligacy and recklessness which characterized the work of the last legislature and pledge ourselves to employ our best energies to render impossible a repetition of such scandalous misdeeds.

SANTORO'S SLAYER STILL AT LIBERTY NO SYSTEMATIC EFFORT MADE TO RUN DOWN MURDERER.

Theodore Santoro, of Astoria, Long Island, a Cousin of the Murdered Man Came Here Yesterday and Swore Out Warrants for the Arrest of Pascore and Antonio Greco—Constables in Whose Hands Warrants Were Placed Refused to Serve Them Unless Well Paid.

A remarkable phase of the murder of Bandmaster Joseph Santoro, of 554 Forge, is that no one has been arrested yet for the crime, and Raphael Pascore, the man suspected of it, has not taken his departure but is still, or at least was last night, at his home in Spring Brook. As yet no systematic effort has been made to fasten the crime on the murderer.

FOR ALLEGED HORSE STEALING. Brick Avenue Man Is Held in $500 Bail.

For the alleged theft of a horse and buggy from Charles Davis on the West Side, David Hughes, of Brick avenue, was arrested late Monday night on a warrant issued by Alderman Roberts. Hughes was in bed when arrested. Patrick Padden, implicated with Hughes, eluded arrest. Padden also was wanted by the police for an alleged house-breaking several weeks ago.

HELP IS WANTED when the nerves become weak and the appetite fails. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives help by making the blood rich, pure and nourishing. Get only Hood's.

HOOD'S PILLS are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, sick headache.

MR. LEYSHON NOTIFIED. County Detective Leyshon is away on his vacation at Lake Idlewild, Susquehanna county.

Mr. Santoro sent a telegram at 3:30 last night to Lake Idlewild. He will secure some other constables to go after the accused man today. Last night he informed a Tribune reporter that there was strong evidence to place the crime at the door of Pascore.

Joseph Corndorf, Santoro's boarder, says that Pascore came to the house several times on Sunday afternoon and inquired for the bandmaster. He stayed only for a minute each time. Santoro happened to be away. There was something about Pascore's manner Sunday that suggested ill humor.

Pascore worked for the Spring Brook Water Supply company. John Monie, of Moosic, a foreman for the company, in conversation with a Tribune reporter yesterday afternoon described the man as a "big fellow" who had been talked with him Monday night and Pascore felt terrible to think he was suspected of the crime. Mr. Monie said he understood the man was at work the time the murder was committed. He did not know of his own knowledge that Pascore was, but had been so informed by some other person.

BOUGHT AN AX. Mr. Santoro said that he had received information showing that Pascore bought an ax Monday forenoon in a store in Moosic. The case will not be dropped until further systematic action is taken to connect the various links in the chain of evidence. The longer this is delayed, the harder the mystery will be to solve.

THE ANSWER KNOWN.

And, gentlemen, if it shall be the wisdom of the people of this county to adopt such a system, where shall we turn to select our judges? Shall we choose? Shall we experiment with this high office or shall we continue in the service, man by man, of the present system?
