THIS AND THAT.

Blindness to most of us would be worse than death. To go through life with the bright world darkening, with the glory of mountain and valley, the wonder of flower and leaf a blank, and more than all to see not the dear faces of our loved ones is too awful a prospect to even dream of without a shudder.

CADDEN WIELDED A SMALL CLUB

THAT IS THE CHARGE L. B. QUICK MAKES AGAINST HIM.

IN EVIDENCE OF THE FACT THAT THE CLUB LANDED QUICK DISPLAYS A LUMP BEHIND THE LEFT EAR THAT IS AS LARGE AS A GOOSE EGG—FAILURE ON THE PART OF CADDEN TO PAY HIS MEN SEMI-MONTHLY CAUSED THE TROUBLE—NAMES OF THE MEN WHO REFUSED TO WORK.

Failure on the part of Contractor M. A. Cadden, of 1125 Luzerne street, to observe the provisions of the semi-monthly pay law and a recent agreement between carpenters and contractors with reference to a semi-monthly pay caused a strike yesterday morning at a building on North Washington avenue, which Mr. Cadden had the contract for constructing.

The men who quit work were James Wippish, James Paul, James Evans, William Sumburn, William Everett and L. B. Quick. They allege that they should have received their two weeks' pay a week ago, last Saturday, but when it was not forthcoming concluded to give the contractor a week's grace or "standing time" as it is usually called.

Last Saturday contrary to expectations the ghost did not walk and yesterday morning the men held a conference after they got around and as a result refused to go to work until paid. When Contractor Cadden arrived on the scene soon after he was informed of the action of the men and upon their refusal to go to work as he directed they were discharged. The men allege that he said he would not pay them until he was paid.

Later in the day Contractor Cadden paid the men and they returned to the building and as soon as the strikers heard of this they proceeded to induce the men to quit. One saw the force of the argument and stopped. The other continued to work and was promptly hustled out of the building.

Last night L. B. Quick, as the representative of the strikers went to Cadden's residence to ascertain how soon their money would be forthcoming. Quick avers that no sooner had Cadden opened the door of his residence in response to the knock than Cadden hit him behind the left ear with a small club. Whether this statement is true or not will probably be shown later.

At all events Quick returned from Cadden's home with a lump behind his left ear as large as a goose egg. He straightway went before Alderman John and had a warrant issued for Cadden's arrest on a charge of assault and battery. After a hearing held at the court house, in the sum of $300 which was furnished.

Cadden says he will have Quick arrested for making threats.

MONEY FROM SOLDIERS.

Plans Perfected for Receiving It in This City.

The details of the plan by which money from soldiers will be sent to their families at home through Major C. R. Parke and the Soldiers' Relief association have been completed.

A large quantity of receipts have been printed here for use by Dr. Parke. After the next pay day he will announce the day on which remittances for home will close. He will give receipts to the soldiers for the money. The receipts will be mailed by the soldiers to the persons who are to receive the money from Dr. B. Atherton, secretary of the association.

To guard against fraud and error, Dr. Parke will forward to Secretary Atherton a list enumerating the remittances he has received. Comparison with the list can then be made as the receipts are presented.
