PENNSYLVANIA

DEMOCRATS

THEY ISSUE AN ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE.

The Faithful Are Invited to Give Serious Attention to the Political Conditions That Confront the Taxpayers—Business Interests Tremble at the Assembling of the Legis-

Harrisburg, Aug. 18 .- A meeting of the executive committee of the Democratic society of Pennsylvania was held at state Democratic headquarters this afternoon at which it was decided to hold the annual club convention at Wilkes-Barre Oct. 18. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Chauncey F. Black, of York, who has been president of the society since its organization, announced that he would not accept a re-election on account of ill health. Major John D. Worman, of Philadelphia, secretary of the society, stated also that he would not be a candidate for re-election. The meeting was attended by George A. Jenks, the nominee for governor; State Chairman Garman and other active party leaders. The following address has been prepared by the executive committee:

We, the undersigned executive committee of the Democratic society of Penn-sylvania, invite the serious attention of the people of our state to the political conditions, which confront us and to the all important matters at stake in the approaching general election.

It is charged on the one side and confessed on the other, that every branch of our state government is corrupt and corrupting. The taxpayers and business interests tremble at the assembling of the legislature. They know not what new shame or fresh burden it will lay upon them, or what assault upon the rights of the people or of the nunicipalities will be introduced to be bought off, or engineered to final passage, to serve the purposes of predatory politicians. The executive is little or no better. That here and there a veto his temporarily suspended an ob-noxious measure until terms can be made ameng disputing conspirators touching the distribution of the common spolls is a fortunate accident in Nothing in the recent history of the executive branch affords any reason to sup-pose that it has been inspired by a high purpose to enforce in spirit and in letter the wise previsions of our sound consti-tution, to check the aggressions of ellied corporations and political machines to guard and promote wholesome competition in business, to shield the taxpayers from corrupt raids and oppressive impo-sitions, or otherwise to stand immovably for the principles of human liberty, according to the solemn tenor of that oath which each governor is required to take before entering upon the duties of his

CONDITION NOT NEW.

This condition of affairs is not new, it has subsisted since the time when the memory of most men runneth not to the But it appears to be worse now than heretefore. Long impunity has emboldened aggression. Corrupt and scandalous transactions, which a quarter of a century were concealed or denied are today confessed and defended on the ground that unquestioned usage in the past renders them legitimate in the pres-ent or at least relieves them of a portion of the blackness of their inherent guilt No one concerned in them, nowadays takes the trouble to externate them. Balances of millions of the taxpayers money are carried in the several funds of the treasury for the premonlary benefit of anybody but the commonwealth. Appropriations of the gravest importance re-main unpaid until it suits the convenience of the custodians of these funds to The charities of state suffer, the schools are compelled to borrow money at high rates, while their own money is serving some other purpose. We cannot pursue the details of these and public like crim-inals further at this time. Newspapers have spread them widely. All well informed citizens know the facts and under-stands them. The political organization which is brought to judgment in these premises simply says in effect we repre-sent a hide bound partisan majority. therefore, are you going to de

We have much reason to fear that their confidence is only too well grounded. He-publican voters have borne and foreorre so long and so much that it is difficult to foretell when, if ever, they will turn to rend the oppressor and to end the shame of their party and of their state. That a very large proportion of the Republican people of the state are scandalized, humiliated and alarmed by the excesses committed in the name and into the everlasting dishener of their party is beyond question. But is the con-fidence of the guilty leaders in their un-reasoning partisanshir well founded or

If the latter, no relief is at hand. peals to their self-respect and patriotism to their love of state and even to their manifest self-interest will be unavailing. We prefer, however, to believe that all good citizens of whatever party are read to join with us, ignoring purely partisar questions in one great fraternal effort for the redemption of the state, the purging of its government, legislative and executive and a complete reformation of official and public morals. Our conven-tion, representing the great minority party of the commonwealth, drew the is-sues clearly and definitely. No intelligent person can mistake them. Those who pretend to see in this canvass any other real issues than those state issues presented by the Alteena convention de not wish to see aright. If any disturbing extraneous question shall be brought into this campaign, the evil consequences will not be objectionable to the Demo-cratic party with its half million enlight. ened voters who need only the co-opera-tion of a fraction of their fellow citizens, ordinarily otherwise politically classified. in order to effect the radical change in state government, which all of us profess to desire, and most of us do desire, above all things. The executive is within easy reach of reform, if those who are best known as reformers, shall show by their acts that they want reform, and so also promote and encourage an honeat union of the better citizenship everywhere for a pure and safe legislature. No true man, actually seeking genuire and vital reforms, can find a decent excuse for standing aloof. We, the Democratic party, alone, by reason of our numbers, can hope for success against the public enemy so long entrenched in power. We present the very issues and those only which all reformers profess to wish. We go further still in this direction than any of the groups of citizens who have organized ostensibly to put the commonwealth in honest and faithful hands. We join them in their general arraignment and one the every separate count in the indictment but, unlike them, we don not complicate the momentous state issues, that is to say, the reforms proposed to be obtained, by any extraneous question whatever. by any extraneous question.
We do also what none of them have yet. done; we demand the reform comprehend-ing all reforms, an honest election law, a clean registry, a pure ballot and a fair count. Without this the offices may change hands but there can be no perma. nent reform in any department of the

must be obvious to reasonable men that the only hope of success against the obnexious regular Republican tickets for state offices and the legislature lies in the support of the Democratic citizens, which represent a body of voters, only less in numbers, than these represented by those on Republican tickets. Men who under these circumstances throw away their adelphia.

