

OXFORD TIE SHOES AT OXFORD TIE PRICES

Lot 4 contains LADIES' TAN GLAZE KID HAND SEWED OXFORDS...

Lot 5 contains MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S TAN KID AND GOAT SHOES...

Lot 6 contains BOYS' TAN P.U.S. SIA CALF SEAMLESS SEWED OXFORDS...

It's a shoe chance that no other store can equal at present, so don't miss it.

SCHANK & SPENCER 410 Spruce St.

The Wilkes-Barre Record can be had in Scranton at the news stands of M. Meinhard...

CITY NOTES.

Cards of thanks, resolutions of condolence, obituary poetry and the like will be inserted in The Tribune only when paid for in advance...

The Germania band will give an open air concert at Nay Aug park at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Yesterday ranks as one of the warmest days of the year thus far. One central city thermometer registered 95 degrees in the shade.

John Summers, of 84 Birch street, and Martha Spindler, of 515 Spruce avenue...

The bond of John D. Jones, tax collector of Taylor borough, was approved yesterday by Judge Archibald.

CHANGE OF POLLING PLACE.

Petition Relative to Booth in First District of Thirteenth Ward.

A petition has been made to court to have the polling place in the First district of the Thirteenth ward changed...

The petition does not specify where the petitioners want the booth moved to...

The bond of John D. Jones, tax collector of Taylor borough, was approved yesterday by Judge Archibald.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL.

Joseph Sobiski, of Elm Street, had no friends to care for him.

Joseph Sobiski, of 165 Elm street, died at the Lackawanna hospital yesterday afternoon from dysentery.

Sobiski was a young man, about 30 years old. Undertaker Majernik took charge of the body...

ARRESTED FOR TRESPASSING.

One Ride Stealer Sent to Jail and Other Let Go Free.

Gilbert Blake, of Connecticut, and Thomas Nelson, of Carbonade, were arrested on the southern division of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yesterday by Special Officer Durkin for stealing a ride.

GIRL IS MISSING.

The Scranton police department has been notified of the disappearance of Alice Dullard, a 15-year-old Peckville girl.

The missing girl when last seen wore a red plaid waist, blue skirt and a brown hat trimmed with blue flowers.

COMPANY A IS NOW IN THE NEW GUARD

MUSTERED IN BY MAJOR SIMON B. CAMERON LAST NIGHT.

Captain James O. Dimmick Elected Captain and Edwin Gee First Lieutenant—They Had No Opposition—George Wirth Was Opposed for Second Lieutenant But Was Elected—Company B Was Not in Shape to Be Mustered in—That Will Be Done Later.

Major Simon B. Cameron, of Marlotta, last night mustered in Company A, of the provisional National Guard. The same office was to have been performed with Company B, but the organization lacked the required number of men.

Thirty-one of the whole number of men enrolled and examined for Company A presented themselves. Their names follow: Charles Bone, Frank DeLong, Charles Barr, John Greenberg, Frank Koehler, William Gerecke, David Thomas, E. C. Hackett, Charles E. Scott, Albert Koon, C. Hunterpie, Ezra Peckens, Walton O'Connell, Robert Simpson, H. N. Carr, Thomas Hoonan, Conrad Freehan, William Young, H. Trepp, H. B. Andrews, J. W. Brasing, Oscar Bodenbaugh, John H. Callahan, William Snyder, Ernest Zimmer, William Mosher, B. Neville, Joseph Smith, Joseph Hetter, George Wirth, Solomon Furman.

Major Cameron was assisted in his work by Dr. George H. Halberstadt, of Pavillion, and Sergeant Harry D. Rice, of Lebanon.

The company elected James O. Dimmick, captain; Edwin Gee, first lieutenant, and George Wirth, jr., second lieutenant. Captain Dimmick is the commander of Company A of the present Thirteenth. He volunteered at Mt. Gretna for regular army service, but was rejected by the medical examiner. Lieutenant Gee is an ex-lieutenant of the company and at Mt. Gretna experienced the same disappointment as did Captain Dimmick.

HAD NO OPPOSITION.

