DAY'S DOINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

THOMAS JONES INJURED AT BRISBIN COLLIERY.

Struck in the Face by a Steel Rope. Mike Prosky Had a Narrow Escape from Having His Leg Crushed to a Pulp in the Marvine Breaker. Cases That Were Heard Before Alderman Roberts-Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Campbell Entertain in Honor of

Thomas Jones, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western corps of machinists met with a painful accident at the Brisbin colliery yesterday morn-

New first motion engines are being erected at the colliery by the machinists and Mr. Jones was engaged at the work when a large steel rope used in connection with a derrick swung around and struck him with great force in the face.

He was knocked unconscious to the ground and after recovery found five teeth missing. He also had a large gash across the forehead which bled profusely. His injuries necessitated his relinquishing work for the day. He resides on the West Side.

BEFORE ALDERMAN ROBERTS.

Three alleged offenders against the law were given a hearing before Alderman Roberts last evening. Bridget Caffrey, of 653 Wales street, acknowledged striking Patrick Durkin over the head with a fruit jar but said she was tormented to taking this extreme measure by abusive names applied to her. Durkin with a bandaged head prosecuted the cases. Bail was furnished in the sum of $300.

William McHeuzie acted disorderly on the street and said he did up coal operator James Flynn. Mr. Flynn gave the information that led to McHeuzie's arrest and subsequent arrangment before the alderman. He furnished $500 bail after the hearing.

On a charge of assault and battery and threats James Mahon was com mitted to the county jail in default of $400 bail. The woman whom he promised to love ,cherish and obey, Maggie Mahon, caused the arrest. The prose cutrix swore that he kicked and cuffed her and not satisfied with this vowed that he wound end her worldly existence.

FOOT IN THE COGS.

Mike Prosy is a lucky man that he did not have his leg crushed to a pulp in the Marine breaker yesterday. While walking around in the breaker during working hours his foot slipped into revolving cogs which fastened on to his heel and held it like a vice.

His cries of distress attracted the attention of workmen who stopped the machinery at once, and thus saving Prosky's leg. The heel was crushed He was assisted to his boarding house on Charles street where the member was dressed by a physician.

OFFICE OF CORONER.

Action of Yesterday's Convention Gives Much Satisfaction Here. Sketch of the Nominee-Mr. and Mrs. William A. Phillips Entertained in Honor of Their Little Daughter-Members of the Electric City Wheelmen Enjoy a Trip to Elmhurst-Matters of Minor In-

The Republicans of the West Side are heartily pleased over the nomination of Dr. John J. Roberts for coroner by yesterday's Republican county convention. He was heartily congratulated by his friends and neighbors last night. Dr. J. J. Roberts was born in Carnarvonshire, North Wales, and is the son of a wealthy and prosperous land owner still residing there. Dr. Roberts received a first-class college education and later took two courses in medicine in a university at Glasgow. In 1883 he came to America to fill an appointment as physician for the workmen at the great stone quarries owned and operated by Hugh W. Hughes, of West Pawlet, Vt.

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTS. Nominated by Republicans for Office of

These quarries are located in New York and Vermont, and Hughes was familiarly known as the "Quarry King." Dr. Roberts' appointment was the first of its kind among quarry owners and corresponded with similar positions held by physicians with the coal mining companies. In 1888 he ame to West Scranton and shortly afterwards purchased the good will of the large practice of Dr. H. I. lones, who departed shortly afterwards for Wales.

Dr. Roberts, by his application and ability, soon increased his practice enormously. He also purchased Dr. Jones' fine residence at 225 South Main avenue, where he and his family have since continued to reside. The old res idence was recently remodelled and made a fine modern residence. In the early 90's Dr. Roberts took two special courses. The one in Vermont, in nedicine, and the one at Jefferson Medical college, in Philadelphia, in

He has always been a staunch R publican and is an active member of friends in Moosic, the West Side Republican league, but has never before sought political preferment of any sort. He is a member of the West Side hospital staff and Lackawanna Medical society. He is ilso a member of the Royal Arcanum. Robert Morris lodge, True Ivorites, Knights of Pythias and the Masons, and of the West Side board of trade The genial doctor enjoys a large circle of friends in social and civil life.

He said last night that the majority he received was very flattering to him. It indicated that his friends were numerous and active. He fully appreciated that his opponents were worthy men, at whose hands it would have been no dishonor to sustain a defeat. He said that his every effort will be bent toward the ultimate success of the party's ticket as a proof of his appreciation of the honor conferred writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had been sick at my monthly periods for seven years, and tried almost everything I ever heard of, but without any benefit. Was troubled with backache, headache, pains in the shoulders and dizziness. Through my mother I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has done me so much good. I am now sound and well."

