lams and E. P. Kingsbury, of Scranton; Thomas H. Atherton, of Wilkes-Barre, and Frank W. Drake, of Toledo, Ohio. They will leave Scranton today via the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad to Chicago, where they will be joined by Mr. Eddy with the official car of the company, the "Passo del Norte," thence they go to El Paso, via the Santa Fe system, stopping a day at Los Vegas, New Mexico.

An event of the season is scheduled for Wednesday when George W. West Division of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, composed of Ontario and Western and Erie employes, will give at Lake Poyntelle their fifth annual clambake, the proceeds of which will be for the relief fund. Last year the clambake was the largest ever held by the railroad. The clambake returned so enthusiastic in its praise that this year the representation from Scranton is likely to be largely increased. There are all kinds of so-called clam bakes, but this one of the railroad engineers is the real thing—done to the point of New England perfection by a renowned and truly expert conductor, Professor Ward Edwards, whose mastery of the art of producing edible results in steamed game, fish and vegetables is not surpassed by any person in the business.
Arrangements have been made this year to feed 500 guests at one sitting and there will be several sittings.

Commissioner of Pensions H. Clay Evans, at Washington, said that numerous pensioners are going to unnecessary expense in affixing internal revenue stamps to pension papers. This is particularly the case in regard to pension vouchers, which are found to be stamped often than any other papers. He wishes it to be known that the law does not require stamps to be placed upon any pension papers.

JACK SKELLY'S STATEMENT.
Predicts a Great Battle Between Judge and Williams.

Jack Skelly, manager of the American Sporting club, of this city, is in town to complete arrangements for the 3-round bout between Jim Judge, of this city, and the water-wet champion of Australia, Tom Williams, tomorrow night.

Skelly has visited Williams' training quarters many times since the match was made and is pleased with the grand condition Williams is in. Skelly expects this will be one of the greatest fistic battles ever decided in this part of the country. He also wants it understood that this bout will be for a decision. He has the forfeits of both men and will hold them to their agreement. Bobby Bobbe boxed ten rounds with Judge yesterday. Judge says he never felt better in his life. His looks don't belie his statement.

Williams will arrive here from New York on this afternoon's 5:33 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train.

CHICAGO DETECTIVE WAITING.
Hopes to Have Extradition Papers
This Morning.

The continued hearing in the habeas corpus case whereby Morris Eppstein, accused of larceny in Chicago, is trying to secure his freedom from the central police station, will be held before Judge Gunster at 3 o'clock this morning.

Detective Rohan, of the Chicago Detective Bureau, has been here since Friday awaiting the arrival of extradition papers from Harrisburg. They had not reached here last night. They are to be sent in care of the Scranton chief of police.

The detective and Chief of Police Gurrell have received assurance that if the papers have not arrived by the time of this morning's hearing, the case will be continued provided it is shown that the papers are en route.

MR. WATRES ELECTED
COLONEL OF THE 11TH

WAS UNANIMOUSLY CHOSEN IN HARRISBURG SATURDAY.

Major Gherst, of Lebanon, Who Was to Have Been a Candidate, Won the Admission of the Scranton Contingent by Making an Unconditional Withdrawal and Was Almost Unanimously Elected Lieutenant Colonel—Captain Raber, of York, and Dr. Field, of Easton, Elected Majors.

Hon. L. A. Watres has been elected colonel of the new Eleventh provisional regiment of the National guard. On Saturday night the Scranton and Honolulua officers returned from Harrisburg, where the election was held, with the satisfaction of having scored a bloodless victory—of having accomplished their object without leaving any wounds which would otherwise have to be healed during the further organizing of the regiment.

Major Milton A. Gherst, of Lebanon, was elected lieutenant colonel, and Captain H. H. Raber, of York, and Dr. H. Bush Field, of Easton, were elected majors.
Mr. Watres' election was unanimous.
Nobody was opposed to him, although Major Gherst was a candidate until a short time before the election was held.
The latter won the admiration of all of Mr. Watres' supporters not only withdrawing, but also, in declining to make his retirement conditional upon the election of any of his friends to the other officers. He was elected lieutenant colonel almost unanimously and without any solicitation on his part.

MAJOR GHERST'S REPLY.
It was explained to Major Gherst by long-distance telephone from Scranton Friday evening that a new army for Scranton depended largely on having the colonelcy and regimental headquarters in this city; that his withdrawal would not only help Scranton directly, but would, indirectly, help the National guard of the state. In reply he begged that a definite offer be made to him from him, but that the Scranton officers settle the matter with their friends.
They had conducted the canvass in his behalf, he said, and they should be consulted, although he was, personally, willing to retire.