There was no contest in the election of captain and first lieutenant. Mr. Wirth, Ezra Peckens and H. E. Thayer were nominated for the second lieutenant. Mr. Peckens did not seek the office and declined the nomination. His declination was not understood by all the members, however, and in the halting he received 5 votes. Mr. Wirth 22 and Mr. Thayer 4. Twenty-seven votes being necessary to a choice, another ballot was ordered after Mr. Peckens' declination had been made known.

Only thirty-two of the members were present. Major Cameron informed Captain Dimmick that he could administer the oath to the absentees. Before being dismissed the company selected Monday night for its regular drill night.

The mustering in of Company B is all that is lacking to complete the formation of the regiment. The Scranton battalion. Major Cameron leaves the city today but will return on receipt of orders from General Magee, commander of the Third brigade of the division. Major Cameron goes to Honesdale today to muster in the company which that city will furnish as a substitute for old Company E in the out-of-town battalion.

If Company B had presented last night a sufficient number of men, ex-Lieutenant H. Sample and ex-Lieutenant W. C. Scott, respectively, would have been elected captain and first lieutenant without opposition. For the second lieutenant the names of Guy R. Relph, W. H. Cutter, John Lack, John Gleason and George Pruner were mentioned. The former having the largest following. Although the company had but thirty-five men examined, eighteen less than the required number, the total enrollment is fifty-one.

MEMBERS OF B.

Following are the names: W. C. Scott, W. H. Cutter, John Lack, T. Evans, J. W. Bulloch, G. W. Carlton, C. A. Dwyer, E. R. Faulkner, E. M. Perti, T. J. Red, J. Saville, John Sample, Samuel Sackett, William Hester, James Robinson, Isaac Jones, J. T. Jones, Jr., Stewart H. Cutler, George Cleveland, R. D. Wolf, Don Padden, G. F. Pruner, J. J. Gleason, Guy R. Relph, Patrick Cosgrove, George Barnes, E. S. Teel, J. A. Menzie, Edward Gorman, Charles Connors, Patrick Walsh, Andrew Swift, Jacob Fox, James Henderson, William Hughes, Albert Hart, Harry Haas, E. H. Belong, Joseph Boshman, John Bingham, Julius Posner, Edward Jones, J. J. Flynn, Edward Sample, Albert Wall, M. J. Feury, Thomas Davis, Whitting, Charles Singer, Charles Collins, Albert Keenan.

OVERCOME BY THE HEAT.

For a Time Patrolman Parry Was in a Serious Condition.

Patrolman David Parry, of North Hyde Park avenue, is very ill at his home as a result of being overcome by heat last Wednesday afternoon while on duty.

Since that time he has been in the constant care of Dr. Reynolds, the family physician, and during Thursday and Thursday night his condition was serious.

BOULEVARD TO BEAR CREEK.

Inspected by Albert Lewis, R. P. Crellin and E. J. Goodwin.

"Albert Lewis, of Bear Creek; R. P. Crellin, of White Haven, and E. J. Goodwin, of Scranton, completed a party which today enjoyed a drive over the new Yatesville boulevard, coming to Pittston in one of Mr. Lewis' fine tourneys and taking dinner at the Eagle hotel," says the Pittston Gazette.

"They were loud in praise of the excellence of the new road and the beauties of the route. Mr. Lewis has been greatly interested in the project and his men have done the work with a change made at the Yatesville terminus today the work is complete. This change consisted in opening a new short line through a beautiful grove, to secure an easier grade and to avoid danger from the railway, which runs just above the old line."

"The permanent western entrance to the boulevard is but a few hundred yards distant from the Delaware and Hudson station at Yatesville. The road is now open to the public, and as soon as its beauties become known to Pittston people it will doubtless be liberally patronized. Connecting with the Wilkes-Barre boulevard, it gives to our people a splendid driveway from Yatesville to Bear Creek. At the latter place is a beautiful grove, surrounded by kitchen, dancing platform, swings, etc."

