DEATH OF MICHAEL QUINN.

Succumbed to Typhoid Fever Yesterday at 4 O'Clock p. m.

Michael J. Quinn, of Fallbrook street, died of typhoid fever at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Deceased was born here fifty-two years ago and his life was spent in usefulness. He was a carpenter, employed in the Delaware and Hudson company's locomotive

For twenty years Mr. Quinn was identified with the Knights of Father Mathew society and for some time he has been prominent among the membership of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent association. He was a consistent Christian, loving husband and indulgent father, who will be much missed by many friends. Deceased is survived by a wife and sons Patrick, Peter, Michael, Frank, James and Robert and daughters Jennie. Mary and Katherine, all unmar-Michael, James and Mary are now ill with the dreaded fever that rendered toem fatheriess. The famfly's affliction brought Patrick home from Sayre, where he was engaged as a boilermaker, and he was stricken with fever the next day-Thursday. Funeral announcement will be made

sentatives Neglect Business. The city building was thronged with public-spirited taxpayers last evening. They anxiously awaited councilmanic action on the mayor's veto of paving and fire hydrant contracts. But they waited in vain. There was a quorum of each branch of councils in the building and still the chairman had to declare the meeting adjourned for lack of quorums. A lively time had been expected, Among those present were Attorney Stuart, representing Lindsay & Coon, the lowest bidders on paying; Attorney John M. Harris, of Scranton, representing Blair & Kennedy, next to the lowest bidders, who got the contract, and Mr. O'Hara, of Scranton, whose lowest bid on fire hydrants-according to specifications-had been rejected. Everybody was on the qui vive to catch the first important move. The absorbing question was whether councils would sustain the mayor's veto or pass the resolutions over his head and expose the city to costly litigation. The question is still being turned over in many interested minds which deplore the fact that there is no definite time for action.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Beatrice Mangan, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mangan, of Gordon avenue, died vesterday morning at 2.30 o'clock. She was one of twins, the other having died one week ago. The funeral will be held this afternoon. Interment will be made in St.

Dr. D. L. Bailey and C. R. Smith went to Windsor bass fishing yesterday afternoon.

John Kase, a former prominent busiman of this city, now a resident of Scranton, was in town yesterday greeting old friends. He has just refrom Atlantic City and will shortly journey northward to spend a part of this month. Though well advanced in years, Mr. Kase is enjoying the best of health. Tucker & Maxey find it necessary to use the entire first floor of their Church street building for their store purposes and this will necessitate the moving of the meat market now in a portion of the building to the place lately occupied by W. V. Fuller and which is now being repaired for its occupancy.

Miss Grace Bagley, of Carbondale, called on friends in town yesterday. Miss Margaret Thompson called on friends in Carbondale yesterday. After having spent the past two visiting friends in Wayne county, Claude Stocker has returned to his home on Main street. Council met in regular session last night. Louis Gronfiur appeared and sald that Chief McGinley arrested a man last week and as he had no money to pay his fine, he, Mr. Gonfiur, went security for the fine and the man had not come around to pay him yet. He wanted to have the fine of four dol-lars applied to procure a license for his brother to peddle here, but the ouncil could not see the point, and refused to take any action on the matter. Mr. McDermott appeared in behalf of Artesian Hose company and wanted some action taken by council to show the court that they were not opposed to having the Third ward polling place located in the hose house. The council refused to take action and referred the matter to the burgess.

Dr. Graves appeared and complained f the condition of the street in front of his property, and the street commitee was instructed to have the street and culvert causing the trouble put in satisfactory condition. Mr. Donovan said he held some bonds and the couons had run out and he could not draw his interest. The printing committee was instructed to have some ourons printed.

Appropriations were made for expen ditures of the borough for the year 1898 as follows: For interest on borough bonds, $110; for cross-walks, $50; for printing, $50; for fire department, for 12 hydrants a $20 each, $240; for 17 arc lights, $75 each, $1,275; for board of health, $130; for attorney, $15; for police, $550; for secretary salary, $50; for burgess sayary,$25; for borough building repairs, $275; for streets and bridges, $500. Mr. Edmonds reported that the street committee had conferred with Mr. Stocker in reference to his sidewalk, and Mr. Stocker wanted the borough to give him a special grade, which they are willing to do and to build a retaining will for him, which they will not do. A resolution was introduced and adopted providing for the cutting off from Aug. 1st of the following are lights: On Main street in the middle of the block between Rushbrook and Bacon streets, also one at the junction of Main and "M" streets, one at the junction of Main street and Ridge road and one on the East Side on the corner of "A" and Third streets. Della Fox is the owner of some proper. ty in St. Louis which she is apt to lose if she doesn't pay her taxes. She owes $15.75, and the city has begun suit against her for that amount. Felicia Mallet may come to this country next season. She is appearing now in Berlin. She was the principal in "Enfant Prodigue" in Paris when the pantomime was given at the Bouffes Parielennes. Sir Henry Irving has gone on a tour, playing the small suburban theaters, as well as the big provincial ones. This is a departure for Sir Henry. He has never deigned to play in small houses before. The Duchess of Devonshire has laid the corner stone of a life-saving station to be the late William Terriss. A new theater has also been named in his honor. Robert Taber, who has taken a good place on the London stage, will play Mac-duff in the performance of "Macbeth" to be given by Forbes Robertson and Mrs. Patrick Campbell at the Lyceum. Nance O'Neill will undertake a star-erected at Eastbourne as a memorial to ring tour next season in a new emotional play. Olga Nethersole sends word that she has four new pieces ready to introduce to America. Aunt Louisa Eldridge will be in the cast of "The Turtle." John McCullough was at one time play-ing "Virginius in Syracuse, N. Y. In the drama occurs the line, "There is no public virtue left in Syracuse." Scarcely rad the tragedian sounded the words when a man in the parquet sprang to his feet, exclaiming, "No, by jingo, nor in Utiky, either."