That was the situation Saturday morning.
When Colonel E. H. Ripple and the Scranton officers reached Harrisburg they had little or no difficulty in inducing Major Gherst's friends to withdraw his candidacy and make Mr. Watres' election unanimous. In justice to the latter it should be said that he, like Major Gherst, took no part whatsoever in the canvass in his behalf at any time.

The only candidate nominated in opposition to Major Gherst for lieutenant colonel was Captain M. J. Fitzgerald, of Lebanon. Out of the thirty-four votes present, he received only those of the Lebanon and Allentown officers.
He is an ex-United States army officer and has for many years been well known in the National guard as commander of Company I, Fourth regiment. Major Gherst has been the recent assistant adjutant general of the Third brigade of the provisional guard on Brigadier General Magee's staff.

CANDIDATE FOR MAJOR.
Captain H. M. Phillippi, of Reading, was the only opponent of Captain Ra-ber and Dr. Field for the two majorships. He received the votes of the officers of only one company in addition to the votes of the Reading officers. While the regiment comprises three battalions, only two majors are required under the present army regulations, which provided that the lieutenant colonel shall command one battalion.

Saturday's election does not by any means complete the organization of the regiment. It has to be done, and appointments to make, and a host of conditions are such that several weeks must elapse before this can be done. Among the features to be considered are these: Scranton has three companies and the headquarters and must be the regimental headquarters, and the headquarters of the regiment are in part cared for in the command of regimental officers from those places.

The adjutant will, almost beyond a doubt, be appointed from Scranton as the one in that position must be in close touch with the commander of the regiment. The same observation applies to the sergeant major, a non-commissioned officer, who bears the same relation to the adjutant as does the latter to the colonel.

Battalion adjutants will not be appointed. In the new three-battalion formation, the United States army rule will be followed whereby second lieutenants, detailed from the line for that purpose, will act as battalion adjutants.

COMPLETE THE LIST.
A quartermaster, an inspector of rifle practice, a surgeon major and two assistant surgeons complete the list of commissioned officers, all to be appointed by the colonel. To make these selections will be no easy task considering the fact that they are to be selected from twelve companies in ten cities.

But in addition there are to be appointed by the colonel the following non-commissioned officers: A sergeant major, a quartermaster sergeant, a commissionary sergeant and a hospital steward. There will be no battalion sergeant majors.

IT IS HERE.
The Greatest and Best of All Dog, Pony and Monkey Shows.

Sipe and Blake's great combination of trained quadrupeds will have arrived in this city long before the show reaches our many readers, and their vast capacity amphitheatre will be erected at an early hour. During the morning the dogs, ponies and monkeys together with numerous cages, vans and diminutive chariots highly enamelled will parade through the principal streets with banners waving and flags flying, accompanied by the music of Professor Wack's great band. The first performance will be given at 2 p. m. and will doubtless be witnessed by a vast concourse of our citizens. The show remains here four days giving two performances each day.

Doctor Sues a Constable.
Dr. J. J. Bilheimer Saturday issued a writ of replevin against Richard Barron, the Priceburg constable, to retrieve a horse, wagon and harness which he claims the defendant is using and illegally holding. The plaintiff claims that he owns these articles

CONVENTION DAYS
ARE NOW UPON US

TWO DISTRICT GATHERINGS
SCHEDULED FOR TOMORROW.

Third District Republicans Will Assemble at Dalton and Their Brethren of the Second District Will Convene in the Court House, County Convention to Be Held a Week from Tomorrow—Cornelius Smith Is to Have a Daily Paper.

The Republican primaries in the Third legislative district Saturday were conducted with considerable warmth.
Across the mountain where live three of the candidates, N. G. Davis, George E. Stephenson and Dr. U. Mackey, this was particularly true. John R.
Johns and Joseph Taylor, of Taylor, made quiet but energetic efforts to secure the representation from the lower end of the district. Hon. Frank Grover, junior member of the bakery firm of Scheuer Brothers, being the only candidate in the field. The convention will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the arbitration room of the court house.

Next Saturday the county primaries will be held and on the succeeding Tuesday, the convention. As yet no opposition has developed to an unanimous point to the nomination or endorsement of Hon. F. W. Gunter for judge. Dr. A. J. Kolb, of South Side, and Dr. J. J. Roberts, of the West Side, are the most frequently mentioned candidates for coroner. Dr. S.
P. Longenecker, of the center, refusing to stand for a re-election. The nomination for surveyor is an open one.