"Mr. Lewis is very anxious to see the public road between Yatesville and this city placed in better shape in order to attract patronage to the boulevard. He says that the road could be placed in excellent condition in a few days at an expense of not more than $500, and thinks the money could easily be raised by a popular subscription among local livermen and other owners of horses who would be benefited by the improvement. One thing necessary to make the road perfect is an overhead bridge at the Delaware and Hudson crossing. Mr. Lewis says that the plan is entirely feasible and that only a few feet of masonry would be required."

ANTHRACITE PRICES HAVE GONE UPWARD

LACKAWANNA'S EXAMPLE IS FOLLOWED BY OTHERS.

All But One Have Put the Chicago Price at $5.25—A Promise to Maintain It—The Outlook Better—Restriction of the Output for August Is Receiving a Good Deal of Attention—Conference of Coal Presidents Was an Informal Affair.

"The anthracite coal situation at last shows signs of improvement," is the comment of yesterday's New York Commercial Advertiser. "Yesterday the Lehigh advanced its price in Chicago to meet the raise made by the Lackawanna on Monday and this morning it was announced that all the large interests, except one, had taken the same action and had set the price fixed by the Lackawanna, $5.25 per ton in Chicago. The exception is the Cox & Co. corporation, and they are expected to follow later the action of all the other large producers."

"The new conditions suggest, if they do not mark, a decided improvement. Some two weeks ago the opinion was common among the large operators that if one large producer would advance the price the others would follow and that the demoralization of the Western market would be cleared up. The Lackawanna apparently held the same view, for its advance on Monday of this week was a radical one of $1 a ton. Now that the other interests have taken the same action, it remains to be seen what the result will be; but the consensus of opinion is that it must be good."

WILL CLOSE ON SUNDAY.

Employing Barbers of This City Have Organized and Are Prepared to Take Action.

After this there will be no more Sunday shaving in Scranton barber shops, but just how long that new order will continue remains to be seen. This is not the result of a moral crusade. The journeymen barbers object to Sunday work, and the shop owners are not acting for it. Some who have kept open shops have done so for the profit, but because they thought the next man had a right to be closed, and if he was going to be open so would they.

But the movement has assumed a phase now that assures closed shops after tomorrow. Four or five weeks ago some of the shop owners got together to see if they could not enlist all the barbers of the city into the idea of closing at 12 o'clock Saturday night and keeping closed until 8 o'clock Monday morning.

A meeting was held at Music hall and an organization was formed by the selection of Thomas Speicher as chairman, Fred Dimler as secretary, and Charles Frelowsky as treasurer. At this meeting the attendance was not large, and adjournment was made for two weeks before taking definite action. At the second meeting nearly all of the shop owners were present or represented and there was a general sentiment in favor of closing on Saturday nights and leaving the blinds undrawn to let every passer-by see the shop was idle.

BRIDGE COMPANIES AT WAK.

They Have Disagreed Over a Division of the Receipts.

"From tomorrow on the people of Pittston and West Pittston will have the work pointed out by the national and one local, yet of considerable interest," said last evening's Pittston Gazette. "The two local river bridge companies are at odds over the division of the pooled receipts. An article in our issue of yesterday, naming the directors of both companies, declared that no agreement will be reached and that hereafter each company will regulate its own business, which practically means war."

"The facts of the case, briefly, are as follows: For the past seven seasons the bridge companies have pooled their receipts. The Water Street Bridge company receiving 52 1/2 per cent. of the total and the Ferry Bridge company 47 1/2 per cent. The Water Street Bridge company now demands 62 per cent, but the Ferry Bridge company will concede only 54 per cent. Hence the disagreement which promises to last for some time."

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

Number of Young People Had an Enjoyable Time at Lake Ariel.

About 150 couples of Scranton's representative young people attended the "moonlight" excursion which was run over to Lake Ariel last evening. The affair was arranged by three ex-members of the Elite Dancing class, of West Scranton, and nothing was left undone that would lend comfort and enjoyment to the trip.

