

Crash Suits Laundered Right AT THE LACKAWANNA.

This Vote Not Good After Aug. 24, 1898.

If you want a GOOD NEW PIANO

Cheap, look at the one we offer for $175 cash.

We charge a little more for installments. Fully guaranteed.

PERRY BROS 205 Wyoming Ave.

COLUMBIAN DETECTIVE AGENCY

Matters Solicited Where Others Failed. Moderate Charges.

"Philo" Settles Your Stomach.

An effervescent pleasant tasting powder, for the almost immediate cure of Headache, Neuralgia and Backache. "Philo" is effective in all cases of Sleeplessness, Indigestion, Heartburn and Acidic excesses.

"PHILO" MFG. CO., 125 Clinton Place, New York City.

CHAS McMULLEN & CO.

Have opened a General Insurance Office in The Traders' National Bank Bldg.

Gul Role Camera and Supply House

Write or Call for Price List. KEMP, 103 Wyoming Avenue.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Dwyer, of Honesdale, was in the city yesterday. The Misses Maloney, of Pittston, called on Scranton friends yesterday.

Dr. H. B. Ware and family have left the city for Belmar and will return September 1.

Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Barnes returned last evening from a visit to friends near La Rayville.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Titman and family, of Jackson street, are visiting at Blairtown, N. J.

Miss Edith Miller, of North Filmore avenue, has returned from a visit with relatives at Buffalo, N. Y.

Professor W. D. Edwards, of North Hyde Park avenue, has returned from a sojourn at Lake Umbagog.

Miss Healy and her niece, Miss Mulaney, of Wyoming avenue, have returned from a visit to Atlantic City.

Miss Mary Collins, of Adams avenue, and Miss Anna Lynn, of Olive street, left yesterday for Lake Ariel.

Miss Bertha Drew, of Plymouth, has returned home from a visit with Miss May Davis, of South Main avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wainwright, of Arlington Heights, are spending a week at their cottage at Lake Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hughes and son, Edward, of North Rebecca avenue, have returned from a stay at Lake Umbagog.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harrington and Mrs. F. Foster, mother of Mrs. Harrington, are visiting relatives at Green Ridge.

Charles G. Cole, a graduate of Princeton, yesterday registered as a student in the office of Willard, Warren & Knapp.

Mrs. J. C. Mosher, of Lafayette street, and her sister, Miss Isabella Morgan, have returned from a sojourn at Lake Ariel.

came ill and was immediately returned to Florida. Attorney George R. Horn returned from Camp Alger Sunday night where he has been in attendance at the bedside of his son, who is ill. He will return to camp today.

Benjamin F. Williams, the elder son of Congressman Morgan B. Williams, will be united in marriage on Wednesday, August 25, to Miss Pet Davis, daughter of General Superintendent James B. Davis, of the Haddock colliery. The ceremony will be performed at the bride's home.

James D. Cook, whose interesting letters from Porto Rico have several times appeared in The Tribune, arrived yesterday with other members of his regiment at Montauk Point. He was not wounded, as local contemporaries had it, but is suffering from an attack of ground fever. He is now convalescent and hopes to be about in a short time.

EPPSTEIN IS IN LUCK.

Extradition Papers Have Not Yet Arrived and He May Be Discharged Today by Judge Gunster.

If the extradition papers for Morris Epstein, the young man wanted in Chicago for larceny, do not arrive from Harrisburg in time to be presented in court at 9 o'clock this morning the prisoner will be allowed to go free.

Friday when Epstein was brought before court on a habeas corpus, Judge Gunster continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

At the request of Attorney Nathan Shaver, Judge Gunster yesterday afternoon continued the hearing until 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the request of the police who said the extradition papers were not on their way from Harrisburg. When that hour arrived and the papers were not forthcoming, Judge Gunster granted a further continuance until 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock the papers were still wanting and no word of them was received. Judge Gunster said he would give the police until 10 o'clock this morning and that if the papers were not here at that time he would order Epstein's release.

J. C. LANGE DIED IN PHILADELPHIA

HE HAD BEEN OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICITIS.

Was for Ten Years Principal of the Scranton High School, But for Nearly Two Years Had Been Practising Law—Operation Performed at the Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, Last Wednesday Was Thought to Have Been Successful. Body Brought to Scranton Last Evening.

Attorney Jacob C. Lange died at the Hahnemann hospital, Philadelphia, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. His body was brought to his home in this city last evening.

Mr. Lange was best known as principal of the Scranton high school. For nearly two years he had been an attorney and has devoted much of his attention to the building and loan business of which he was one of the most prominent and successful promoters in this part of the state. To most of Mr. Lange's friends the news of his death was a surprise. Aside from his relatives few persons knew when he was afflicted with appendicitis and fewer still were aware of his presence in Philadelphia for the purpose of being operated upon.