RAILROADERS OUTING.
Many Attended the Free Excursion Given Them to Heart Lake.

The weather man was kind to the Railroad Young Men's Christian association Saturday morning on the occasion of their excursion to Heart Lake and a delightful day was spent in a bright and beautiful as it could have been in the month of June. There were between 350 and 450 persons on the excursion.

To see the railroad man at his work on the engine or in the shop is one thing, but to see him on an excusion in the midst of his family is to see him at his best. He appeared in a well groomed, good-looking and with an intelligent gentleman and his wife equalled him in every respect.
His children were tots of all sizes and descriptions. He had many grown up daughters present who were trim looking, beautiful and accomplished. He had a number of grown up sons along, but they were not exactly with him, as they had girls of their own.

HEART LAKE.
Heart Lake is a beautiful place high up in the mountains of Susquehanna county where the air is so bracing that every breath you draw seems to give new life.

A programme of athletic events had been arranged. The winner of each event was presented with a beautifully engraved gold or silver medal. The best race at 10:30 a. m. was powered in by August Getz, W. Fletcher and E. Werthamer, Fletcher won first prize and Wilford Fletcher second.
The third heat was a foul. The contenders were:
George Nansteel, H. Hance, G. E.
Mittler, W. Fletcher, Ted Coons, R.
M.

In the 90-yard dash were: G. A.
Brown, Edward Getz, August Getz, C.
W. Morris, W. Fletcher, H. M. Marsh, T. Ryder. It was won by C. W. Morris; C. W. Fletcher second.

GOOD MANAGEMENT.
The happiness of every body was largely due to the management of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, and the kindness of W. P.
Hallestead, of the railroad company, who furnished the train. Every railroad man who held a membership ticket in the association had been in no matter how large. The committee in charge were as follows:
J. R. Troch, R. F. McKenna, E. K.
Crotcham, D. J. Whiteford, William Frankel, A. Frounfelker, M. V. Keeley, E. T. Swartz, G. M. Hallestead, E. M.
Francis, F. W. Pearns, C. E. Walden, W. G. Young, Frank Bryant, C. W.
Dunn, F. D. Glover, W. W. Berry.

DEWEY'S RELATIVE RANK.
Editor of The Tribune.
Sir: I am in hearty accord with most of your editorial of today entitled "Dewey." I cordially agree with all your words of praise to this distinguished officer, and your suggestion that he be given the rank of admiral as the legitimate successor of Farragut and Porter—although in your judgment Schley's work at San-tigo will bear quite favorable comparison with the victory of Dewey. But I write this note to protest against a remark in your editorial which I must believe was hurriedly written. You say: "Two men before him—Farragut and Porter—have been made admirals. To this list contribute will not fail to add a third, whom history without doubt will mention as the greatest of all." History can do nothing of this kind in justice to those magnificent heroes of the old navy. It is enough that Dewey's name should be mentioned with theirs. He needs no higher praise, but to say that he is greater than the grand old commander of the "Hartford," or the hero of the Mississippi, is to ignore a series of services by both Farragut and Porter which have long been acknowledged by the world as among the most illustrious ever rendered by any officers in the history of naval warfare.
Farragut's record for daring achievements, showing coolness of head, extraordinary courage and clear judgment, is unique. It must be remembered, in making comparison, that the hero of the Spanish-American war did not go up against Americans, but against Spaniards. Farragut and Porter bear their laurels fighting Confederates, who are our own flesh and blood. Had our boys of the army and navy in their present year "run up against" for example, Joe Wheeler or Fitzhugh Lee, and their colleagues of the Confederate navy, it would doubtless have been more expensive, and as in the days of yore, might not always have been one way.

It is alleged that Rev. Mr. Hodur

Sept. 15. Since the last report the total amount received was one of $2 on the 10th inst. from an unknown friend, for which grateful thanks are tendered.
The treasurer, Mr. Samuel Hines, will be glad to receive other contribu-

THE FIRST DISTRICT.

In the First legislative district Hon. John R. Fara is still the only legislative candidate. No one on the Democratic side is taking any apparent interest in the coming election, but as in former years, a candidate will, in all likelihood, be placed in the field for appearance sake. As yet no vic-been called.

There is a rumor that Cornelius judge, and that his paper, the Scran-