Lawrence's full orchestra provided music there and back and at the dance pavilion, which was brilliantly illuminated for the occasion. Refreshments were also served. The party returned to the city at 12:30 o'clock. Those who attended reported it as one of the most enjoyable events of the season. G. A. Williams, Thomas Evans and W. A.

BLUFF WOULDN'T WORK.

Blind Applicant for Relief Possessed Some Money.

A blind man tried a game of bluff yesterday with Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, and came out second best.

He said he was Thomas McIntyre and resided in Syracuse. When he applied for help yesterday, he was well dressed and was piloted by a young boy. He wanted transportation to Syracuse.

The Associated Charities agent told him that inasmuch as he had a little money, was well and strong and had a quantity of pencils left for sale, that he could earn his own way. She said aid would not be denied him if he were in need. McIntyre resented this disposition of his case. He dismissed the boy who was leading him and seated himself with the expressed purpose of camping out in the agent's office until her heart softened or until she changed her mind.

When 5 o'clock came the blind applicant for aid was still seated in the office. When told it was time to close the place, he requested the services of a new boy and was piloted to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot, where he purchased a ticket for Syracuse. Among McIntyre's possessions was a permit signed by Mayor James K. McGuire, of Syracuse, granting permission to "Sleepy Tom" to sell lead pencils on the streets of that city.

While in the Associated Charities office McIntyre was several times offered the privileges of the Hillside Home, but he said he wouldn't go to the poor house without being carried there.

SPRING BROOK FARMER.

He Begins to Paint the Town and Gets Arrested.

Scott Rodner, a Spring Brook farmer, is in the city hall police station awaiting a hearing this morning on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was arrested at noon yesterday in Price's store on Washington avenue.

Rodner reached the city early in the morning with a load of vegetables. He sold the produce and proceeded to get drunk and spend his money. He landed in Price's store while on his rounds and refused to leave the place. A policeman was called and Rodner was arrested.

ANTHRACITE PRICES HAVE GONE UPWARD

LACKAWANNA'S EXAMPLE IS FOLLOWED BY OTHERS.

All But One Have Put the Chicago Price at $5.25—A Promise to Maintain It—The Outlook Better—Restriction of the Output for August Is Receiving a Good Deal of Attention—Conference of Coal Presidents Was an Informal Affair.

"The anthracite coal situation at last shows signs of improvement," is the comment of yesterday's New York Commercial Advertiser. "Yesterday the Lehigh advanced its price in Chicago to meet the raise made by the Lackawanna on Monday and this morning it was announced that all the large interests, except one, had taken the same action and had set the price fixed by the Lackawanna, $5.25 per ton in Chicago. The exception is the Cox & Co. corporation, and they are expected to follow later the action of all the other large producers."

"The new conditions suggest, if they do not mark, a decided improvement. Some two weeks ago the opinion was common among the large operators that if one large producer would advance the price the others would follow and that the demoralization of the Western market would be cleared up. The Lackawanna apparently held the same view, for its advance on Monday of this week was a radical one of $1 a ton. Now that the other interests have taken the same action, it remains to be seen what the result will be; but the consensus of opinion is that it must be good."

WILL CLOSE ON SUNDAY.

Employing Barbers of This City Have Organized and Are Prepared to Take Action.

After this there will be no more Sunday shaving in Scranton barber shops, but just how long that new order will continue remains to be seen. This is not the result of a moral crusade. The journeymen barbers object to Sunday work, and the shop owners are not acting for it. Some who have kept open shops have done so for the profit, but because they thought the next man had a right to be closed, and if he was going to be open so would they.

But the movement has assumed a phase now that assures closed shops after tomorrow. Four or five weeks ago some of the shop owners got together to see if they could not enlist all the barbers of the city into the idea of closing at 12 o'clock Saturday night and keeping closed until 8 o'clock Monday morning.

A meeting was held at Music hall and an organization was formed by the selection of Thomas Speicher as chairman, Fred Dimler as secretary, and Charles Frelowsky as treasurer. At this meeting the attendance was not large, and adjournment was made for two weeks before taking definite action. At the second meeting nearly all of the shop owners were present or represented and there was a general sentiment in favor of closing on Saturday nights and leaving the blinds undrawn to let every passer-by see the shop was idle.

