THIS AND THAT.

Of the few popular and accessible country resorts near Scranton, Lake Ariel has probably been the most generously patronized by private and family parties during the recent hot weather. For some time vacant rooms, at either the Lake House or Hotel Pines, have been the exception rather than the rule. The latter establishment, managed under the personal direction of Charles H. Schadt and his assistant, A. J. Duffy, has become the social headquarters at the lake for those who do not occupy cottages there. There was a progressive euchre party arranged by the ladies at the hotel, Tuesday night. Mrs. Dr. Hoxsie, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. M. E. McDonald, of Scranton, respectively, won the first and second ladies' prizes, and Mr. John McCormick, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. H. W. Custer, of Easton, the gentlemen's prizes. On the following night and Saturday night the usual semi-weekly dances for the hotel guests and cottagers were given in the big pavilion on the picnic grounds. The music was by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conrad and F. H. Widmayer, of Scranton. On Thursday night Mrs. Joseph C. O'Brien gave a brief and informal vocal recital which delightfully entertained an appreciative gathering at the Hotel Pines. Among Sunday's guests, nearly all of them recently arrived, at the Hotel Pines were Misses Emelle Flynn and Mary E. McHale, Dunmore; Margaret Flynn, Pittsburg; Marie R. Moffitt, Anna May Moffitt, Louise Moffitt, Nellie Maloney, Mame Maloney, R. S. Hartzell, Easton; Drs. F. L. McGraw and W. M. Reedy, W. J. Cawley, J. W. B. Coleman, F. H. Widmayer, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conrad, Dr. Anna Law, Miss Teresa L. Cusick and George R. Gibson, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Runyon, New Brunswick; Sylvester Gillespie, Pittston; L. Van Wormer, Dunmore; the Misses Gallagher, Miss Farney, Miss McGowan, Philadelphia; Miss E. May Dickinson, Miss Margaret R. Gibson, Scranton; Frank A. Battle, Pittston; Miss Jordan, Providence; Miss Clara Orier, Erieburg; Mr. and Mrs. James Sherlock Davis and Dr. and Mrs. Hoxsie, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ludwig and family, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Custer, Easton. Miss Bertha Reese, well known in this city, was on Thursday last appointed surgeon in charge of the nurses in the army hospital at Fort Thomas, Kentucky. Miss Reese left the State hospital at Buffalo, where she held the important post of surgeon-in-charge, to assume her new duties. She is a

DAY'S RECORD OF SERIOUS ACCIDENTS

WOMAN CRUSHED AND KILLED BETWEEN CAR BUMPERS.

Fatality Occurred in Keyser Valley. She was Picking Coal—Charles Schler Lodes a Foot in Trying to Steal a Ride—John Wert Sustains a Badly Broken Leg by Falling Over a Ledge of Rocks—Woman Bicycleist Injured.

A woman crushed to death between car bumpers, a man losing a foot between the cars, another sustaining a badly fractured leg by falling over a precipice in Keyser Valley, and a woman bicyclist badly bruised by colliding with a horse—these made up one day's chapter of serious accidents. The life of Mrs. Peter Saulswick, of No. 19, Brislin Row, North End, was crushed on Saturday between two gondola coal cars on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western tracks, where cars are run to the Brislin breaker.

The unfortunate woman was gathering coal on the branch. She had stepped between the bumpers of an empty trip when a loaded trip approached and backed against it with such a suddenness that she was shafted without any warning. Her shrill scream attracted brakemen but they were late to be of any assistance. She was killed instantly. Her body was crushed almost flat where the bumpers came in contact. The woman was the wife of a miner at the Brislin. Coroner Longstreet was summoned on the case but he decided that an inquest was not necessary. Charles Schler, aged twenty, who boards with his married sister on Luzerne street, fell beneath a moving engine, Sunday, when he was attempting to board near Keyser Valley on Saturday evening, and had his left foot so badly crushed that it had to be amputated. The operation was performed at the Lackawanna hospital by Dr. Fulton. The unfortunate young man is a native of Schuylkill county.

