BIG BUSINESS CHANGE.

Huge Dry Goods Store Coming—Dimock Goes Out and Linsley Moves.

Papers were signed yesterday afternoon which make certain one of the biggest business changes the city has seen in months. Lebeck & Corin, proprietors of the early Salem avenue and Church street store, have sold the store rooms occupied by J. U. Dimock, A. S. Linsley and Florist Turnbull on the corner of Main street and Salem avenue, where they will open a store similar to their Scranton establishment during the early part of September. They will put in plate glass from F. E. Dennis to the Salem avenue entrance, making the largest show window in the city. The interior will be entirely remodelled.

They have agreed to dispose of the shoe stock of Mr. Dimock that remains unsold after a certain date. Miss Murphy, now employed by Mr. Dimock, has been assigned a position in the new store.