Mr. Lange had at times suffered lately from the trouble during the last two years. At intervals he was confined to his bed. In March he went with his brother, Dr. F. W. Lange, to Philadelphia, for examination by Dr. Van Lennep, a surgeon of considerable repute. The latter recommended an operation at the earliest opportunity.

DECIDED TO OPERATE. In June Mr. Lange experienced another acute attack. This led him to decide to have the operation performed. After an interval of comparative good health he went to Philadelphia early last week. At the hospital on Wednesday the operation was performed by Dr. Van Lennep. Mr. Lange's brother, Dr. F. W. Lange, was with him and Mrs. Lange also was in the city.

The operation was pronounced successful. The surgeons agreed that in any case Mr. Lange could not have lived for more than a few months. He was restless last Friday, but on Saturday appeared strong and much improved and the medical men were satisfied that he was on the road to convalescence. The improvement did not continue long and he began slowly to fail and died at 2 o'clock Monday morning.

Until a short time before his death Mr. Lange was conscious and gave full directions in reference to his funeral and burial and to his business affairs.

Mr. Lange is survived by a wife, who is a daughter of J. S. Short, and two daughters, Helen, 4 years of age, and Ruth, 18 months old. His parents Mr. and Mrs. Christian Lange, of this city, are living, as are his two sisters, Mrs. Anna Horton and Miss Minnie Lange, and two brothers, Dr. F. W. Lange and Louis A. Lange. His death is the first one in the family.

He was born in Scranton nearly thirty-three years ago and after careful application to study in the public schools of this city entered West Virginia University at Middletown, Conn. When he graduated from that institution he was well fitted to follow his first chosen profession, that of a teacher.

He soon became assistant principal in the high school and after two years in that position was appointed principal. He was principal ten years, his service being marked by splendid success, especially for a man so young.

BEGAN PRACTICE OF LAW. Just previous to the opening of the new high school Mr. Lange decided to practice law, a profession for which he had fitted himself while a teacher. He followed the usual course for a year and a half preceding his death and was gaining a clientele and business which indicated for him a splendid legal success.

Three years ago Mr. Lange's most recent home, a handsome and well appointed establishment, on Marion street, facing the head of North Washington avenue was finished. He removed there from Olive street. In this as in all other things he had arranged matters well and with careful regard to detail, a trait that was characteristic of him. In domestic as well as other prospects he had more to look forward to than most young men.

Among his acquaintances he was known particularly for his quick grasp of details and analytical mind. With this characteristic his mistakes were few. In real estate, financial and other investments he was very successful. As an entertainer in his home, a conversationalist and a man of broad information he was a valuable and helpful companion.

To the Masonic fraternity he was well known as the past master of Schiller lodge, No. 345. The funeral will be held Thursday. Further information concerning it will be announced today.

ANOTHER SWING ACCIDENT.

James J. Malloy Injured Yesterday at Nay Aug Park.

Another swing accident occurred yesterday in Nay Aug park. James J. Malloy, a young man of 20 years of age, parents at 199 Ninth street, fell from one of the large swings while it was high in the air and striking face downward on the ground he sustained a broken nose and dislocated shoulder.

He is being cared for at the Lackawanna hospital.

REILLY STILL WITH US.

Binghamton Police Have Sent No Instructions Concerning Him.

William Reilly, the man who says he is an escaped lunatic from Binghamton, remains in a cell at the central police station. He wandered in there Sunday night.

The police telephoned the man's description and story to the Binghamton authorities yesterday, but had received no instructions from that city up to a late hour last night.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 30. That is the Date Selected for the Third District Convention.

The Democratic standing committee of the Third legislative district met yesterday afternoon in Coyne's hotel, Minooka, and fixed Tuesday, Aug. 30, as the date of the convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature. The primary will be held on the preceding Saturday, the 27th. The convention will be held in the Mine Fire Extinguished. The fire which raged in the Parrish mine, Plymouth, all last week was extinguished Saturday.

A Good Set of Teeth for $3.00. Our Best Sets of Teeth . . . 5.00. Including the Painless Extraction.

DR. S. C. SNYDER. 321 Spruce Street, Opp. Hotel Jersey.

WITNESSES WALKED FROM ARCHBALD

AN INCIDENTAL ARGUMENT FOR MR. HOLGATE'S PETITION.

This and Other Arguments Induced Judge Archbald to Extend a Contested Order So That Witnesses from Archbald May Be Examined at the Carbonate Sessions of the Commission—T. F. Reynolds Presents an Affidavit.

As he said he would, Mr. Holgate yesterday went before Judge Archbald and secured an extension of the order governing the sessions of the contest commission in Carbonate, so that it will include Archbald in the list of towns whose voters are to be examined in the Pioneer City.