BRIDGE COMPANIES AT WAK.

They Have Disagreed Over a Division of the Receipts.

"From tomorrow on the people of Pittston and West Pittston will have the work pointed out by the national and one local, yet of considerable interest," said last evening's Pittston Gazette. "The two local river bridge companies are at odds over the division of the pooled receipts. An article in our issue of yesterday, naming the directors of both companies, declared that no agreement will be reached and that hereafter each company will regulate its own business, which practically means war."

"The facts of the case, briefly, are as follows: For the past seven seasons the bridge companies have pooled their receipts. The Water Street Bridge company receiving 52 1/2 per cent. of the total and the Ferry Bridge company 47 1/2 per cent. The Water Street Bridge company now demands 62 per cent, but the Ferry Bridge company will concede only 54 per cent. Hence the disagreement which promises to last for some time."

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

Number of Young People Had an Enjoyable Time at Lake Ariel.

About 150 couples of Scranton's representative young people attended the "moonlight" excursion which was run over to Lake Ariel last evening. The affair was arranged by three ex-members of the Elite Dancing class, of West Scranton, and nothing was left undone that would lend comfort and enjoyment to the trip.

Lawrence's full orchestra provided music there and back and at the dance pavilion, which was brilliantly illuminated for the occasion. Refreshments were also served. The party returned to the city at 12:30 o'clock. Those who attended reported it as one of the most enjoyable events of the season. G. A. Williams, Thomas Evans and W. A.

BLUFF WOULDN'T WORK.

Blind Applicant for Relief Possessed Some Money.

A blind man tried a game of bluff yesterday with Mrs. Duggan, the Associated Charities agent, and came out second best.

He said he was Thomas McIntyre and resided in Syracuse. When he applied for help yesterday, he was well dressed and was piloted by a young boy. He wanted transportation to Syracuse.

The Associated Charities agent told him that inasmuch as he had a little money, was well and strong and had a quantity of pencils left for sale, that he could earn his own way. She said aid would not be denied him if he were in need. McIntyre resented this disposition of his case. He dismissed the boy who was leading him and seated himself with the expressed purpose of camping out in the agent's office until her heart softened or until she changed her mind.

When 5 o'clock came the blind applicant for aid was still seated in the office. When told it was time to close the place, he requested the services of a new boy and was piloted to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot, where he purchased a ticket for Syracuse. Among McIntyre's possessions was a permit signed by Mayor James K. McGuire, of Syracuse, granting permission to "Sleepy Tom" to sell lead pencils on the streets of that city.

While in the Associated Charities office McIntyre was several times offered the privileges of the Hillside Home, but he said he wouldn't go to the poor house without being carried there.

SPRING BROOK FARMER.

He Begins to Paint the Town and Gets Arrested.

Scott Rodner, a Spring Brook farmer, is in the city hall police station awaiting a hearing this morning on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was arrested at noon yesterday in Price's store on Washington avenue.

Rodner reached the city early in the morning with a load of vegetables. He sold the produce and proceeded to get drunk and spend his money. He landed in Price's store while on his rounds and refused to leave the place. A policeman was called and Rodner was arrested.

TROLLEY WORK STOPPED.

Main Avenue Double Track Meets with Objections.

Street Commissioner O'Boyle yesterday ordered the Scranton Railway company to stop work on South Main avenue, between Washburn and Jackson streets, where operations have been in progress for some time preparatory to the laying of a double track. On July 1 the company obtained a permit to relay tracks on South Main avenue with the necessary switch; also to relay the "Y" at Jackson street and Main avenue.

HIS MONEY AND RING GONE.

Hostler McKune, of Cusick's Livery Suffers from Absent Minded Act.

Daniel McKune, a hostler in Cusick's livery stable, took his pocket book and placed it on the washstand while he used some soap and water on his face. He left the room temporarily, and came back to find the pocket book gone. It contained $27 in cash and a gold ring valued at $10.