In turning into the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station plaza in response to the call which the Schler accident occasioned, the Lackawanna hospital ambulance ran down a young woman bicyclist who attempted to clear the oncoming train. One of the horses struck her heavily on the shoulder and threw her violently to the pavement, bruising her painfully and demolishing her bicycle. She was cared for by Dr. Fineberg in a neighboring drug store. She did not give her name.

John Wert, of North Blakely street, Dunmore, fell from a ledge of rocks near the falls in Keyser Park at 9 o'clock Saturday evening and for three quarters of an hour lay with his leg broken in three places, vainly trying to make his cries for help heard above the noise of the falls.

A party of friends with whom he had been picnicking missed him when they were about to start for home and began a search for him. He was discovered by Alexander Hay. Dr. Burns, who attended the injured man upon his being brought home, found a compound fracture of the left knee and two distinct breaks in the same leg between the knee and ankle.

MIDSUMMER COURT DAY.

Flood of Opinions and Motions Will Come in Court Today.

Court will convene this forenoon at 9 o'clock just for the day and a wholesale number of opinions and orders are looked for in cases that have accumulated since adjournment six weeks ago. Among the important opinions looked for in the court in regard to the proposed borough of Moosic. Attorneys Holgate and Hamilton will make a motion to quash the bill of particulars filed by the respondents in the Langstaff-Kelly contest. Midsommer court day is always one of the most important of the whole year. After all the opinions are handed down and all the motions heard court will adjourn until September 12.

LABOR DAY.

General Committee Estimates That 20,000 Strangers Will Be Attracted to Scranton.

The general committee on the Labor Day demonstration and picnic met at 400 Lackawanna avenue, Saturday evening for the purpose of furthering arrangements for the day. General Manager P. J. Thomas read a letter from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in which he regretted he could not be here, the Central Labor union of Omaha, Neb., holding him to his promise to be with them on that day. Frank Morrison, of Typographical union, No. 16, of Chicago, and general secretary of the American Federation of Labor will be here in Mr. Gompers' place.

Mr. Thomas reported having made arrangements with the Delaware and Hudson company to run excursion trains to Scranton from Wilkes-Barre and Carbondale and intermediate stations on one fare for the round trip. President Faherty, of the Central Labor union; President Devanney, of the Building Trades council, and J. A. Price, John Grey and E. J. Evans were appointed a reception committee to look after the arrangement visitors.

Peter Holden, of Painters' union, No. 115, was elected grand marshal of the day, and William Gilbride, of the Horsehoopers, P. D. Carr, of the Typo union, were elected aides to the grand marshal. The sub-committee on refreshments were instructed as to the acceptance of bids on refreshments.

The first division of the parade will consist of the Building Trades union, the second of the unions represented in the Central Labor union, and the third will consist of a grand industrial display by the merchants, builders, contractors and manufacturers of the city. This display promises to exceed in splendor and magnitude anything ever witnessed in Scranton. Other parade particulars will be arranged later.

GRAB GAME FOR A LANTERN

Brought Walter Lynn to the Moses Taylor Hospital.

Walter Lynn, an old man employed in blast furnace, and a fellow workman were striving to get possession of a lantern last evening, and although the rivalry was friendly Lynn got a push that landed him on his back on a lump of pig iron.

He was hurt from the fall so that he had to be taken to the Moses Taylor hospital.

Upset on the Boulevard.

A buggy occupied by Bert Green, the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western station agent at Bellevue, and foreman at the Bellevue mines, was upset on the Reservoir boulevard yesterday. Mr. Green was slightly bruised but was not otherwise injured. The accident was caused by a broken wheel.

An Exploding Lamp.

The alarm of fire from box 62 last evening was for a slight blaze in a house occupied by a family named Mauley on Capouse avenue, near Help's street. The fire was extinguished before the arrival of the fire companies. An exploding lamp caused the blaze.