At Saturday's session of the commission, Mr. Holgate proceeded to call voters from the Third ward of Archbald, but he was stopped by the commissioners when Mr. McDonald protested that the order authorizing the Carbonate sittings of the commission only included Carbonate, Carbonate township, Fell, Jermyn and Mayfield, and, consequently, voters from other places would have to be examined in Scranton.

Mr. Holgate tried to show that there was nothing to be gained or lost on either side by having the witnesses examined in one place or the other, so long as they were examined, and endeavored to have Mr. McDonald's protest overruled. The commissioners could not see their way clear to go beyond the order of court, so Mr. Holgate said he would have the order of court enlarged.

A petition signed by T. E. Reynolds, who is serving the subpoena for Mr. Langstaff, was Mr. Holgate's argument for the enlargement asked for. This petition set forth that the two districts yet to be investigated in Archbald are relatively as near Carbonate as is the borough of Jermyn; that most of the witnesses summoned are poor people, who can ill afford to pay railroad fare that by going to Carbonate, instead of Scranton they can save 37 1/2 cents; and that the voters for this and other reasons would prefer Carbonate to Scranton as the place where they should go to be examined.

Among the incidental things that Mr. Reynolds makes affidavit to is that many of the Archbald witnesses who were examined in Scranton walked the whole distance to and fro, being too poor to pay the railroad fare.

Judge Archbald made an order to the effect that all of the borough of Archbald not already examined be included in the territory governed by the order authorizing the session in Carbonate.

No objection was offered to the granting of the order.

COAL GAS EXPLODED. Michael Gaffney, of Clark's Summit Burned About the Face.

Michael Gaffney, employed by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company as a pump runner at the Clark's Summit tank, had his face badly burned by an explosion of coal gas yesterday afternoon.

A large quantity of gas had accumulated in the furnace and it exploded when he opened the door. He had stooped over to peer in at the fire and the scorching flames struck him square in the face.

He was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital for treatment. It is thought his eyes were not permanently injured but it will be several days before this will be known definitely.

THE WORST IS FEARED. Attending Physician Has Little Hopes of Mr. Luce's Recovery.

Up to a late hour last night there was no change in the condition of R. W. Luce, whose critical illness was noted in yesterday's Tribune.

His attending physician Dr. Brewster says that while he can offer little hope to the afflicted man's family and friends he does not think his patient in immediate danger of death. Mr. Luce's malady is of a cancerous nature and it is feared is necessarily fatal.

ALICE BRANDT ARRESTED. Charge Against Her Dismissed by Alderman Millar.

Without money or friends to furnish bail for her, Alice Brandt was arraigned before Alderman Millar yesterday. She had been arrested on information made by a woman named May Cotton, who charged the prisoner with keeping a disorderly house.

The Brandt woman wore a gingham dress and sun-bonnet and showed a

Hand Bags, Suit Cases and Trunks. Prices Right.

CONRAD, 305 Lacka. Ave.

We Want to See You at Our New Loan Office, 227 Washington Ave.

GILLETTE BROTHERS, Auctioneers and Brokers.

Special Bargains in Watches, Jewelry, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods. Watches Repaired at Lowest Prices. See the

75c Shirts We Are Selling for 37 1/2c

E. G. Coursen Wholesale and Retail.

MALONEY OIL AND MANUFACTURING CO. 141 to 149 Meridian Street, Scranton, Pa. Phone 922.

BURNING, LUBRICATING AND CYLINDER OILS.

PAINT DEPARTMENT—Lined Oil, Varnish, Dryers, Japan and Shellac Stain.

PEACE CELEBRATION.

Montrose People Will Have a Big Time Next Week—Some of the Prominent Men Interested.

Montrose has taken the initiative in a big Susquehanna county celebration to be held in that town next week Wednesday, Aug. 31. It will be a peace celebration in which the model three-company fire department of the borough and the Veteran organization of the county will participate. The latter holds its annual encampment Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and on Wednesday the annual fire department parade will occur in conjunction with the peace festivities.

At the head of the movement are such well-known men as Hon. J. B. McDonald, of the supreme court; Judge D. D. Scribner; ex-Judge W. H. Jessep; Attorney William M. Post, Attorney A. H. McCollum, Editors J. P. Taylor and W. C. Cruser, Burgess A. B. Smith, W. D. R. Ainey, district attorney; Hon. E. H. True, Professor B. E. James, S. W. Wright, register and recorder; all of Montrose; C. F. Wright and Editors Ben F. Pride and H. T. Birchard, of Susquehanna; C. C. Pratt and Editors Vail and Howell, of West Milford; Hon. D. C. Titman, of Auburn; Editor Samuels, of Montrose; of Great Bend, and others prominent in Susquehanna county affairs.

