POLICE CASES.

Yesterday was a busy one in the North End police court, and decidedly remunerative to the city treasury. Alderman Roberts fined eight prisoners. Seven were of Polish extraction, They were having a rousing time at their boarding house on McDonough avenue. Neighbors took exception to the noise. and camplaint was lodged at the station house. Lieutenant Spellman and a squad swooped down upon the revelers, corralling the seven. Each deposited $3 in fines.

Michael Devine, accredited by police with being a very profane man, was taken from his bed on complaint of his wife, who said he abused her and refused to allow them to enter the family home on Jones street. Devine had the doors locked when the police arrived. The window was opened and he was found sleeping. He treated the officers to a flow of oaths when placed under arrest. Neighbors claimed that he was starving his family. Devine was fined $10. His wife paid the amount and se-cured has freedom.

JOINT SERVICE AT THE FIRST WELSH BAPTIST CHURCH.

It Was Conducted by Dr. Parry, the Eminent Welsh Musician, Who Is Resting in This City-Patriotic Ceremony Attends the Flag Raising at the Capouse Colliery-Calvin Coon's Wins a Boat Race-Slight Fire in Filmore Avenue.

The congregations of the Welsh Congregational, Welsh Calvinistic Methodist and Welsh Paptist churches held a union service at the latter edifice last evening in honor of the presence of Dr. Joseph Parry, the great composer of

The church was filled with those who came to do honor to one of the leaders among composers in Welsh and other musical circles. Dr. Parry had charge of the singing. The choirs from the three churches united and with those in the audience made the congregation-The Eurekas defeated the Olympia al singing of English and Welsh hymns one of the best services of song held on this side in many a long day. Those who heard it were high in their praise of the singers on this side and thought that Dr. Parry was well worthy of the honor of being a great composer. The doctor received a hearty welcome from those who were fortunate in meeting him when he was

The fever of patriotism among the large assemblage at the Capouse better known as "Briggs,' colliery Saturday evening was at a high pitch when a beautiful starry emblem, 20x30 feet, was floated to the breeze on a pole 120 feet high. The affair was under the auspices of the officers and employes of the colliery who, guided by patriotism purchased the first flag that has ever floated above the breaker. A platform had been erected in front of the pole and upon this the programme was carried out in an excellent man-

The exercises were opened at 7 o'clock by the chairman of the evening, E. E. Robathan, who made a very earnest and happy speech. Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, offered the invocation after which Stenner's band played "Gem of Columbia." The flag was then raised to its lofty height by Miss Anna Morgan, the accomplished little daughter of W. Penn Morgan, superintendent of the mine. While the flag was being heisted the Anthracite Glee club, accompanied by the band, sang the national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience joining in the chorus.

Attorney M. F. Conry gave a description of the banner and paid an eloquent tribute to the country in which we live. Mr. Conry's remarks were of such a patriotic nature that he was frequently interrupted by tremendous applause. The glee club then favored the audience with John Courier Mor-ris' song "Down I-ewey's Way." That t touched the hearts of the hearers was evidenced by the manner in which hey applauded the singers.

Another number on the programme which brought forth rounds of applause, was the address of Superinendent of Schools George Howell. He held his auditors spellbound while he ought forth the ever glorious American government. The speaker in his remarks, remembered the magnificent work done by the array and navy in the recent conflict with Spain. The band then played the "Stars and Stripes Forever." glee club sang a selection, after which the band played "America" as the closing number and the crowd dispersed well pleased with the patriotic
