GLANCE AT THE MAYFIELD SCHOOLS

IMPORTANT SUGGESTIONS CON-CERNING THE SYSTEM.

People of That Community Are Awakening to the Needs of Their Children-Policy of the Board of School Controllers-Improvements That Have Recently Been Made.

Special to the Scraston Tribune. Mayfield, Aug. 28.—Tomorrow our schools open and the long vacation is at an end. This vacation has brought reasons for these additional labors. The people of this community are awakening to the needs of their children. They demand the best training, the best discipline, and the most modern text books. These demands are not peculiar to this community; they are now found in every well regulated They are simply in keeping with the universal law of progress. Moreover they are more easily made than filled. It is true of every line of business and particularly true of school work Keenly alive to the pressing needs of the situation, the Mayfield directors decided that they would employ, whenever possible, only the highest grade of teachers to keep themselves in touch with the wants of the hour by pursuing & course of professional reading of the very highest order.

The controllers have planned a course of study well calculated to reduce the time to be spent at the normal schools to a minimum. Many people of small means are thereby enabled to have most of the teaching done While the diploma, after but little additional work, is granted by higher institutions. Such is commendable in every respect. Our school, therefore, is shown able to do a high grade of work and, at the same time, is a means of economy to many.

On the other hand it has been the outspoken policy of the board to retain all its old teachers, when such is possible, and when good work is done. It is also their policy to discountenance the employment of teachers who have provisional certificates. While some have been and are now hired, the opinion is that the day is not far distant when only a permanent certificate or a normal disploma will be considered.

They mean to conduct this branch as all other departments-on strictly business principles. The best qualifications must be presented for the money paid. No other business was ever a success when otherwise conducted. The work done during the past year, generally speaking, is most commendable, and it would be to every one's interest to take a peek into the building while school is in session. Patrons then could see what they now only hear of. It would be encouraging to your children and to the teachers in charge. If parents care so little, who should care more? It is a thankless task to be a direc. when you do not see parents taking even a momentary interest in what is costing days and weeks of time, labor and anxiety.

DUTY OF A DIRECTOR. A school director who does his real duty does not do it perfunctorily, but does it with a zest, a spirit, a determiration, and all thinking, observing people so speak. Now, parents, can you not do as much for your own children as a stranger un outsider?

Speaking of improvements, let it be said that the people of this borough have a school house which is not excelled in this or any other county, and has but two or three equals in this county. You have the most modern, the most improved, the very best system of heating and ventilation that is within the power of money to purchase or the ingenuity of man to invent. The first cost has been more than that of many other systems, but the expense of operating it and maintaining it has been and is the minimum. A twelve horse-power engine, a fan capable of handling 12,000 cubic feet of air per minute, and a system of steam pipes that will heat that same air, together with the flues for conducting the air to the rooms and from them to the outside, briefly describes the plant. Every child is guaranteed cubic feet of pure air per minute That is the result of actual tests made, and is in keeping with the demands by all hygenic conditions. Throughout the building the same temperature prevails, and every effort has been and will be made to care for the health of every child. The board has recently coated the floors of the building with a dustless oil, so that all dirt or dust may remain on the floors until removed, the air is not filled with the nauseating particles of flying dust.

In fact, there are a hundred little conveniences that are provided for, and are all secured for the comfort, the convenience and education of the child. It is the purpose of the board to make a pleasant and enjoyable place. While all these things cost money, they are real necessities, and the child who can see and enjoy a green lawn, the shade of trees, a nice play room, the best books both for study and recreation, cannot fail to be greatly influenced thereby. THE TEXT BOOKS

Antiquated text books this year were discarded, and ones constructed along the lines laid down by the government experts were adopted.

Of course, there are many who wonder why no graduates have been turned out during the last four years. A school's success is never measured by the number of its graduates, but by the standing, by the work done by its pupils. This school was placed upon a ound basis three years ago. Refore graduates can be turned out, there must be pupils or students prepared to pass the necessary examinations. Such have not been found, and, until such do exist, it is folly to ask the question,

'Where are the graduates?' To regrade a school, to fashion a good course of study, to secure the best teachers, to provide the most modein text books, and the most natural conveniences, has been the work of the last few years.

The promotions made last year throughout the schools will see a graduating class next June. There is something more than book knowledge necessary for graduation; though power is the prime necessity.

With respect to the expenditure of the money collected, there is not a conservative business house in this whole community that more carefully guards its funds, and makes closer and better estimates for all things to be purchased. Citizens, everything connected with the school system of this horough is open for your inspection, and it is your duty to inspect.

Attention is called to the law regarding the vaccination of school children.