He is at a loss to know whom to suspect for the theft. He is also at a loss to know what possessed him to take his valuables out of his pocket and place them on the washstand while he was arranging his toilet.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

Alleged Brass Thief Is in the Custody of the Police.

Peter Kaub, the last of a trio charged with stealing rabbit metal and brass from the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, was arrested last night by Patrolmen Peenan and Jones.

Kaub was found at his home in Bellevue, and was locked in the city hall police station to await a hearing this morning. The complaint against him was made by George Okell, agent for the company.

TAKEN TO SEPARATE HOSPITAL.

Husband Goes to the Moses Taylor and Wife to the Lackawanna.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, of Breck street, were removed from their home to separate hospitals yesterday. Mrs. Moore going to the Lackawanna and Mr. Moore to the Moses Taylor.

Mrs. Moore has been sick for a long time, and he became sick a few weeks ago. They have no family. That is the reason they preferred to go to the hospitals for treatment.

SOME UNUSUAL TITLES.

Names of a Few Books Which Have Not Been Copyrighted.

The journalist, who had just written a delightful little brochure entitled "The Liberty of the Press; or, How to Knock the Props From Under the Archimedeum Lever That Moves the World," was calling on Mr. Young at the library to get it copyrighted. Mr. Young gracefully referred him to a clerk in that department, and as the clerk was getting the paper ready he was making himself interesting by talking.

"Yes, sir," he was saying, "I rather think you have hit upon a good title for your book. Of course some people won't know what the dickens—I beg your pardon—what on earth it means, but that don't make any difference to you. They are stupid people who wouldn't buy it anyhow. Still there's a good deal in a title. Of course I don't mean the kind our rich girls love to marry," and the clerk chuckled, "Titles of books, you understand. I just made a list I came across today. They are from different sources. Here's a few that funny fellow Tom Hood gave to the Duke of Devonshire to go on some dummy books for an entrance door to his library: 'McAdam's Views in Rhodes,' 'Boyle on Steam Designs for Frizzes, by an archet explorer,' 'Pygmalion, by Lord Bacon,' 'Cursory Remarks on Sweating, by Jupiter,' 'Percy Vere, in forty volumes,' 'Cook's specimens of the Sandwich Tongue,' 'On Sea Throat and the Migration of the Swallow,' 'Kosciusko on the Right of Poles to Stick Up for Themselves,' 'Lamb's Recollections of Suett,' 'Chronological Account of the Date Palm' and several others."

"Then there were some old volumes of the time of Cromwell, which had titles like these: 'Crumbs of Comfort for the Chickens of the Covenant,' 'High-Heel Shoes for Dwarfs in Holiness,' 'Hooks and Eyes for Believers,' 'The Spiritual Mustard Pot to Make the Soul Sneeze with Devotion,' 'Tobacco Battered and the Pipes Shattered About Their Ears That Idly Idelize so Loathsome a Vanity, by a Volley of Holy Shot Thundered From Mount Helicon,' 'A Poem Against the Use of Tobacco, by Joshua Sylvester,' 'The Snuffers of Divine Love,' 'Seven Sobs of a Sorrowful Soul for Sin,' and some more of the same sort. Added to these are a few scattering ones like these: 'Waves of Sound and the High C,' 'A Jawey Forever, by an Active Prize Fighter,' 'A Rich American, or the Earl's Choice,' and so on through a list of odd ones."

"The clerk handed the journalist a folded paper.

"Thank you," said the journalist.

"Fifty cents, please. Anything more today?" smiled the clerk, and the incident was closed.—Washington Star.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.