COUNCILMEN REVOLT AGAINST THE MAYOR

WANT TO BE CONSULTED ABOUT FUTURE APPOINTMENTS.

A Number of Members of the Select Branch Met Last Evening and Made Plans for Opposing Objectionable Appointments—They Don't Approve of the City Executive's Weakness in Having Favorite and Privileged Advisers.

Seven select councilmen, Melvin Shea, McCann, Roche, McAndrew, James and Fellows, met last evening at the St. Charles hotel to form a union of a majority of that branch with the view of defeating the police and appointments of Mayor Bailey, or any removals he may attempt, without first consulting them. After the conference one of the six informed a Tribune reporter that there are at least five others agreeable to this plan, but they could not be present for good and sufficient reasons. Some of them were at work and others were out of town.

SUNDAY BAND CONCERT.

Large Crowd Hears Bauer at Laurel Hill Park.

One of the most enjoyable open-air concerts of the summer was that given by Bauer's band at Laurel Hill park yesterday afternoon. A large crowd enjoyed the music, which was rendered by the complete band organization as follows: March, Burr's Triumphal... Alexander Overture, Hunting for Luck... Soprano "Abide With Me" (Transcription)... Monk Trombone solo, "The Palms"... Faure Overture, Zampa... Herold The prize overture at the grand band contest at Binghamton, N. Y. DRIVING PARK RACES.

Doc E, Jim Mears and Copperfield the Winners.

There was good racing at Saturday afternoon's meeting of the gentlemen drivers at the Driving park. James Justin's Doc E won the road race from Mr. Gorman's Moxey, second. F. Von Storch's Harry was third. Jim Mears, owned by Dr. Hill, won the 2.50 event. He captured the last two heats and broke the first. The time was 57.8, 58, 58. Blue and Jenny C also contested. Mr. Ludwig's Copperfield won two heats from Mr. Gorman's Maud H.

MEET HERE TODAY.

Contest Commission Comes Down From Carbondale for a Day.

After hearing a few witnesses and disclosing four alleged defective votes, the contest commission at noon on Saturday left for Carbondale to meet in session to meet in Scranton today.

It will resume business at Carbondale, Tuesday morning.

Campbell a Little Better.

John Campbell, of Pittston avenue, who was so fearfully injured at the South steel mill last Thursday night, was somewhat improved last night at the Moses Taylor hospital. He is yet far from being out of danger. The nature of his injuries is such that it is impossible to forecast the result. His left, thirty feet, was contorted to kill him without being impaled through the thigh with a lever.

Rev. Dr. Hard's Itinerary

Rev. Manley S. Hard, D. D., as one of the secretaries of the board of church extension, and well known to Scranton Methodists, will visit the following conferences during September and October, viz.: St. Louis German,

TONIGHT'S DISPLAY.

The "Sinking of the Merrimac" at Laurel Hill Park.

Fain's fireworks exhibition, "Sinking of the Merrimac" will be given at Laurel Hill park tonight and will be repeated tomorrow night. It will be one of the grandest spectacles of the kind ever witnessed in this city. Those who intend to witness the display will take pleasure in knowing that Lieutenant Hobson was invited by the head of the pyrotechnic firm of Fain & Son to witness a private view of this most thrilling fireworks spectacle at Manhattan Beach and furnished some valuable suggestions. He pronounced the display a soul stirring sight, and assured his host that the picture—with the changes he suggested—would give the people an authentic reproduction of what he modestly styles "a little episode." The enormous success this exhibition has scored at the beach induced the management to present it in a few of the large cities of Pennsylvania.

Combined with this wonderful representation, the management presents a brilliant collection of fireworks, novelties for the first time—all the devices being copyrighted by the Fain Fireworks company. There will be a band concert of patriotic airs by the famous Bauer's band. In order to place the opportunity of an education in the naval history of the present war within reach of all the scale of prices has been fixed at 25, 50 and 75 cents, the two latter including grand stand seat. There will be excursion rates over all railroads on the days of the exhibition.
