FIXTURES

Dr. Ben F. Evans, of Clark's Green, was selected as a candidate for the legislature by the Democrats of the Third district, yesterday.

noon at Coyne's hotel in Minooka, John J Coyne, the district chairman, called the session to order. Permanent organization was effected by the election of A. A. Nichols, of South Abington, as chairman and M. F. Cusick, of

for the legislature proposed. He was placed in nomination by Frank Doherty, of Covington, and the nomination was seconded by John T. Brown, of Minooka, who had been prominently mentioned for the nomination but who had withdrawn ir. Dr. Evans' favor. James P. Law, of Taylor, also made a seconding speech.

Dr. Evans was brought before the convention and accepted the nomination in grateful terms. Resolutions were adopted as follows:

Whereas, The people of the old Key-stone state through misrepresentation and bad legislation the past number of years have suffered innumerable and grievous wrongs in the form of excessive taxation and unjust and inadequate laws. Rezolved, That in convention assembled we herein express our condemnation of the acts of the past Republican legisla-tures, in voting away the people's rights and over burdening them in general by the creation of unequal and unjust legis-lation. That we condomn as extravagant the bungling manner in which the Re-publican majority of the last house of representatives hardled the reconstruc-tion of the capital and the unbusinesslike way in which the interests of the state were looked after.

WILL FIGHT THE CLAIMS.

Lackawanna Township Taxpayers Are Up in Arms.

Steps were vesterday taken by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Kailroad company, the Lehigh Valley Railroad company and certain other taxpayers of Lackuwanna township to contest the validity of a great number of the claims that have been presented to Hon. John P. Quinnan, the marshal appointed to ascertain and report upon the indebtedness of the township.

They allege that orders were given out fraudulently and propose to challenge every claim reported favorably by the marshal, and make the holders prove that they were not secured through fraud or collision.

It is said there is an order affoat is sued to a woman for work on the township roads. It has not shown up as yet at the marshal's office and it is not likely that it will show up.

Marshal Quinnan will have a setting again this morning at his office in the Mears building.

yesterday refused the requisition of Governor Tanner, of Illinois, for the extradition of Morris Eppstein, of this city, wanted in Chicago to answer a charge of larceny, preferred by Edward Cohen, a wholesale dry goods dealer.

Eppstein was arrested two weeks ago n this city on a telegram from Chief Colleran, of the Chicago detective bureau. Attorney Nathan Vidaver strove to have him released on habeas corpus proceedings, alleging that there was nothing on which to hold him.

Judge Gunster continued the hearing three times to give the police an opportunity of securing extradition papers and was about to discharge the prisoner when word was received from Harrisburg that the requisition had been received and that a hearing on it would be held Tuesday, Aug. 30, Thereupon Judge Gunster decided to paroll Eppstein on bail to await the action of the state authorities. Yesterday's hearing was conducted by Deputy Attorney General W. F. Reeder. Sergeant Rowan, of the Chicago detective farce, who has been despatched to secure Eppstein, presented depositions tending to show that the accused had stolen from Co hen's store two sample cases containing silk underwear to the value o

Eppstein went on the stand and testified that he was in the habit of buying goods from Cohen on credit and bought the alleged stolen articles from the forelady of the store. He took them out and sold them and was about to make settlement for them when he received a telegram from his home, in this city, announcing the serious ill-ness of his mother.

He waited on Cohen, and telling him that because of the necessity of his returning at once to Scranton he could only pay him $20 of the $60 due on the bill of goods. Cohen refused to take part payment and threatened Eppstein with trouble if he did not settle in full. Eppstein said he couldn't pay more than $20 and when Cohen refused it a second time left without paying anything. Detective Rowan, on cross-examination, admitted that Cohen had told him Eppstein was in the habit of buying goods from him on credit, and this led to the refusal of the requisition. Word of Eppstein's release had pre eded him, and when he arrived home by a large crowd of his friends who expressed their joy at his release in a a very demonstrative manner.
