ROW ESCAPE OF YOUNG BENJAMIN JONES.

is Leg Caught In the Spokes of a Heavy Dray-Unconscious When Released - His Injuries Serious. Driver Boy James Wyatt Nearly Impaled on a Latch Bar-Grace Turner, Niece of Mrs. Thomas Lowry, is Dead.

Benjamin Jones, 11 years of age, a son of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Jones, of North Filmore avenue, will be confined to his home for some time as the result of a serious injury which he met with yesterday afternoon. The accident occurred on Jackson street. near its intersection with Bromley avenue.

Young Jones was riding in one of R. F. Post's drays and fell over the side in between the body of the wagon and the wheel. His leg was caught between the spokes and severely strained before the driver could bring the wagon to a standstill. The boy was wedged in such a way as to require the aid of several bystanders to extricate him from his perlious position. He was unconscious when taken out and was removed to his parents' residence, where a physician treated him. It is thought that he is suffering from internal injuries.

DRIVER BOY ALMOST KILLED. James Wyatt, employed as a driver boy in the Capouse colliery, met with an accident which nearly cost him his life while at work yesterday afternoon. As it is, he is in a serious condition from the injury received. He was removed to his parents' home on North Sumner avenue immediately after the accident occurred and Dr. G. B. Reynolds was summoned to give him medical at-

Fortunately the cars were moving slowly and the mules stopped instantly at the driver's word.

GRACE TURNER DEAD.

Patrolman and Mrs. Thomas Lowry. of South Sumner avenue, received a telegram yesterday afternoon announcing the death of Grace Turner, their young niece, who had been with them since she was a child. The message came from Nesquehoning, where the girl was visiting an aunt, Mrs. E. Benjamin. Patrolman Lowry left for there immediately.

The message gave no information as to the cause of death. Only the afternoon before Mrs. Lowry received from Benjamin a letter which contained nothing of the girl's illness. Mrs. Lowry is almost prostrated by the sad

FUNERAL OF BURT REID. The funeral of the late Burt Reld was held yesterday afternoon from the esidence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reid, of 1114 Jackson street. The attendance of friends and relatives was very large. The services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, who preached an eloquent funeral sermon.

The choral selections were rendered by a quartette composed of Misses Rachel Jones and Ethel Rinker, William Long and Louis H. Jones. At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to Pittston, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were members of the class of the Simpon Methodist Sabbath school of which the deceased was a member. were: George Daniels, Walter James, William Diehl, Frank Fellows, Jasper E. Jones and Bert Snyder.

MINER SEVERELY BURNED.

Patrick Healey, a miner, of 2413 Jackson street, is confined to his residence as a result of severe burns sustained while at work Wednesday afternoon at the Brisbin colliery. His arms, face, neck and chest are all badly burned The eyebrows, lashes and moustache were burned off. Dr. J. J. Carroll is in attendance.

Just how the accident happened is not clear. However, it is thought that a spark from a miner's lamp flew into the cartridge which he was loading for the next charge. The powder flashed and Healey got the full force of the flame. It is not expected that his injuries will be permanent.

THEY VISITED THE MINES.

A small party of West Scranton young people arranged a trip through the Central mines in honor of Misses Margaret Duffy and Margaret Howley, of Carbondale, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Moran, of South Filmore avenue. The trip was taken Wednesday evening and proved very pleasant. Fireboss William Morgan acted as escort. Many souvenirs of the trip were carried away.

Upon the return of the party to th surface a reception was held at the Moran residence. Those who formed the party were, including the Misses Duffy and Howley, Mrs. John Carson and John McDonough, John Kearney, John Byron and Patrick Durkin.

PLEASANT SOCIAL AFFAIR.

Many persons attended the entertainment and lawn party given last evening on the spacious lawn of the residece of the Misses Emma and Carrie Carr and Kate and Ida Filley, of 121 and 126 North Bromley avenue. The affair was conducted by the young ladies of the Bible class of the Simpson Sabbath school taught by Frederick Crawford. Bunting and flags were used for decorating and large headlights and Chinese lanterns were used for illuminating. Recitations were given by Miss Mattie Hughes, piano solos by Misses Ethel Rinker and Eva Roberts, whistling solo by Miss Haas, selection by the class, and an instrumental duet by Miss Bessie Frounfelker, guitar, and E. D. Morse, man-Harold Zintel also entertained with autoharp selections, The Ladies' Aid society of the Hamp ton Streeet Methodist church served refreshments last evening in the church

WILLIAM CAHALIN IS SERI-OUSLY INJURED.

Fell from Garret to Cellar in a Building in Course of Erection Near His Home on Cherry Street. Alderman Ruddy Brings About Two Domestic Reconciliations. Saengerrunde Organization Nominates Officers-Degree Work at the Meeting of Slocum Castle, K. of

William, the ten-year-old son of Martin Cahalin, of Cherry street, had a parrow escape from instant death yesterday afternoon A new residence is in course of construction for the Cahalin fa: sily a few doors above where they now reside Young Cahalin, with a number of other lads of his age, was playing about the structure most of yesterday. Cahalin was running about the garret of the building, when he missed his footing and fell to the cellar.

When assistance reached the boy he was bleeding profusely, and was in an unconscious condition. He was taken to his home. Dr. James Manley was called to attend him. The physician ascertained that the boy's right arm was fractured in two places. A deep gash was made on his forehead, and it is feared that he is injured internally. The developments of today will determine the true state of his condition.

ALDERMAN RUDDY, PEACE-MAKER.

A warrant was issued Monday even ing charging Mrs. Mary Waish with highway robbery and assault and battery. Her aged husband gave the information for the arrest. His wife and he had been separated for many months, caused by his arrest on the charge in which a young woman, Bridget Garvey, was concerned.

Monday afternoon, Walsh alleged that on his way to his boarding house he was met by his wife, who demanded money from him. He refused and she struck him and felled him to the ground, he said, and relieved him of $8. Mrs. Walsh was arraigned before Alderman Ruddy, Wednesday night. Both she and her husband agreed that the alderman was right in recommending a reconciliation. The charges were dismissed and when Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walsh left the alderman's office her arm was locked in that of her husband.

FINALLY CAUGHT.

Frank Robinson, who resides near Mountain lake, went before Alderman Ruddy on July 4 last and gave information for warrants for the arrest of his wife and Frank Rooney, whom he charged with bigamy. Warrants were issued, but the much-wanted couple could not be found at once. Mrs. Robinson was arrested about ten days ago. She was brought before the alderman and held in bail.

Special Officer Ruane yesterday found Rooney on a farm near Moscow. He was brought in for a hearing last night and held in $500 bail, which was furnished. While en route to the alderman's office he made a desperate effort to escape. Mrs. Robinson has returned to her husband

GOLDEN EAGLE MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Slocun Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, was unusually interesting last night The fact that the degree team of Electric City eastle, of the central city, was resent and conferred second and third degrees. At the conclusion of the impressive ceremonies there was a social ession. Lunches, songs and speeches were the features of the latter part of the night's doings.

SAENGERRUNDE NOMINATIONS. At a recent meeting of the Scranton Saengerrunde the following nominations were made: President, John U. Schwenker, Max Levi, Anton Fish; vice-president; John Staiber, financial secretary: Emil Gutheintz, recording secretary: Daniel Jacobs. Prof. G. C. Schmidt; Michael Natter. The election will take place the first Tuesday in September.
