Lewis Watkins played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered the church. The bride passed up the aisle leaning on the arm of her father, attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Walters, as bridesmaid. John Langan, of Hampton street, acted as best man. The groom met the party at the altar railing, where Rev. E. J. McHenry, rector, performed the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a pretty gown of brown silk and carried a bouquet. Miss Walters, the bridesmaid, wore a costume of white mulle, pink ribbon trimmings, and also carried roses.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where a reception was held. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were in attendance. A bountiful wedding repast was served.

This is a popular move on the part of the young men, and it will serve the purpose of advertising their annual excursion, which they will run this year to Lake Ariel on Aug. 9.

CLAY PIPE CLUB.

Members Object to the Transfer of Invitations. Officers and members of the "Clay Pipe club" are annoyed by the report that invitations to the club's outing at Lake Ariel on Saturday have been transferred by recipients, despite the words "invitations not transferable" printed thereon.

As each invitation issued is accompanied by a free railroad ticket, there seems to be ample reason that the club should object to the reported transfers.

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

MRS. BARBARA ROBINSON CAPTURED AT LAST.

She Is Charged by Her Husband with Bigamy—Joe Quinn Badly Cut His Foot By Stepping on a Piece of Glass—Arthur Donnelly Bitten by a Dog Owned by George Nape—It Was Shot—Thomas Murphy Arrested and Discharged—Miss Mabel Coleman's Birthday Party.

Six weeks ago warrants were issued by Alderman Ruddy for the arrest of Mrs. Barbara Robinson and Frank Rooney, both of No. 5 mountain, on the charges of bigamy, preferred by Frank Robinson, the husband of the woman. In the information lodged with the magistrate it is stated that Rooney and Mrs. Robinson eloped and were married. They returned to Rooney's home and have been living there since. Detectives and special officers made trips to the mountain, but the alleged bigamists could not be apprehended.

Special Officer James Ruane, a recent acquisition to Alderman Ruddy's court, went to Rooney's home at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. He laid in ambush until 6 o'clock, when Mrs. Robinson-Rooney appeared in the yard. The officer approached her and asked for his breakfast. He was invited to the house, and the meal being over, he questioned the woman as to the whereabouts of her second husband. She told him that Rooney had left at 2 o'clock in the morning and, in a confidential way, told the officer that he was eluding arrest, hence his reason for going to work so early. She refused to state where he was employed.

The warrant for her arrest was then read to her. She was taken before the alderman and held in $300 bail, which was furnished by the alderman. Special Officer Ruane left at midnight to meet Rooney this morning.

Arthur Donnelly, son of Patrick Donnelly, the grocer and hotelman, of Beech street, was bitten last evening by a dog belonging to George Nape, of 618 Maple street. Donnelly is a newspaper editor, and was called by a member of the Nape family to look an evening paper there. As he entered the gate the dog jumped at him, biting his right leg a little above the knee. The injury was dressed immediately and the boy was taken to his home.

Lieutenant of Police Zang went to the residence of Mr. Nape last night and the latter willingly turned the dog over to be shot.

MURPHY THREW STONES.

Thomas Murphy was arraigned before Alderman Lentes last night on the charge of throwing stones with the intent to kill. Stephen Kallina, the prosecutor, alleged that Murphy recently when passing his blacksmith shop, made an insulting remark which he resented. He approached the defendant with a view of ascertaining the reason for the uncalled slur.

FOOT BADLY CUT.

Joe Quinn, the seven-year-old son of Joseph Quinn, of Irving avenue and Bigfoot street, while out playing with other barefooted lads yesterday, stepped on a broken bottle in a chummy manner. The result was a deep laceration of his right foot. Dr. Quinn was summoned to attend the boy.
