The flag was unfuried by Comrades Jacob Henry, I. Z. Jones and Albro, of Post 139, Grand Army of the Republic A firing squad from Camp 8, Sons of Veterans in charge of Private John W. McGraw fired the proper salute, both for the flag and the original colonies. Then the immense concourse broke into cheers and sank the "Star Spangled Banrer." The choir from the Tabernacle Congregational church led the singing.

Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the Scranton Street Baptist church, was then introduced and delivered an address upon "Patriotism from a Scriptural View." The speaker was very eloquent and held his audience throughout the length of his address. "Down Dewey's Way" was given a creditable rendition by a chorus of children from the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church. Thomas T. Howell sang "The Battleship Maine" and did it justice, having a superb voice. City Superintendent George Howell was the next speaker and in his usual spirited and masterly style veritibly carried his audience with him. His J. W. Eunnell, Charles Mansfield, Gus theme was "Patriotism and Present Results."

The Klondike quartette, comprising the well known young vocalists. Caleb Evans, Benjamin Morgan, James Mc-Nulty and Reese Reese sang a selec-tion, as also did the Tabernacle quartette, comprising Mrs. E. Evans, Mrs. H. E. Reese, H. Jones and Jacob Reese. The Misses Armstrong and Bradshaw recited a humorous but patriotic diaorne H. E. Paine, of Post 139, was called upon and delivered an interesting and eloquent address, using the "Flag" as his theme. The patriotic gathering was brought to a fitting end by all singing "America."

MARRIED SATURDAY EVENING. Miss Mary Ann Jones, of Swetland street, was united in marriage to David John Jones, of North Hyde Park avenue, Saturday evening at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Jones, of 530 North Hyde Park avenue. Many friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony.

MORRISON-CHERRY NUPTIALS. Miss Mary E. Cherry, of Philadelphia, and William Morrison Stitt, jr., of New York city, were quietly married Saturday at noon at the parsonage of thte Washburn Street Presbyterian church. The pastor, Rev. J. P. Moffatt, performed the ceremony and the couple were unattended, save by H. H. Beidleman, the Spruce street bookman. The bride was attired in a neat travling costume. Mr. Stitt, jr., is a salesman for a prominent publishing house in New York city. Strangely enough Rev. Moffatt was the only Presbyterian minister in Scranton Saturday and the couple would be mar-

Invitations had been issued and many guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of these popular young peo ple. In addition to other pleasant diversions, several selections were given by the choir of the Jackson Street Baptist church, of which Mr. and Mrs. Davis are both members. Later dainty refreshments were served by the genial hostess. A pleasant outing was given the young ladies of the Washburn Street

Presbyterian church Sabbath school, Friday afternoon at Nay Aug park by their teacher, Miss Sara A. Jones. Luncheon was served at 5 o'clock. Those who comprised the party were the Misses Rhoda Elias, Minnie Boldry, Jennie Jenkins, Mabel Canfield, Mamie Williams, Katle Chase, Helen Jones, Edna Stevens, Margaret Jones Christine Fellows and Nettie Davis and Esther Davis, of Wyoming.

WILL DRILL AT BOSTON.

Thirty strong, and in full uniform embers of St. Paul's Pioneer corps left here early yesterday morning for Boston to attend the national convention of the Total Abstinence Union of America, to be held there this week. it was the intention to enter any competition drill that would be held, but none will be held and instead the corps will give an exhibition drill. It is expected that the boys will make a great showing, as they are very proficient and have been perfecting themselves recently by constant drilling. The detail is as follows: Walter Mc-

Nicholas, captain; Timothy McCoy, first lieutenant, and John Murray, first sergeant; Privates Michael Battle, Anthony Cummings, Frank Carroll, John Gaughan, J. J. Farrell, John Larkin, Daniel Lenihan, W. Haskins, John P.

NERVOUS DEPRESSION.

[A TALK WITH MRS. PINKHAM.] A woman with the blues is a very uncomfortable person. She is illogical, unhappy and frequently hysterical. The condition of the mind known as "the blues," nearly always, with women, results from diseased organs of generation. It is a source of wonder that in this age of advanced medical science, any person should still believe that mere force of will and determination will overcome depressed spirits and nervousness in women. These troubles are indications of disease.

Every woman who doesn't understand her condition should write to Lynn, Mass., to Mrs. Pinkham for her advice. Her advice is thorough common sense, and is the counsel of a learned woman of great experience. Read the story of Mrs. F. S. BENNETT, Westphalia, Kansas, as told in the following letter:

" DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I have suffered for over two years with falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in, such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped.

"I am now gaining strength and flesh, and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all distressed, suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to aid you.'

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's remedy for woman's ills. More than a million women have been benefited by it.

church and of the North Scranton Con gregational church will conduct a joint excursion to Lake Ariel Thursday, August 11. Great preparations are be ing made for the event and it is expected that a large crowd will attend. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis, of Eynon street, are being congratulated over the arrival of a son. A social will be held at the Hampton Street Methodist church next Thursday evening which gives promise of being a first-class affair. The ladies of the Ladies' Aid society are making the arrangements.

The funeral of the infant son of John E. Lewis was held Saturday morning from the parental residence, 218 South Hyde Park avenue. Services were private and Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the Scranton Street Baptist church, officiated. Interment was made at the Washburn street cemetery. The funeral services of Miss Eva Roderick were held from the residence of her father, at 1217 Hampton street. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. F. P. Doty, pastor of Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. There were many floral tributes of love from friends who loved Miss Eva and sorrow at her early decease. Interment was made in Washburn street cemetery.

Miss Louisa Whalen, of Luzerne street, recently received a letter from her brother, Matthew Whalen, who is seaman on board the flagship New York. He says "We had a hot time of Barry. t," speaking of the destruction of Adniral Cervera's fleet. He intends forwarding a few mementoes of the battle soon. He sent several copies of the "Squadron Bulletin," a fleet paper, issued aboard the flagship and dated July 3, 1898. Therein is contained a graphic and sallor-like description of the battle. It calls the day a red-letter one. The description of the chase after the Cristobal Colon is particularly spirited. The names of the principal surrendering officers of the Spanish ship are also recorded. The issue concludes with a reprint of the telegram issued to the