The whole of the level space in the Madison Square Garden. New York, has been bottomed with lead to make it hold water to a depth of four feet, and on this lake are to be floated United States and Spanish fleets in miniature. Accounts of the Kiralfy nautical shows in London have described them as wonderfully illusory, but the preparations for a dupli-cation here of the naval events of the war are nevertheless astonishing in ex-Charles Frohman's season in London pearance. He introduced three American players with unquestionable success. They were Mirs Russell, Mrs. Carter and Mr. Gillette, and each of them was sup-ported by a company sent over from New York. The plays in which they carned acceptation were Belasco's "The Heart of Maryland," Harte's "Sue," Miss Dowling's "Dangerfield," Gillerte's "Secret Service," and that actor-author's adaptation, "Too Much Johnson."

Kyrle Bellew and Mrs. James Brown otter will part company next season, for the first time since their association Both will remain in London. They had planned to tour the English colonles, beginning next month, but owing to the advantageous offers made to each seper-ately by leading London theaters, they will remain here. Mrs. Potter will be will remain here. Mrs. Potter will be leading lady for Beerbohm Tree in "The Three Musketeers," at Her Majesty's the-ater in November. Bellew joins Charles Wyndham's company, at the Criterion, for the season. Mrs. Potter says these engagements will not interfere in any way with the business partnership existing between herself and Bellew. Charles Frohman has arranged with A. H. Canmby to manage his New York Garden theater. It will be devoted ex-clusively to new and high class producions, and later on a special company will be organized to occupy the house for a certain number of weeks in each season. The next season will open on September itled "Little Miss Not On the same date it will be presented at the Lyric theater, London, It is described as a story with incidents laid Hyde are visiting at the home of Mrs. in the Scotch Highlands, written by Hen ry Graham, with music by Arthur God-frey and John Crook. The second attraction at he Garden will be Mr. Richard Manfield's production of "Cyrano ce Bergerac." Among the new pieces to folow will be a comedy just purchased by Mr. Frohman especially for the Garden two original plays for Henry Miller and Annie Russell, and another musical play or the early spring weeks.

The acquistion of Cuba by the United States will turn the attention of managers to that territory. Undoubtedly, Havana is destined to be included in the itinerary of certain companies visiting the south. It is within easy reach of Tampa and New Orleans is a convenient sea trip. When the "Paris of the Au-tilles" falls into Uncle Sam's hands, grand and comic opera companies, vaudeville and minstrel troupes, musical com-edies and magicians will find it a profit ble place to visit, but there will be little field for serious plays in English. The Taton theater in Havan is one of the noted opera houses of the world. It compares favorably with La Scala, of Milan. Its seating capacity is about 4,000. other principal theaters are the Albisu and Jane, while there are several minor places, including a couple of vaudeville houses. Performances are not usually given on consecutive nights, three or four week being the usual number. The bil is changed each time, the repertoire idea finding most favor with Havanese play-

READY FOR ANY OLD JOB.

From the Youth's Companion A distinguished musician was waited upo; one day in his study by a rather seedy-looking stranger, who said to him with what seemed to be genuine emotion "May a humble brother musician claim your sympathy for one moment? I don't ask you to give me anything, but will you lend a dollar or two? You can com mand $10 a lesson, or as much more as you choose to ask, while I think myself fortunate if I can get a pupil now and them at a half-dollar a sitting." "My friend," said the other, touched by this appeal, "parhaps I can help you bet-ter than by lending you money. "What your branch of music?" "I give lessons on the violin."

"Well, we will see what you can do Here is a violin. I will sit down to the piano and we will play a duet." He whipped a fine violin from its case handed it to the stranger, seated rimself at the plane and placed a sheet of music

The caller rasped the bow across the strings, leaned forward, looked at the omposition and shook his head. "Sharps?" he said. "Sharps?" I never play in sharps."

The distinguished musician took the violin from him, replaced it in its case and coldly remarked:
"My friend, what you need is a job as night watchman in a soap lactory. "Will you get it for me?" eagerly asked the caller.