Captain H. F. Beardsley, general commanding of the veterans' organization, and upon whom has fallen the chief executive work of the undertaking, was in Scranton yesterday making railroad and other arrangements. He is well-known to members of the Grand Army of the Republic as ex-president of the Seven-County Veterans' association, and has a wide acquaintance in this city. Captain Beardsley has secured Hon. Galusha A. Grow, congressman at large; Judge Alfred Darte, of Wilkes-Barre, and A. J. Colborn, of this city, to address the crowd that will flock to the quaint mountain town.

A monster crowd was seen many patriotic floats and containing other patriotic and allegorical ventures will be one of the chief attractions on Wednesday.

Before leaving Scranton yesterday Captain Beardsley succeeded in making arrangements for special excursion rates on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. From Aug. 30 to Sept. 2 inclusive tickets will be sold for one fare from Scranton, Binghamton and intermediate points to Montrose and return. Round-trip tickets will be sold for $1 each, good for only Aug. 31, the day of the peace celebration and parade. On that day the 9 o'clock a. m. train from Scranton will be run as a special train from Alford to Montrose.

WILL NOT BE A DRAW. Tonight's Fight in Music Hall Is for a Decision.

Tom Williams, the Australian, who is to box Jim Judge, the Scranton welterweight, twenty rounds at Music Hall tonight, reached here from New York city yesterday afternoon. He is stopping at the City hotel, on Penn avenue. With Williams are his manager, Fred Meschel, and handler, Jack O'Brien. Williams looks everything that it has been said and written about him. His appearance was a crowd magnet, and it is believed that Judge has a big contract on his hands.

Last night a telegram was received from Ike Long, of Wilkes-Barre, stating that from 100 to 150 persons from that city would be here and asking if the Delaware and Hudson train due to leave Scranton at 11:38 o'clock could be held until after the finish of the contest in case the wind-up came late.

Manager Skelly, of the American Sporting club, saw R. E. White, the Delaware and Hudson company's representative in this city, and received assurances that the train would be held fifteen minutes. This information was telephoned to Mr. Long.

This indicates that Wilkes-Barre, which always sends a crowd of good size and quality, will be well represented as usual tonight.

Two important things are promised by Manager Skelly: The main bout will begin at 9:30 o'clock sharp and it will positively be for a decision. There will not be a draw.

The Williams crowd began last night to quietly pick up all the Judge bets possible. Judge's friends responded for a time but finally decided to hold off for better than even money at the ringside. After 10 o'clock there was no betting. Win or lose Judge has no excuses to offer. He was never in better condition. He says so himself and his statement is seconded by Bobby Cobbs who has been training him, and who will be in his corner.

Judge finished work in Eckel's gymnasium yesterday afternoon and will weigh within a half pound of the limit at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Convention at Tunkhannock. The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

The Republican county convention at Tunkhannock yesterday nominated Charles Russell for the state legislature. Hon. E. J. Jordan was named as the choice of the county for congressman.

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES, TOO.

Contrary to a Former Ruling They Must Be Stamped.

Under a decision of the treasury department promulgated yesterday it is demanded by the war revenue bill that a ten cent reverse of the former marriage certificates. By this is meant the certificate given the contracting parties. The certificate returned to the clerk of the courts by the clergymen or justice of the peace is exempt.

This is a reverse of the former decision made by Commissioner Scott. Persons who have been married since July 1 would do well to secure a ten cent documentary stamp and place it upon their marriage certificates.

Under a decision of the treasury department promulgated yesterday it is demanded by the war revenue bill that a ten cent reverse of the former marriage certificates. By this is meant the certificate given the contracting parties. The certificate returned to the clerk of the courts by the clergymen or justice of the peace is exempt.

This is a reverse of the former decision made by Commissioner Scott. Persons who have been married since July 1 would do well to secure a ten cent documentary stamp and place it upon their marriage certificates.

Under a decision of the treasury department promulgated yesterday it is demanded by the war revenue bill that a ten cent reverse of the former marriage certificates. By this is meant the certificate given the contracting parties. The certificate returned to the clerk of the courts by the clergymen or justice of the peace is exempt.

This is a reverse of the former decision made by Commissioner Scott. Persons who have been married since July 1 would do well to secure a ten cent documentary stamp and place it upon their marriage certificates.

Under a decision of the treasury department promulgated yesterday it is demanded by the war revenue bill that a ten cent reverse of the former marriage certificates. By this is meant the certificate given the contracting parties. The certificate returned to the clerk of the courts by the clergymen or justice of the peace is exempt.

This is a reverse of the former decision made by Commissioner Scott. Persons who have been married since July 1 would do well to secure a ten cent documentary stamp and place it upon their marriage certificates.

Under a decision of the treasury department promulgated yesterday it is demanded by the war revenue bill that a ten cent reverse of the former marriage certificates. By this is meant the certificate given the contracting parties. The certificate returned to the clerk of the courts by the clergymen or justice of the peace is exempt.

This is a reverse of the former decision made by Commissioner Scott