

DAY'S DOINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

NICHOLS AND JOHN WON ROCK DRILLING CONTEST.

They Had a Complete Walk-over and Are Anxious to Meet All Comers. David Williams, a Spring Street Boy, Sustained a Broken Arm. Remains of John Timlin Laid at Rest in Cathedral Cemetery—John L. Evans Injured in Manville Mine—Cases Heard by Alderman.

In a rock drilling contest at Lake Poyntelle Tuesday the prize of $50 offered by the Heptasoph, who conducted an excursion to that resort, was won by William Nichols and David John, of this place. There were only two teams in the contest, one from this place, and another from Jermy.

BROKE HIS ARM.

A distressing accident befell David, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, of Spring street, yesterday morning. The youth had climbed the fence in front of his home, but became excited and fell.

DIED FROM CONVULSIONS.

Death came peacefully yesterday morning as a sweet relief to Ellen, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, of North Main avenue. Convulsions at frequent intervals, since last Friday, caused her death.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

Mary Kelly, of corner of Putnam street and Brick avenue, confronted a charge of larceny by bailie before Alderman Roberts yesterday. Mrs. Rachel Devine, the prosecutrix, averred that she has a scarfpin, valued at $8 in her possession which is Mrs. Devine's personal property.

Roberts. Bail was required in the sum of $300. James Connors, Jr., acknowledged assaulting Annie Cavanaugh, in a case brought before Magistrate Roberts. The information says he slapped and kicked her and also threw stones at her house. Heavy bail was furnished for his appearance at court.

FUNERAL OF JOHN TIMLIN.

Funeral services over the remains of the late John Timlin were held at the Holy Rosary church yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. J. O'Toole officiated. There were a large number of people present. All were deeply impressed by the sermon delivered. Preceding the services at the church large delegations were in attendance at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Durkin, of Durkin street, to view the remains.

MINE ACCIDENT.

John L. Evans, of 1740 Wayne avenue, was the victim of a painful accident yesterday, which might have terminated in his death. He is employed as a miner in the Manville mine. While following his vocation a large slab of rock fell from the roof narrowly missing his head, and striking his foot, crushing the member severely.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

William Sheubel, of Amelia avenue, is visiting relatives in New York. Henry Snyder, of Parker street, is suffering with an injury to his hand, which he sustained in the Richmond mine recently.

AMOS DETTY.

Amos Detty, of Deacon street, is suffering with a protracted illness. Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, of Margaret avenue, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter. John Lewis, of Putnam street, is visiting relatives in Jermy.

THOMAS WILLIAMS.

Thomas Williams, of Warren street, has returned from viewing the naval parade and other varied sights in Greater New York. William Andrews, of Amelia avenue, has returned from a two months' trip throughout Wales.

MISS MINNIE SILLECK.

Miss Minnie Sillick, of Amelia avenue, is confined to her home by sickness.

MISS ANN AND JOSEPHINE COLLIER.

Misses Anna and Josephine Collier, of Pittston, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Campbell, of William street.

MISS BELLE PEEL.

Miss Belle Peel, of West Market street, is visiting Pittston friends.

MISS MAMIE GERRITY.

Miss Mamie Gerrity, of Archbald, is being entertained by Miss Julia Gerrity, of McDonough avenue.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

MR. AND MRS. S. R. MEARS GIVE A RECEPTION.

R. E. Williams, of Catsasqua, Arrived Here Too Late to See His Sister Before She Died—Funeral of Mrs. McCormick from the Residence of Joseph Canterbury—Horse Owned by John McLean Frightened by a Road Roller—Notes of a Minor Character.

A pleasant reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Mears on South Main street yesterday evening. It was given by Miss Mildred Coons, in honor of her guests, Misses Jessie Polhamus, of Clark's Summit, and Della Stone, of Ithaca, N. Y. The hours were passed in various ways. Piano solos were given by several of the guests.

GREEN RIDGE.

Mrs. J. E. Clifford, of Penn avenue, has returned from a two weeks visit at Blue Hill.

AFTERNOON PARTY.

Mrs. H. J. Kingsbury, of North Eighth street, gave a party Wednesday afternoon in honor of her niece, Miss Florinda Jones, of Nanticoke. Music was furnished by Miss Kate Gallagher. Mrs. John Tafe and Miss Eva Towell helped the hostess in entertaining.

STRANGE COINCIDENCE.

A strange coincidence is connected with the death of Mrs. Mary Thomas, which occurred yesterday morning on South Hyde Park avenue. Her brother, R. E. Williams, who resides at Catsasqua, had not seen her in three years. On Wednesday something told him that he must go and see his sister.

FUNERAL OF MRS. M'CORMICK.

The funeral of the late Mrs. McCormick took place yesterday morning from the residence of Joseph Canterbury on Frink street. A short service was held at St. Patrick's church. Rev. Father Dunne officiating. The remains were laid to rest in Cathedral cemetery.

RUNAWAY HORSE.

John McLean, of the central city, while driving down Main avenue yesterday afternoon his horse became frightened at the roller which the workmen are using in paving the bricks between the street car tracks. The animal in running away came in contact with a hitching post in front of Tague's furniture store.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Morgan Thomas, of Jackson street, is visiting friends at Lansford. Mrs. Reese and daughters, Edith and Jennie, of Jackson street, and Miss Edwards, of Thirteenth street, have returned from a sojourn at Lake Winola.

MISS MAMIE GERRITY.

Miss Mamie Gerrity, of Archbald, is being entertained by Miss Julia Gerrity, of McDonough avenue.

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF LATE OTTO TROSS LARGELY ATTENDED.

Services Conducted by Rev. Mr. Nordt in Hickory Street Presbyterian Church—Floral Tributes Were Numerous and Beautiful—Michael Devitt Again Arrested on the Perjury Charge—He Has Prosecutor Fleming Arrested for Conspiracy. Children Arrested for Beating a Companion.

Not in a number of years was a funeral more largely attended here than that of Otto Tross yesterday. Two hours preceding the time arranged for the funeral his late residence, on Alder street, was thronged with friends and sympathizing neighbors, who came to pay a mark of respect to the life of the deceased.