All children heretofore not successfully vaccinated must be vaccinated, and a physician's certificate, stating that the same has been done successfully, must be presented before admittance to the schools will be granted.

OLYPHANT.

The contract for the construction of sewer through the central portion of the town was awarded to Flannigan and O'Hara, of Scranton, at Saturday night's meeting of the council. There was considerable discussion as to the manner in which the pipes will be laid on Delaware street, so as to make it agreeable to residents living on both sides of the street. The firm proposes to do the work for $1.75 per foot, including all house connections, as per plans and specifications. The vote on the resolution resulted as follows: For Nealon, Reddington, O'Brien, Patten, Robinson, Burke, 6. Against, Howard, more work for teachers and directors than previous ones. There are many Lewis, O'Halloran, Marks, 4. The borough attarney was instructed to draw up a contract with the firm. President O'Brien called the attention of Tax Collector Hoban to the fact that there were bonds amounting to $2,000 due, and asked him to give the matter attention immediately.

Steve J. Evans, Martin Keegan and Attorney James J. O'Malley spent yesterday at Pittston. An election of delegates to the Republican county convention was held

IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

Hoyt's New Comedy.

Hoyt's latest comedy, "A Day and a was given its s Scranton production at the Lyceum Saturday night. It was the opening of the regular amusement season and a large audience was present. Tonight the comedy will have its first presentation in New York city at Hoyt's theater.

The comedy is somewhat broader and more vulgar than when first seen here. the spicing having been done evidently for the edification of New York's "crit-ical" theater-goers. A fine company is employed in presenting the piece. It includes such well known artists as Otis Harian, William Devere, W. H. Currie. Jane Cooper and Mae Lowery. The com-edy has the embellishment of the fine costumes and beautiful scenery.

Opens Tonight.

The Academy of Music opens tonight for the season with "The Girl I Left Behind Me" as the attraction. It is a thrili-ing play, whose dash, action, deeds of gallantry, weven into which is a pretty omance, well explained to those who witruns in the large cities. The drama will be presented on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night, matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday. A fine company will

Devil's Auction.

George D. Melville, the celebrated clown and pantemimist, has been commissioned by Charles H. Yale to arrange a new trick scene for the "Forever Dev-il's Auction." Mr. Melville has originated a number of very funny tricks and sit-vations for his new scene which will take the place of the older "Vaults of Benedicie" scene. Entire new scenery and celauism has been prepared to illustrate the new comic woes of "Toby" and his associates and it is expected that the new series of tricks and tribulations will core an immediate hit. The "Devil's Auction" will be seen at the Lyceum Wednesday night.

New Burlesque House.

This are ernorn the new Galety theater on Linden street will open its doors. Rose Sydell's Landon Belles Burlesque company with the beautiful enchanting Kar-ina and thirty people will be the opening attractor. Prominent among the artists are Campbell and Hart, old favorite Lutch comedians; Miss Teddy Pesquelina, Seymore and Larosa, Brown, Harrison and Brown, in a comedy operatic spec-ialty, and two new and original bur-lesques, "Widow Winn's Reception," and "Behind the Scenes," both of which bring forth the entire personnel of the organi-

Darkest Russia. A finely staged, cleverly acted romantic rama, with the prestige of runs in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Ch with the striking title of "Darkest Rusia," will be seen at the Academy Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The production in every way is most claborate, and abounds in effective tableaux and group. ings. The costumes are ma vels of beau ty, the artistic intermingling of color in the dress of the various characters present not only a pleasing, but striking ef-

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Aug. 27.—The bears manifested considerable confidence that a reaction in the prices of stocks was due today and they sold at the opening advance and carried prices at one time materially below last night's close. They had on their side a disposition by many holders to take profit. But the demand was so considerable as to observe all of was so considerable as to absorb all of-ferings at the decline and the bears were ferings at the decline and the bears were forced to cover quite heavily, lifting prices sharply above the lowest and in many cases above last night. The drop in Sugar at the opening was an unsettling factor and a determined drive against People's Gas firmly knocked off ½ from the price of that stock. It was evident also that there was an abundant supply of stock of the Grangers and of Northern Pacific to be had on any con-Northern Pacific to be had en any con-derable advance in prices. A number of prominent stocks showed vigorous resistance to the declining market and were potent factors in effecting the rally. Most conspicuous were the Union Pacific. The common rose P<sub>k</sub> on the opening demand and sold down nearly a point on the re-action. The preferred stock was firm action. The preferred stock was firm above last night's figures. The closing was somewhat irregular, some stocks showing effects of renewed buying while others suffered from continued profit-taking. Total sales, 287,900 shares. Furnished by WILLIAM LINN ALLEN & CO., steek brokers, Mears' building.
