Scranton residents is concerned. Years ago, the farm adjoining the McKeever's farm was owned and run by a man named Gammon, said to be a Frenchman. He was a peculiar fellow and easy-going. The high point on the days used to play in Gammon's fields He told them to go up on the hill and keep out of the other fields. Tradition says that Gammon said he wished to give the "gamins" a chance to keep out of mischief. So whether it should be "Gammon's" or "Gamins' hill is a mooted question, but the fact remains that for years, until building operations put a stop to it, base ball and other athletic sports were played on "Gammon's Hill."

UNIQUE SOCIAL AFFAIR. A large number of friends were entertained last evening at the home of Miss Sarah Meredith, 161814 Jackson street. The affair which was exceedingly pleasant, was conducted by the members of the Paptist Young Peo-ple's union of the First Welsh Baptist church, of South Main avenue.

Among the many unique diversions offered as entertainment was "lantern" croquet. A lantern was placed at each wicket and thus one was able to play croquet by night. The young ladies each wore a cap upon which was lettered the name of a state of the Union. Fach gentleman was given a card upon which was written the capital of each state. The gentlemen were supposed to locate the state for which he held the "capital." The affair proved to be a financial as well as a social

Large Force of Men Fighting the Flames in Black Diamond Mine.

The fire in Black Diamond mine of the Haddock Coal company at Luzerne, which was supposed to be out, is burning again with renewed vigor, Operations were suspended yesterday in order that the compressed air, which is used by the slope engine, might be utilized by the machines that are used in driving a tunnel so as to get a better ventilation to the point of the fire.

The fire can easily be put out if a good current of fresh air can be forced to it. A large force of men is working day and night, but their progress is slow on account of the large amount of gas, which is ignited by the fire as fast as it accumulates.

The men in charge of the work hope to have the fire out by the end of the week if the tunnel is completed.

New Patients Reported at the Alger Hospital Yesterday.

Washington, July 27.-Ten new cases of typhoid were sent from Camp Alger to Fort Myer today. Among the patients are John N. Randale, Company H. and Howard Martin, Company G Twelfth Pennsylvania. There are also many cases of malarial, intermittent fever and other allments in camp which might develop into typhoid. Owing to the numerous cases of this sort in Company G. Twelfth Pennsylvania, it has been isolated. Private Floyd W. Gay, Company F, Sixthty-fifth New York, is under arrest charged with robbing the mails. He was employed as clerk in handling the soldiers' mail and it was found that letters were not being delivered and an investigation was set on foot. Gay paid to a woman in Washington a check upon which payment was refused by a Buffalo bank, as payment had been stopped. The woman, together with an officer, walked through the company during an inspection to find the man who gave her the check, and when they approached Gay he broke from the ranks and ran to the woods. He was captured and confessed to his stealing letters and their contents. He may be tried either in a civil or military court, probably the

CHARGES AGAINST CON FALLON OF PALM STREET.

Mrs. Everhart's Story of the Manner in Which He Misused Her-Otto Stoeckel, of Cedar Avenue, Entertained a Number of His Friends in Honor of His Birthday-Dinner Given by Mrs. August Schimpff. William O'Donnell Had a Narrow Escape from Injury.

"Con" Fallon, of Palm street, was arraigned in police court yesterday, the charges on the docket against him being drunk, disorderly and commit ting an assault and battery. The latter charges were preferred by Daniel Everhart and wife. The testimony of Mrs. Everhart was that Fallon passed her residence Tuesday night in an intoxicated condition. A number of small children were playing in the road, and they seeing Fallon tottering along began to jeer at him. He got very angry, and rushing into the street struck a Polish boy a blow that put him into an unconscious state for ten minutes.

Mrs. Everhart said she went to the boy and was about to lift him when Fallon began to abuse her. He raised his hand to strike but she iled into her yard, locking the gate. Fatlon, in an instant, pulled three pickets from the fence. Entering the yard he siezed her and threw her to the ground. Her screams brought her husband, who was resting on a lounge in their home, to the scene. In the scrimmage which followed Everhart received a blow that cut his forehead.

Patrolman Haggerty arrived and locked Fallon in the station house. Alderman Lentes fined him $10, which was paid. Mr. Everhart stated last night he will have a warrant issued today for Fallon's arrest.

SOCIETY EVENTS.

Otto Stoeckel, of Cedar avenue, was 27 years of age yesterday. To a numof his intimate men friends he sent invitations to celebrate the happy occasion last night at a stag party Epp's summer garden. Around the festive board seated with the host were: Dr. Kolb, George Wahl, Maurice Weiss, Emil Herman, Gustave Hillman, Robert Friederick, Francis Eilan, Herr Brunner, Hubert Albrecht, August Hillman, Fred Hanboach, M. Eisman, John P. Warner, Edward Melvin and Harry Klauminzer. Impromptu speeches, solos and instrumental music were features of the evening. Mr. Stoeckel is engaged as timekeeper at the South works, and is a recent acquision to society on this side.

Mrs. August Schimpff, of Cedar avenue, gave a dinner at her residence last evening in honor of the thirtysecond anniversary of her birth. Mrs Schimpff was presented with a large number of gifts. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pontius, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ziegler, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weichel, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pontius, Misses Anna, Henrietta, Lula and Mame Pontius.

Miss Hannah McNamara, of South Washington avenue, entertained Tuesday night incident to the visit of her guest, Professor Philip Kelley, of Pittsburg. A very enjoyable programme was carried out. The Misses Hannah, Louise and Christinna Mc-Namara, May and Lillian Kilcullen, Hannah Moyle, Annie McFadden, Win-O'Hara, Messrs, Johnnie Hart, P. E. Kilcullen, Fred Pulaski, Professor Phil Kelly, Barney Hugger and Willie Hart omprised the list of guests.

NARROW ESCAPE. William O'Donnell, of Cherry street, driver for the Keystone Erewing ompany, of Dunmore, narrowly escaped serious, if not fatal, injury last evening shortly after 6 o'clock, stepped from the hotel of Will Foley, on Cedar avenue, to board a southbound street car at the switch at that point. To the right of the road was a wagon passing slowly along, but just as the car reached the point where O'Donnell stood, a heavy wagon beonging to a brewery of this side was driven along at a high rate of speed. When O'Donnell turned and saw the norses about to knock him down he

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Leggett's Creek colliery, owned and operated by the Delaware and Hudson com-pany at North Screnton, will soon be a model plant. Many improvements have been made recently in and about the colliery. There are still many to finish. A new shaft 700 feet deep has been sunk and almost ready for full operation. Only coal from the Dunmore vein will be hoisted in this shaft, though the other veins are cut by it. The new shaft is about 150 feet south of the old shaft and about as far distant from the Leggett's Creek. The shaft mouth is surmounted by a 70-foot high steel tower and open. The coal hoisted in this shaft will be run through the present breaker and the old shaft continues in operation. The purpose is to sustain the grade of coal and a uniform output from the colliery.