Mrs. HARRY HARDY, Riverside, Iowa. writes to Mrs. Pinkham the story of her struggle with serious ovarian trouble, and the benefit she received from the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is her letter:

"How thankful I am that I took your medicine. I was troubled for two years with inflammation of the womb and ovaries, womb was also very low. I was in constant misery. I had heart trouble, was short of breath and could not walk five blocks to save my life. Suffered very much with my back, had headache all the time, was nervous, menstruations were irregular and painful, had a bad discharge and was troubled with bloating. I was a perfect wreck. Had doctored and taken local treatments, but still was no better. I was advised by one of my neighbors to write to you. I have now finished the second bottle of Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am better in every way. I am able to do all my own work and can walk nearly a mile without fatigue; something I had not been able to do for over two years. Your medicine has done me more good than all the doctors."

INTERESTING CELEBRATION AT NOTZ RESIDENCE.

the Marriage of Mr. Notz's Daughter to Joseph P. Rutledge, of inkerman-Distressing Experience of Mr. and Mrs. James Kessler, Who Reside Near Simerson's.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Notz, 916 Birch street, was the scene of a happy joint celebration last night. The auspicious occasion was Mr. Notz's fifty-second birthday, and the marriage of his accomplished daughter, Miss Bertha C., to Joseph F. Rutledge, of Inkerman, near Pitts-

The ceremony that united the happy couple in marriage was performed at 7.39 o'clock in the main parlor of the cozy home, by Rev. Mr. Welker, of Pittston, in the presence of a large number of friends.

Miss Lydia Frable was maid of honor, and Miss Anna Kloss was bridesmaid. John Hoffsmith was the groomsman. The bridal party entered the room to the strains of the march from Lohengrin, rendered by Miss Ida Notz, sister of the bride.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the gathering partook of a sumptuous dinner. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts of silverware and china. Covers were laid for one hundred and forty guests and during the dinner the Ringgold band gave an excellent programme of patriotic airs and popular medleys. The bride were a pretty gown of white organdie. Misses Frable and Kloss were similarly attired. Among the guests were former associates of Mr. enjoyed a tandem ride to Wilkes-Barre Notz, when a member of the board of control, and members of the present organization. Today Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge will leave for Inkerman and commence housekeeping in a newly erected residence.

Mr. Rutledge is a leading young business man of Pittston, and greatly respected for his sterling qualities. His charming wife has been as active worker in society and church matters on this side. Her kindly disposition of character has won for her the admiration and esteem of a vast circle of friends. The out of town guests were: Mrs. L. Appleby and Miss Ida Appleby, of Wilmington, Del.; Misses Lizzie and Mame McKinley, Philadelphia; Miss Cora Rinker, Stroudsburg; Joseph, John, and Joplin, and wives, Miss Minnic Hoffsmith and Frank

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

James Kressler and his wife, an aged ouple who reside on a farm at the Beach," a few miles above Simerson's, met with serious accidents about 9 o'clock Monday night. They were driving to the city on the road that leads from the "burnt bridge" when a mile or so from Mountain Lake a strap on the harness on their horse gave way, frightening the animal, who made a desperate dash down the road The horse had proceeded not a long distance on his maddened chase when the wagon was overturned and the old people thrown into a pile of stones Brown spend Monday evening with dong the road side. picking himself up, found his wife

After a time Mrs. Kressler regained consciousness. Her husband made her as comfortable as pos sible, and then set out to secure aid. In the settlement at Mountain Lake e met Rudolph Frantz, who hitched his horse and without any unnecessary delay returned to where Mrs. Kress ler lay. She was taken to Mr. Frantz's home and given stimulants. Later she was removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kleump, on Irving avenue, and Dr. Kolb was summoned. found her suffering from several deep cashes on the head, and her face on the right side was a mass of bruises and cuts that will disfigure her appearance for life. Her left arm was broken at the wrist joint, and the shoulder blade of that member was dislocated. Mr. Kressler's injuries were of a much less serious nature. The gash on his head was the most serious. Mrs. Kessler's recovery is not at all assured.

TROUBLE ADJUSTED.

The adjorned meeting of the Century hose company last night was presided over by Councilman Edward Frable in the absence of President Baum. The committee appointed at a special meeting Monday night to confer with Joseph Albrecht who has been given the contract for furnishing the new uniforms for the company reported that the misunderstanding between Mr Albrecht and the company was adjusted with the result greatly in favor of the company. The report was adopted. On motion of Chief Hickey it was deided to give a note of thanks to the ladies and gentlemen engaged in the recent contests conducted under the auspices of the company. An article in a Sunday paper of reent issue which stated that one of the men engaged in the contest for the fireman's trumpet was looked upon by the comapny as not having turned in all money collected by him was branded as a lie, and the company put itself on record as stating such.
