died in an hour and a half from the effects of the drug and a hemorrhage.

He had been in ill health for over a year, and was subject to hemorrhages.

Two weeks ago Friday he came home from work sick and was unable to work since. He found great difficulty in sleeping and was in the habit of using laudanum as an opiate. He board-

going to take enough to make him

sleep 15 hours. At 9.30 she heard him

THIS AND THAT.

"If transporting anthracite were not an exceedingly profitable undertaking why do the railroads in the anthracite regions burn bituminous coal on their engines?" says the Individual Operators' Journal. "This latter fuel costs them delivered at the nearest point or their lines from $1.15 to $1.50 per ton, to which should be added the cost of hauling to their distributing points Buckwheat coal, which would do the same work, costs about 69 cents at breakers on their lines. But they get $1.20 freight to haul this to market, where it is sold for $1.80. In other words, soft coal at $1.50 would be 30 cents less than the fuel they themselves mine, not taking into consideration the cost of transporting the anthracite to tide. How much of this thirty cents represents the cost of transportation? If it is not thirty cents or less, then the operating departments of these roads are carrying on an expensive business. This, however, is not probable, as such details are calculated with great care. And when a competing fuel is used by its competitor to haul its product to a market where each must fight for existence, does it not look as though one was fast losing

The death of Judge Ikeler, of the Columbia-Montour judicial district, leaves two vacancies in the state judiclary to be filled by Governor Hastings. The other is in Allegheny county, where Judge W. D. Porter has resigned to take the place of the late Judge Wickham on the Superior court When these vacancies have been filled Hastings will have appointed seventeen Common pleas udges and nine Superior court judges, Of the former all but three are still on the bench, while two of the Superior court judges have retired. He has appointed more judges than any of his predecessors, and yet he has never had the good fortune to name a Supreme court judge.

There will be several changes in the personnel of the Supreme court during the next administration. The term of Chief Justice Sterrett expires in 1900 and he will not be a candidate for reelection. Judge Green is next to the oldest in commission, and he will become chief justice. This will leave a vacancy. Judges Williams, McCollum and Dean will probably retire before the expiration of their terms.

Michael Millar, the Cedar avenue undertaker, has received a very interesting letter from his daughter, Mrs. S. Spruks, who, with her husband, is traveling in Germany. They are now in the town of Aachen. The feeling there against this country is so intense that it is not politic for one to speak favorably of the United States. Mrs. Spruks sent a newspaper clipping, a column in length, which stated in detail how the Spanish boats entered the New York harbor and blew up the Brooklyn bridge. The letter states that it is next to impossible to convince the people of that section that the reports | morning for a ten days' visit to Boston.

LAKE ARIEL WAS THE SCENE OF THE FESTIVITIES.

There Was a Game of Ball, Other Sports of Various Kinds, Boating and Speechmaking-members of the Club Entertained Their Guests in Royal Fashion-Some of the Prize-Winners-Names of Those Who Attended This Very Enjoyable Event.

The Clay Pipe club's outing at Lake Ariel Saturday was made up of 200 city and county officials, excouncilmen, professional men, and others. Some went on the morning train, but the biggest part remained until 2.35 in the afternoon. There was an abundance of liquid and solid refreshments, and together with those were games, boating and speeches to make the day pleasant. City Engineer Phillips proved himself a most capable en-

At 3.30 a baseball game commenced. On one side were the players chosen from the city hall employes, captained by Harry Hatton; and their opponents comprised a scrub team selected by Councilman Sheridan. The score at the end of the third inning was a tie, 8-8, and Umpire M. J. O'Toole declared the contest a draw. The batting order was as follows:

City hall attaches—Frank Phillips, 2c.; M. J. Walsh, c.; P. J. Hickey, 2b.; Patrick J. O'Boyle, ss.; Robert Murray, 1b.; M. J. O'Malley, 3b.; Richard Beamish, 1f.; Edward Elsele, cf.; Evan Thomas, rf.;

GROSS EARNINGS OF B. & O. Show a Big Increase Over the Year

The fact that the gross earnings o the Baltimore and Ohio railroad from the operations of the roads for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1898, reached the splendid sum of $27,642,432, an increase of $2,060,310 over the similar period of 1897, has created considerable favorable comment in financial circles.

The receivers, after they were appointed and had examined the situation carefully, were confident that if their policy was carried out, the earnings of the railroad would be very greatly augmented, and, as is well known, they began a series of improvements that, while not yet completed, have progressed sufficiently to demonstrate beyond question that the Balti more and Ohio railroad has an earning capacity that will place it in the ranks of the profitable railroads in the country in a few years. The two million dollars increase in gross was made only with an increase of $281,391 in expenses, giving a net increase of $1,778,-919, the approximate net earnings from the roads alone for the year being $7. 248,947, over $800,000 in excess of what the fixed charges will be under the plan of reorganization. In addition to these earnings there is a miscellaneous net income from various sources of about $900,000. It must be remembered that during last July and August there were coal strikes in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, which in two months cost the Baltimore and Ohio more than half a million dollars and that never in the history of the country have rates been