The night has a thousand cars, or, at least, seems to have a thousand to him who would stand in the house without disturbing his wife's dreams.—Chicago News.

think you have hit upon a good title for your book. Of course some people won't know what the dickens—I beg your pardon—what on earth it means, but that don't make any difference to you. They are stupid people who wouldn't buy it anyhow. Still there's a good deal in a title. Of course I don't mean the kind our rich girls love to marry," and the clerk chuckled, "Titles of books, you understand. I just made a list I came across today. They are from different sources. Here's a few that funny fellow Tom Hood gave to the Duke of Devonshire to go on some dummy books for an entrance door to his library: 'McAdam's Views in Rhodes,' 'Boyle on Steam Designs for Frizzes, by an archet explorer,' 'Pygmalion, by Lord Bacon,' 'Cursory Remarks on Sweating, by Jupiter,' 'Percy Vere, in forty volumes,' 'Cook's specimens of the Sandwich Tongue,' 'On Sea Throat and the Migration of the Swallow,' 'Kosciusko on the Right of Poles to Stick Up for Themselves,' 'Lamb's Recollections of Suett,' 'Chronological Account of the Date Palm' and several others."

"Then there were some old volumes of the time of Cromwell, which had titles like these: 'Crumbs of Comfort for the Chickens of the Covenant,' 'High-Heel Shoes for Dwarfs in Holiness,' 'Hooks and Eyes for Believers,' 'The Spiritual Mustard Pot to Make the Soul Sneeze with Devotion,' 'Tobacco Battered and the Pipes Shattered About Their Ears That Idly Idelize so Loathsome a Vanity, by a Volley of Holy Shot Thundered From Mount Helicon,' 'A Poem Against the Use of Tobacco, by Joshua Sylvester,' 'The Snuffers of Divine Love,' 'Seven Sobs of a Sorrowful Soul for Sin,' and some more of the same sort. Added to these are a few scattering ones like these: 'Waves of Sound and the High C,' 'A Jawey Forever, by an Active Prize Fighter,' 'A Rich American, or the Earl's Choice,' and so on through a list of odd ones."

"The clerk handed the journalist a folded paper.

"Thank you," said the journalist.

"Fifty cents, please. Anything more today?" smiled the clerk, and the incident was closed.—Washington Star.

It Can't Be Done.

The night has a thousand cars, or, at least, seems to have a thousand to him who would stand in the house without disturbing his wife's dreams.—Chicago News.

Can't Afford

To lose your trade. We are continually on the watch for good goods at less price to you to hold you with us.

THE BICYCLE CONTEST

is postponed for four weeks to every body a little more time; come in and take a look at it; it is the best in the market.

A few of the leaders here: Sam Kemmer 217 Charles Greaver 141 Cora Hallet 237 John Kurtz 151 Katie Kirt 184 Charles Wagner 210

SOME SPECIAL GOODS here that are usually 10c, now 4c LEMON JUICE Extractor (glass) 4c TABLE TUMBLER, blown glass, thin and engraved, usually 5c, each; our price 4c CHAMONIS SPICES, made up of 20c chamois pieces, its the best material for cleaning windows, or polishing smooth surfaces, metal, silver, etc., usually 10c, our price 4c DECORATED ICE CREAM DISHES, mostly blue, worth 5c, reduced to 2 for 4c

JAYE OF PEARL, 5 inches 4c FLUORIDE LIME 4c RUSSET, 3 lb. package 4c HILBY'S Best Shoe Blacking 4c INSECT POWDER, 5c 4c SHELF PAPER, wide, 2 1/2 in. pkg. 4c AMMONIA, 5 pint bottle 4c

POT COVERS, 6 to 12 inches 4c GALVANIZED soap dishes 4c LARGE CRIMPED tube cake pan 4c PERFORATED bottom tin sieve 4c BLUE STOPPER 4c

POT COVERS, 6 to 12 inches 4c GALVANIZED soap dishes 4c LARGE CRIMPED tube cake pan 4c PERFORATED bottom tin sieve 4c BLUE STOPPER 4c

POT COVERS, 6 to 12 inches 4c GALVANIZED soap dishes 4c LARGE CRIMPED tube cake pan 4c PERFORATED bottom tin sieve 4c BLUE STOPPER 4c

POT COVERS, 6 to 12 inches 4c GALVANIZED soap dishes 4c LARGE CRIMPED tube cake pan 4c PERFORATED bottom tin sieve 4c BLUE STOPPER 4c

POT COVERS, 6 to 12 inches 4c GALVANIZED soap dishes 4c LARGE CRIMPED tube cake pan 4c PERFORATED