votes, must answer to their own consciences. Whatever else good and admir-able they may be they are not practical reformers. Such a waste or worse, of votes, whose owners profess reform, excuse can be found in the character our candidates any more than in the character of our platform. In the high per-sonal character, in individua, integrity, in point of mental qualifications, it is unexcommonwealth has any party put in the field a ticket superior to these important particulars. In George A. Jenks we off to the people a candidate of stainless reputation, of great abilities, and of large experience, one who has been tried in many great trusts and failed in none. He is the peer in all respects of any man who ever stood for the office of governor in this commonwealth. He is the very type and perfect representative of our best people. The man who is too good to vote for George A. Jenks will find no congenial refuge for his peculiar kind of patriotism outside the hallowed temple of regular machine politics.

We confidently ask the suffrage of all good men for the Democratic state and legislative candidates, assured that whether elected or defeated, they will be-tray no trust, violate no pledge, and reflect no dishonor upon those who have patriotically supported them. If our state shall be further degraded, harried and plundered, as in the immediate past, the responsibility for those conditons will lie eisewhere than at the door of the Democratic party.

CONVENTION CALL.

A Proposed Industrial and Commercial Gathering at Which Almost Every One May be Represented.

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 18.-At a meetng of the board of trade of this city here today, a call was issued for a state industrial and commercial convention to be held in this city, beginning on Monday, the 17th day of October next, and continuing until the business before it shall be transacted. Every commercial organization in the state is requested to send delegates to this convention on the basis of three delegates for the first one hundred nembers of such organization, and one additional delegate for each hundred members over or fraction thereof. Towns of one hundred inhabitants or over, having no commercial body therein may be represented by the mayor or burgess thereof, or any other duly accredited person.

Every employer of labor in the state and every labor union will be entitled to one delegate each and each state labor organization will be entitled to three delegates from such state body in addition to the delegates from the loca! unions. All state organizations of labor, and al: local labor unions and every em-ployer of labor in this state is requested to prepare such view as they may entertain regarding the correct relation between labor and capital, and how the same can best be maintained and forward the same to the secretary of the Johnstown board of trade, prior to the assembling of the convention. Texas & Pacific 15 Any publisher, editor or duly authorized reporter for any newspaper of periodical published in this state shall be entitled to be represented in the convention, on the same basis as that given to employers of labor.

The national labor arbitration commisssion recently provided for by congress, as soon as their appointment, shall be completed, will be invited to attend and begin here the practical investigation of the matters that will e committed to their charge and which will come before this convention.

CLEVELAND NOT OWNER.

The Judgment of D. Klein & Co. Was Not Collectable.

Pittsburg, Aug. 18 .- Young and Trent have filed an exemplification of record from Philadelphia in judgment of D. Klein and Co., against W. S. Cleveland to recover $650.

The defendant is in the city, playing with a minstrel company at the Bijou theatre, but when deputy Sheriff Har ris went to the theatre to levy on the effects of the company it was found that Cleveland did not own any of the property.

HIS OWN SURGEON

Desperate Act of Michael Most, of Plymouth.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 18.-Michael Most, of Plymouth township, who had been suffering from a cancer in the side for some time past, and who has been given up by the doctors as incurable, concluded to act as his own surgeon this afternoon.

He took a large table knife and cut the cancer out, but left such a large opening that the intestines protruded. He bled to death before the arrival of

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Aug. 18.-The reaction in prices of stocks which had been looked for for several days came in the late trading today. The professional traders have been eagerly anticipating this action of the market and have several times sought to bring it about by attacking stocks with short sales. They opened their guns this morning with an onslaught on tobacco, People's Gas and Brooklyn Rapid Transit. Although this assault came with very heavy realizing offers in the grangers and Pacifics and some other recent favorites the outside demand for stocks was so enormous as to take the market away from the professionals and lift prices upwards in furiously active and very widely distributed traditic. But there came a time later in the day when the outside demand was for a time satisfied and when the recent purchasers of stocks were still anxious to take the handsome profits accrued upon them. The bears kept nibbling at the list and made an aggressive attack in the last hour which carried prices down sufficiently to wipe out weak margins and bring out stop loss orders. The list fell generally below last night's level. The buil clique apparently offered no resistance to the decline but support was forthcoming before it had proceeded to any great length. The activity of the market greatly decreased and the volume of business was materially smaller than yesterday. The total sales were 684,100 shares.
